

NEW ARRIVALS FROM DENVER

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Woodcock and two children, of Denver, Colorado, arrived in Torrance Monday to make their home. Mr. Woodcock is in charge of the pipeline work for the Hughes-Mitchell Processes, whose new plant is now being erected on South Normandie avenue.

FERN AVENUE P. T. A. NOTES

Fern Avenue Parent Teachers Association held their first meeting of the year in the kindergarten rooms Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. Chas. Arzilli presided at the meeting.

Mrs. Oda Vans, principal of the school, was introduced to the mothers. She spoke briefly on the need to be derived from harmony between school and home. Mrs. L. A. Stump, president of Lomita-San Pedro council, was the guest speaker, and her subject, "Influences of Parent-Teacher Work in Home and School," was timely and interesting. Mrs. Stump urged mothers to keep pace with their children. She told of the singing mothers in the district and urged Torrance women to keep a song in their hearts. A reading by Chas. Stedman, "The Child's Lament," was thoroughly enjoyed. Teachers were introduced and tea was served.

Former Torrance Girl Married In L. A. Sunday

Margery Roelofs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Roelofs, 8778 Dalton avenue, Los Angeles, was married to Herman L. Rikard, of Eugene, Oregon, Thursday evening, in the Figueroa Christian church, Los Angeles, at 8:30 p. m. Rev. J. M. Applegate performed the ceremony in the presence of some 300 relatives and friends of the couple.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin, princess style with long sleeves and high neckline. She wore the conventional hip length veil with halo cap of lace and carried a shower bouquet of white roses, sweetpeas and lilies of the valley. Miss Lorraine Roelofs, as maid of honor for her sister, wore a gown of yellow crepe and carried a bouquet of yellow roses.

Mrs. Bernice Terry, of Inglewood, and Miss Margaret Long, of Los Angeles, as bridesmaids, wore gowns of blue taffeta and carried bouquets of pink roses. Wayne Salter, of Ceres, California, served as best man. Little Arthur Logg acted as ring bearer and Ann Stokes as flower girl. Mrs. Lyle Donner and her daughter, Miss Dorothy Donner, played the wedding march and accompanied the singers. Mrs. Lex Briney, the bride's sister, sang "At Dawning"; Lex Briney sang "I Love You Truly," and in duet, Mr. and Mrs. Briney sang "Oh Promise Me."

Following the church wedding an informal reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The couple left Sunday evening for Eugene, Oregon, where they will resume their studies at the Northwestern Christian College. Both are studying for the ministry. The bride was graduated from Torrance high school with the 1932 class. The family, until a few years ago, lived on Ampolva avenue.

ATTEND LOS ANGELES P. E. CLUB MEETING

Torrance ladies who attended the meeting of Pacific Electric Club in the Los Angeles clubhouse, Sixth and Main streets, Thursday, in the presence of Frank Miller, H. A. Green, Oscar Reese, R. Conner, Frank Carr, Dan Barnard. Following a short business session, Mr. Rosbaum of the Good Will Charities, presented a splendid program which included musical numbers and impersonations.
