—at Narbonne High School

Forty-three Narbonne students are enrolled in the Junior Honor Society this semester. Twelve of them are in the scholarship division, with an "A" average, while 31, with a "B" rating, are in the honor group.

In the scholarship group are Bernice Fish, Gertrude Hagum and Rose Taple, A9; Hilda Colberg, Betsy Ann Hunt, June Lindgren, Pauline Stump, Tave Suruki and Eleanor Vaughan, B9; Kiyoto Nakahara and Frank Wales, A8, and Robert Lindgren, A7.

Members of the honor division are Pearl Roomsburg, Betty Simpson, Dorothy Ward and Morgan Williams, A9; Madeline Groover, Ewao Nishikawa, Helen Schultz, Kikue Shlotus, Shingo Wada, Vivian Wilkerson and Evelyn Young, B9; Edward Gibson and Doris Mae Laule, A8.

Robert Barker, Louise Herrin, Akira Hojo, Sayoko Kawinshi, Lois Nansel, Donnell Newman, Fern Sutcliffe, Chisato Tadakuma and Masatsugi Tawa, B8; Eugene Beckman, Lee Courtney, Audree Kantrud, Ted Kimberling, Kiyoko Masuda, Marilyn Routsong, Kiyoshi Takaki, George Wada and Tommy Yasuhiro, A7.

Since hour periods have been in effect beginning last semester, there has been a noticeable increase in enrollment in the Honor Society.

Founders' Day was celebrated by the Narbonne P. T. A. recently with a pageant presented by the organization under the direction of Mrs. Schwartz. When the curtain went up, a large album was seen on the stage. Then, as the pages were turned, outstanding characters in P. T. A. work, including the founder, were pictured. Each student, impersonating an album character, spoke briefly of her achievements.

The prologue, explaining the history and accomplishments of the P. T. A., was given by Dorothy Morris. Phoebe Apperson Hearst was impersonated by Geneva Straub; Mrs. Mary McAllen Birney by Dorothy Cochran; Mrs. David O. Meers by Dorothy Springman; and Mrs. W. W. Murphy was portrayed by Catherine Lupin. Helen Smith turned the pages of the album.

Cake and coffee were enjoyed in the cafeteria afterwards by the P. T. A. members.

A fire drill held Tuesday afternoon emptied the building in one minute and 15 seconds. Regular practice in the drill is held at the school, to prepare the students for orderly evacuation of the rooms in case of a fire or earthquake. The students are required to line up at the outer edge of the lawn to be out of the way of falling walls.

Narbonne students enjoyed their first "talkie" given in the auditorium yesterday when Zane Grey's picture of life in the South Seas was projected. Proceeds from the show go into the treasury of the Scholarship Society.

At the National Orange Show judging contest held a week ago, Billy Brians took third in judging lemons, and the Narbonne team, composed of Clark Walker, Billy Brians and Wallace Mayer, placed third in judging packed boxes.
