They're Absolutely Free - These Novel Ice Box Cleanaires

Torrance Electric Shop 1419 Marcelina Avenue, Westinghouse dealers, announce a free gift of a Cleanaire Food Conditioner to any owner of a ice box who lives either in a single or double house. This unprecedented free offer of extreme interest to all ice box owners is being made a part of a public introduction of the thirty-two advantages of the new 1934 Westinghouse Refrigerators.

This food conditioner overcomes and absorbs all food odors and is particularly efficient in eradicating the unpleasant condition which exists when the odors of two dishes mingle.

In addition to absorbing food odors, this free food conditioner also keeps ice in better condition by preventing these odors from attaching themselves to the ice and thus making it less palatable for cooling summer drinks.

As result, the interior of the ice box is kept sweeter, cleaner, more sanitary. A thermometer in the food conditioner allows the ice box owner to keep a constant check on ice and prevents such unpleasant occurrences as running out of ice unexpectedly as a result of sudden heat waves.

Mr. Scott of the Torrance Electric Shop says that he has had a hard time supplying the demand for these food conditioners because of the very great demand.

Milady May Stay Slender On Beer

Wonders never cease. Old theories are exploded again. Instead of making people fat, beer has been discovered as the ally of slender figure.

"Calories are necessary to produce fatty tissue," says Wayne McCullister, vice president, Balboa Brewing Company. "We have perfected a beer that is vitally low in caloric content, and a series of tests have disclosed that it can be mistaken of without adding weight."

"As a matter of fact four glasses of Balboa beer contains less calories than a cup of coffee with the trimmings or a slice of salad with salad dressing, which the average person thinks are not fattening."

"Besides, Balboa beer contains the essentials of quick food energy to restore bodily activities. It increases the basal metabolism which results in an increased sense of well-being, clearer thinking and better nature."
