

BRITISH STAR of "Evergreen" is FILM FIND

A Benn W. Levy romance as sympathetically treated as his memorable "Mrs. Moonlight," a background said to embrace as much splendor as has ever been crowded into one musical film, and a cast of real favorites are said to be the ingredients of Gaumont British's current offering at the Torrance Theatre, Jessie Matthews in "Evergreen." The picture's engagement will run three nights starting tonight, as a companion to the feature, "Forsaking All Others."

Miss Matthews is the newest and one of the most sensational film finds of G. B. Productions and has had an enviable reputation on the musical comedy stage of London previous to her elevation to film stardom. She played a solid year on the stage in "Evergreen" before it was transferred to the films.

"West of the Pecos" Opens Tonight at Plaza Theatre

Three Scintillating Stars Shine at Torrance

Not since "Dinner at Eight" has a motion picture created as much advance discussion as Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's newest offering, "Forsaking All Others," which is shown tonight, Friday and Saturday at the Torrance Theatre with a cast headed by three of filmdom's most popular stars—Joan Crawford, Clark Gable and Robert Montgomery—who make their first appearance together in the elaborate new film. Adapted from the stage hit of the same name the story depicts the plight of a bride who is deserted at the altar but succeeds in laughing it off. The picture was directed by that master of comic situations, W. S. Van Dyke, whose last success was "The Thin Man," and the supporting cast includes such well known players as Billie Burke, Charles Butterworth, Frances Drake and Rosalind Russell.

Barnum and His Tippling Aide

Walter Dill Scott's comedy, "Barnum and His Tippling Aide," starring the stylish "Prince of Humbugs," and Adolphe Menjou as Mr. Walsh, his tippling aide in 20th Century's "The Mighty Barnum," released through United Artists, which comes Sunday, Monday and Tuesday to the Torrance Theatre.

"Bordertown" with Paul Muni Opens at Lomita Tonight

Hailed as the talking screen's two greatest portrayers of emotion, Paul Muni and Bette Davis smilingly regard the result of their greatest dramatic effort, the Warner Bros. production "Bordertown," in which the star of "I Am a Fugitive From the Chain Gang" and the sensation of "Of Human Bondage" reach new stellar heights. "Bordertown" which also features Margaret Lindsay will be shown at the Lomita Theatre, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, this week. On the same bill is shown Bing Crosby and Kitty Carlisle in "Here is My Heart."

WHAT A GIRL what a horse WHAT A MAN Frank Capra's newest Columbia picture, "Broadway Bill," comes to the Torrance Theatre Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, February 24, 25 and 26, with Warner Baxter and Myrna Loy co-starring. In view of Capra's two most recent pictures, "It Happened One Night" and "Lady For a Day," this is indeed a cinematic event. "Broadway Bill" is a romantic story with a masterful blending of drama and comedy for which Capra is noted. It is the story of a nomad who throws over the luxury and wealth of his wife's family for the love of a horse and a girl who, in her way, is imbued with the same spirit of freedom. "Broadway Bill" was adapted by Robert Riskin from a story by Mark Hellinger. An excellent cast appears in support of Warner Baxter and Myrna Loy, including Walter Connolly, Helen Vinson, Lynne Overman, Clarence Muse, Raymond Walburn, Margaret Hamilton and many others.

A Brilliant Trio At Plaza Sunday

What could be gayer than a romantic triangle in which Joan Crawford, Clark Gable and Robert Montgomery are the principals. "Forsaking All Others," which comes Sunday, Monday and Tuesday to the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne, unites this brilliant trio for the first time on the screen in a story which is said to be as rollicking as it is romantic.

Torrance All-Stars Lose Second Start To Long Beach Nine

The Torrance All-Stars lost their second start, last Sunday, when a combination of hits and errors rolled up a big score for the SERA team from Long Beach. The final count was 11 to 8, in spite of the fact that the Torrance squad outthit the visitors all the way.

In the fourth inning a grounder batted down to Winegar at second took a bad hop, struck Winegar on the knee and bounded off into foul territory. As the bases were loaded this freak conduct was disastrous. Later in the game Van Sant, Long Beach first baseman, laced out a homer, driving in one run ahead of him. Outside of these performances the game was a good one. Torrance got 13 hits off Cecil, who yielded four walks and gathered nine strike-outs. Blake started for Torrance, and pitched two innings, allowing no hits. He gave way to Willis who struck out six, walked three and hit one batter. Willis did his best to win his own game by providing three hits and two runs.

Next Sunday the boys will play Dick Moody's outfit from San Pedro. The game will be played on the high school grounds, which has been turned over to the team for the next six weeks, while the outfield at the municipal park is being seeded and will not be available until the new grass is up and well started. The team is now under the management of Jack Silva, who took over the reins last Sunday. The players are all home boys, and they have drawn good crowds since they started.
