War On Liquor Traffic Subject of Public Address

R. S. Middleton, of Indianapolis, known throughout the country as the veteran advance man of the Flying Squadron Foundation, appeared in this city on Tuesday offering the services of Miss Norma C. Brown, of Bloomington, Illinois, vice president of the organization, for a public address on the "On-coming War With the Liquor Traffic." Local friends of the prohibition movement were quick to recognize this opportunity and arranged for a public address to be held in the First M. E. church, Sunday, January 27, at 3:00 p. m. Miss Brown is nationally known as a lecturer. It is said that her discussion is comprehensive and illuminating, free from shallow emotionalism and vituperation. The local churches are co-operating in this community meeting.
