 LOOK FOR YOUR NAME IN THE ADS BELOW

Read all the "ads" carefully. Your name may be printed in parenthesis like this (J. E. Jones), in an inconspicuous manner. Some names of lucky winners are in the Classified ads, others somewhere in the boxed ads on this page. Twelve tickets are given away each week. Go to the store in whose advertisement YOUR name appears and you will receive two (2) tickets to the Torrance theatre. You are under no obligation to make a purchase.

Note: Read every line or you may overlook your name and the Free Tickets.

WE KNOW YOU, JIMMY CAGNEY

We know that you know he's really Jimmy Cagney, but "The St. Louis Kid" is the title of his latest Warner Bros. comedy, coming Sunday and Monday, December 30 and 31, to the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne. Patricia Ellis, Allen Jenkins and Dorothy Dare assist Cagney in providing the many hilarious situations in the film.

Sylvia Sidney in the starring role of Paramount's B. P. Schulberg production, "Behold My Wife," coming tonight, Friday and Saturday to the Torrance Theatre, and on the same bill, Mary Carlisle and Sterling Holloway in "Girl of My Dreams." Also Man Mountain Dean in Champion Wrestling Match with Hans Stienke.

BUCK JONES OPENS NEW "RED RIDER" SERIAL AT LOMITA
 Buck Jones begins another of his sensational "Red Rider" serials at the Lomita Theatre, Thursday, December 27, and continuing Friday and Saturday, this week. No lover of the great outdoor hero will want to miss the first episode of the thrilling new serial and should plan to attend one of the next three nights, or the Sunday matinee.

An Old Hawaiian Custom

We mean the "Hau," Hawaiian dance of love, which Ruby Keeler and Dick Powell are seen watching so intently. These beautiful tropical dances serve to introduce Warner Bros. great military musical, "Flirtation Walk," which pictures life at West Point in music, comedy and drama. Pat O'Brien, Ross Alexander and Glen Boles assist in the cast of this Frank Borzage production, which comes to the Torrance Theatre Sunday and Monday, December 30, 31. Also showing Ben Lyon and Sari Maritza in "Crimson Romance."

A Grin From the "Gridiron Flash"

All hero is Eddie Quillan, the reformed bandit turned collegian in the role of the "Cherub" in RKO-Radio's "Gridiron Flash." Betty Furness as the captivating co-ed is giving the gridiron demon a great big hand—and more. Coming to the Torrance Theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. Continues on New Year's Day.

John Boles In Toils of Social Propriety In "Age of Innocence"

It isn't always the woman who monopolizes the heartbreak of a romantic disappointment. It happens equally to Boles in RKO-Radio's drama, "The Age of Innocence," in which he co-stars with Irene Dunne in their first appearance in films together since "Back Street."

The story, a gripping one, deals with that period in America when social duties, rules of conduct and the proprieties were so powerful that a man had to mind the social rules or be ostracized by his family.

Sewed up by stiff-ribbed threads of custom, Boles finds himself madly in love with a woman his world will not permit him to have, and tied down by an engagement to the girl he doesn't want. The plot deals with his exciting and dramatic efforts to extricate himself.

Miss Dunne appears as what may be technically described as the "other woman," but not as a siren. "The Age of Innocence" comes to the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne, Friday and Saturday, this week.

Approval of Sale Expected Tomorrow

Final approval of the sale of the assets of the Sunset Pacific Oil Company to the Sunset Oil Company, a reorganization of stockholders, is expected to be given Friday when the matter comes before Federal Judge Harry C. Holtzer in Los Angeles. Bid of the stockholders was $5,000,000—in paper—for the assets of the corporation that is all that is left of the golden bubble once called the Julian Petroleum Corporation.

HOME FOR HOLIDAY

Mrs. John Wilson and her daughter, Mrs. Annora Jorabek, who have been residing at White-water where Mr. Wilson is employed, came to Lomita Monday to spend Christmas among old friends and neighbors.

At the Lomita Theatre, Sunday and Monday, December 30 and 31

JOHN BOLES in "KING OF JAZZ" UNIVERSAL SPECIAL
 With Paul Whiteman, Bing Crosby and John Boles heading the all-star cast in their musical, scintillating picture, "King of Jazz," patrons at the Lomita Theatre are promised a gay evening's entertainment if they attend Sunday or Monday.

Another highlight on the program these two days at the Lomita Theatre is Grace Bradley in "Red Head."

Keeler and Powell, Screen's Popular Lovers, In New Hit

The most popular co-starring team on the screen today, Ruby Keeler and Dick Powell, make their fifth appearance together in "Flirtation Walk," the new First National musical romance, which comes to the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne, next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

The Keeler-Powell combine has appeared in "End Street," "Diggers of 1933," "Footlight Parade" and "Dames."

While their other successes have presented them against a theatrical background, "Flirtation Walk" shows them in an entirely new setting. Their romance begins in Hawaii, where Ruby, a General's daughter, meets Dick, a young private in the army. Then the action switches to West Point, where Dick is trying to make himself an "officer and gentleman."

Frank Borzage, famed for "Seventh Heaven" and "Little Man, What Now?" directed the new Keeler-Powell picture in which Pat O'Brien has a leading role as a tough army sergeant.

There are several magnificent dance sequences, directed by Bobby Connolly and featuring hundreds of Hollywood's most beautiful girls. The Hawaiian dance number introduces Sol Hoopii and his orchestra, known to all lovers of the theatre.

Continous Show At Torrance On New Year's Day

Two fine pictures, with a snappy comedy and news flashes, will make up the bill at the Torrance Theatre, next Tuesday and Wednesday, January 1 and 2. The pictures are "Have a Heart," starring Spencer Tracy and Jean Parker, and "Gridiron Flash," with Eddie Quillan and Betty Furness in the leading roles. The show will be continuous from 2 to 11 o'clock p. m., and will offer a fine entertainment for New Year's Day.

It saves steps to read the ads and make up your shopping list in the privacy of your own home. Bargains galore without moving from your chair.
