FIGHTING TARTARS HUMBLE POWERFUL GARDENA SQUAD

Touchdown in the Last Five Seconds of Play Crowns Torrance With the Wreath of Victory; Colorful Thriller Electrifies Poyeyed Spectators

Game to the core, the fighting Tartars of 1934. With the score 12-7 against them in the last two minutes of the last quarter, the Bulldog Drummonds of Woods Field laid the powerful Gardena team among the lilacs last Friday afternoon and in doing so gave the packed stands and the 250 spectators who crowded around every vantage point outside the fence the most colorful "movie thriller" game that a Torrance team has ever played.

A flat pass from Watson to Javens in the last five seconds of play turned the tide for Torrance. The big crowd gasped with hope and fear during the closing minutes of the game when Torrance took the ball somewhere near mid-field and began a steady march through the Gardena line down to the 20-yard stripe.

Seconds ticked off relentlessly, and the anxious watchers held their breath and prayed. Could these demon Tartars make it? Could they slip over that one last thrilling punch that meant the game? Or would somebody slip, a play go wrong, and the ball be lost to Gardena with victory so near. They could. They did. Nobody slipped, nobody fumbled, the pass caught, Gardena flatfooted and the score was 13-12 for Torrance.

A roar went up from the pop-eyed beholders that could have Adzovich kicked for the extra point but the kick was blocked. The extra point was not needed, for Adzovich's kick had given Torrance that one little advantage early in the third quarter after he had slipped over the line for the Tartar's first score.

Gardena won the toss and kicked off. Adzovich ran the ball back to the 30-yard line, and for the first two quarters the battle raged most of the time in mid-field with neither team gaining an inch.

Late in the second quarter Gardena gained yards on a passing attack and threatened to score. With seconds to go Gardena had the ball deep in Torrance territory. A forward pass with a Gardner runner eluding all pursuers all but put the visitors on the scoreboard but Jack Javens diving from behind caught the runner around the ankles and spilled him six inches from the line. The gun sounding for the end of the half saved the Tartars at that point.

So bitterly had the fight been waged during the first two quarters that time out had to be taken after almost every play to revive somebody laid low. Austin, sent in for McFadden at right end, left the field after he had been in the game less than three minutes with a gash under one eye and his nose smashed when someone planted a cleated shoe in his face as he lay on the ground. Four stitches were taken to close the wound in his cheek, and Austin will probably be out of the line-up for the rest of the season while the fractured bones in his nose are healing.

Substitutions for Torrance were Paxman for Johnson; Hoffman for Selby; Clark for Bond; Nady for C. Smith; Austin for McFadden; McFadden for Austin; McLean for Bond; left guard, was yanked in favor of Clark early in the game when a cut received a few days ago in an automobile accident, was reopened.

Jim Grubbs, center, played throughout the game with wrenched neck muscles, but refused to come until the last play had been made.

Torrance took the lead in the third quarter on a short pass that put them within inches of the goal line and a line plunger by Adzovich carried the ball over.

Adzovich kicked goal. Gardena unwound its aerial attack in earnest in the fourth quarter consistently against the Tartar secondary and scored two touchdowns in rapid succession. They were unable to get anywhere on line plunges, the Tartar wall holding for downs on every play, but Van Ripper, Gardena passing threat, got away pass after pass for long gains. Only a few times during the game did the Tartars attempt to pass but depended on straight football for their gains which were made consistently through the Gardena line, in spite of the preponderance of beef against them.

Touchdowns: Van Ripper, Kinsey, Adzovich, Javens. Extra point: Adzovich.

Wrestling Tournament Tomorrow Night Brings Best In The West

The wrestling tournament being sponsored by the Torrance P. T. A., tomorrow night October 12 at the Municipal park, has more champions in it than any meet of its kind ever held in Southern California. All the Coast champions will present.

Robert from Hollywood 'A. C.' is present coast champion and a logical choice in the 115-lb. class. Knox, also from U. C. L. A., holds the title in the 126-lb. division. Hunt, from U. C. L. A., won the 15-lb. class in the last Pacific Coast meet. He will be on hand to meet any new challengers. Bruno from Inglewood who was the last Japanese Olympic wrestling team, is the 145-lb. champion. Woodhead, of Hollywood 'A. C.', is back as kingpin of the 155-lb. grapplers. He was a champion before most of the present crowd knew a full Nelson from a toe-hold. His team-mate, Taylor, 165-lb. champion, is one of the most finished grapplers on the Coast. An accident incurred last week will keep Conrad Caldwell, present light-heavy titleholder, on the sidelines. Caldwell is a product of the famous Ed Gallagher at Oklahoma A. & M., who has produced more national champions in the last decade than any other three coaches in the U. S. Victor Chang, of the L. A. A. C., was injured in a workout two weeks ago and may not compete. His absence leaves the heavyweight class a wide-open affair.

Opposing the champions are many wrestlers of ability. Weede, of L. A. A. C., is a fast, smooth 125-pounder. E. Stout, recently of Oklahoma, has held the National A. A. U. 135-lb. championship the last two years. Each contestant in the 145-lb. class has held the title at one time or other. Adzovich, of the L. A. A. C., and Francis, from Inglewood, complete this formidable array.

Woodhead has for his competitors, Fred Mautz, battling warhorse from L. A. A. C. and F. Stout, another National A. A. U. champion from Oklahoma.

In the 165-lb. division, Taylor will be opposed by Art Hodges, last year's title holder, and Pat Hogan. Pete Chelentz, who is the favorite of the 175-pounders, will be opposed by Louis Redman, an Illinois product, and Schillier of Inglewood. Teague, another Oklahoma product, now with the L. A. A. C., will compete in the heavyweight class against entries from Inglewood, Hollywood and U. C.

A. Teague and Caldwell were both members of the last Olympic team. Teague is the present National Intercollegiate and A. A. U. heavyweight champion.

There are 15 college men in this tournament. Of local interest are A. O. A. Hodge, U. C.; Ralph C. Teague, S. W. Oklahoma; and L. D. Redman, U. of I.—all employees of The National Supply Company.

The officials will be Conrad Caldwell, who was to have competed, and Roy Moore, fagboys and school coach. These two selections assure the contestants and fans a square deal, as both know all the answers.

In view of the fact that the boys are volunteering their services and the receipts are to be used for such a worthy purpose, there is small need to urge a large attendance. Whether the object is from a sporting viewpoint or from a charitable one, the fans are assured an evening of worthy entertainment. The price is within the means of all—only 25 cents for adults and 10 cents for children.

Through the graciousness of the Richfield Oil Company, the audience will be kept fully informed at all times, by public address system, of the details of the proceedings.

Hole-in-One After 11 and 12 DAYTON, O. (U.P.)—As a golfer, Mrs. H. W. Alexander may not be consistent, but at least she accomplished something difficult. After taking 10 strokes on the fifth hole, 11 on the sixth and 12 on the seventh, she made a hole-in-one on a 146-yard eighth hole. She used a driver.

Fair Breks Records SALEM, Ore. (U.P.)—All attendance records were broken at this year's Oregon State Fair, Max Gehlhar, director, announced today. Total attendance approximated 185,000.

Big Shots Of Baseball At Lomita Sunday

Walt Morris' Merchants Will Go Against Bob Meusel's All Stars

Stars of the major leagues will be seen at the Lomita baseball park next Sunday when Walt Morris' Lomita Merchants go a round with Bob Meusel's All Stars. Game will be called at 2:45 o'clock.

The Merchants have just finished a very successful season in the Harbor League and are all set to go with the big league boys. Fitzsimmons, just returned from the east where he was on the pitching staff of the New York Giants, nosed out by St. Louis for the championship, will be on the mound for the Merchants. The rest of the local squad will be Markham, Springman, Van Tress, Harvey, Hamilton, Long, Joe Venable, Charabrajke, Morris, Patagon, Moudy, Police, Rumsey and Cottle, out of which Morris will pick his line-up with plenty of substitutes.

The All Stars will have Schultz, of the Western League; Joe Kirtland, Arizona League; Bob Meusel, New York Yankees; Irish Meusel, New York Giants; C. Barmabe, Texas League; Wally Hood, Los Angeles, Pacific Coast League; John Rawlings, New York Giants; J. Perez, Nottlinger and Art Brugge, Los Angeles semi-pro; and Bill Goodman, semi-pro.

This list of stars ought to cause a good deal of interest among the fans of the Torrance contingent who will probably go down Sunday to watch the big shots perform.

Games On the Coast FRIDAY St. Mary's vs. Nevada. Oregon State vs. Columbia of Pacific. SATURDAY U. C. L. A. vs. Montana. California vs. College of the Pacific. Stanford vs. Northwestern. Washington vs. Oregon. Gonzaga vs. Washington State at Spokane. Santa Barbara vs. U. S. C. Spartans. Occidental vs. San Diego at San Diego. Whittier vs. Arizona. Cal. Tech. vs. Redlands at Redlands. Pomona vs. La Verne. SUNDAY Loyola vs. Santa Clara.

TORRANCE 13, GARDENA 12! This was the final result of the hardest fought game and the best one ever played on Torrance high's field. Torrance took the lead early in the third quarter after holding Gardena's hard hitting team to a scoreless tie in the first half. Adzovich converted the kick for the extra point, which won the game for the fighting Tartars. Gardena opened up an aerial attack second to none in the final quarter to score two touchdowns, but failed to convert either of these goals. Torrance turned on the heat and fought down the field to the twenty yard stripe, on the fourth down and less than 10 seconds to go, scored the winning points with a flat pass from Watson to Javens, Adzovich failed to convert.

JIM GRUBBS, 145 pound center, for Torrance played heads up ball throughout the entire game. Grubbs was playing against a small lad, Gardena's center is only 125 lbs. and 4 inches tall and tips the scales at 200 lbs. of muscle, but Jim was consistently taking his man out and breaking up Gardena's end runs. Grubbs was Milton Everett's under study last year when MIT was selected All-Marine center. Grubbs is playing the key position as well as his old master and Torrance may have another All-Marine center this year. Grubbs was also on the team last year. Coach Donohue has one other good man out for this position, H. Richhart, at 140 pounds, who will see action against El Segundo and Leuzinger.

TORRANCE looked weak on defense when those forward passes zoomed over their heads. Van Ripper threw passes from all angles and completed most of them. Gardena made six first downs to Torrance's five. Next week's game is at El Segundo. Torrance should win.

PETE ZAMPERINI, brother to Louie, was recently elected president of the Compton Junior College student body. Pete is also president of one of the large fraternity houses at the Junior College. The Zamperini brothers are making names for themselves that will go down in local sport history. Louie holds the world's record for the mile while Pete is the best Junior College miler and half miler on the Pacific coast. Pete is one of the highest scholastic standing students in the Compton institution. Torrance should be proud of these two boys.

Cocktail Shaker Didn't Help BUFFALO, N. Y. (U.P.)—For each of the four events which Roger Don Rae, of Lansing, Mich., won at the annual Buffalo Air Races, he received a silver cocktail shaker and a set of glasses. He doesn't drink. He found consolation, however, in the fact that he took down first money in each of the races.

MARINE LEAGUE GAMES TOMORROW

TORRANCE at El Segundo. Gardena at Narbonne. Leuzinger, bye. Only two home games will be played by the Torrance Tartars this year. The Gardena game, played last Friday, and the Narbonne game on November 2. Games with El Segundo and Leuzinger will be played there.

Narbonne Gauchos Romp Over Poly Jrs.

Narbonne Gauchos ran over the Long Beach Poly high junior varsity team, 51-0, last Friday in their last practice game before they start play in the Marine League series. Coach Ben Comrada has his usual fast light team, which has won so many championships and is all set to repeat this year.

However, he will be short a couple of good men against Gardena Friday as Allan Rider is still on the sidelines and David Basting was injured in the practice against Long Beach. Gardena will probably be in no better shape as from all accounts their tilt with Torrance last week put several of their players on the shelf for a few days.
