

Narbonne High SCHOOL

"The Thirteenth Chair," a thrilling mystery drama, is to be presented at Narbonne high school, May 10, by the senior dramatics class. The setting of this mystery is at a house party, where the engagement of two young people is about to be announced. Accidents, members of the class, what happens makes the play most exciting throughout.

The cast has been tentatively chosen by Mrs. Brinkerhoff, dramatics coach.

Monday, April 1, is the date set for the annual edition of Narbonne's Gully and Gooty. This is a comic paper which takes the place of the Green and Gold and makes its appearance each year about April Fool's Day.

The paper will be edited by the Journalism class and will sell for two cents a copy. It will contain humorous copy about students and teachers alike.

Miss Lathrop has expressed herself as being well pleased with her new class. In fact, she declared that on the whole the group is better than a group of girls as there is not so much talking.

Fifteen new members have been admitted into the Senior Girls' Athletic Association this term. They are Betsy Ann Hunt, Margaret Johnson, Ardis Kettle, Esther Backus, Marie Prince, Beulah Coward, Taya Suruki, Roberta Street, Henrietta Pope, Joan Peterson, Lucille Crowe, Freida Oehlman, Rosa Hobbs, Elida Colberg and Irma Shaffer.

In order to teach American students Japanese customs and to promote a co-operative and friendly spirit, the Japanese boys and girls from the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades at Narbonne gave a tea Wednesday, March 27, in the school cafeteria.

Ken Nakazawa, professor of Oriental literature at U. S. C., spoke on Japanese art, poetry and drama. Professor Nakazawa, who is well versed in these subjects, has written many articles for the Atlantic Monthly and has published plays which have been produced by the U. S. C. and the Pasadena Community Playhouse.

Another interesting feature was the "garden" displayed by Mrs. Fyhl. This showed with dolls how the Japanese prince and princess take the throne as emperor and empress. She also brought some Japanese flowers and demonstrated the art of Ikebana (arrangement of flowers).

Japanese girls from the Harbor City grammar school gave a dance and three other girls played the koto and samisen, Oriental instruments.

The tea was carried out according to Japanese custom with the participants seated on mats and cushions. Different varieties of rice with tea were served. To lend a colorful effect, guests as well as their hosts wore Oriental costumes.

The Japanese students were aided by Mrs. Brinkerhoff and by Mrs. Peterson and her class in Pan-Pacific history. Miss Wylie's world literature class and the women teachers were also invited to the tea.

Narbonne's Scholarship Society will attend the annual Southern California regional convention of the California Scholarship Federation, Saturday, April 2, at Eagle Rock high school.

Approximately 25 in all are planning to attend from Narbonne. Esther Petersen, president of the school club, will act as secretary at one of the panel groups for afternoon discussion. She will be assisted by Kazuyee Nakahara.

The Senior Girls' Athletic Association of Narbonne has been invited to attend two play days at Gardena high school on April 10, and at San Pedro high on April 25.

Gauchettes are turning out for practice after school and competition is keen for places on the play-day teams. Before the second play day, the girls must have put in 12 nights' practice.

Narbonne is scheduled to meet Bell in the preliminary contest of the spelling bee sponsored annually by radio station KFAC. The Gaucho team will attempt to spell down the Eagles Friday evening, May 3, from 8:30 to 9 o'clock.

Each school in the L. A. system will enter four contestants. The students making the fewest errors in the preliminary contest each evening will represent their school in the finals which will be broadcast Friday, May 24.

The award for the final winner will be a year's scholarship at U. S. C. A decorated gold medal will be awarded the best speaker from each school in the preliminary contest, while the three schools with the highest score are to be awarded loving cups.

An unusual assembly is being planned by the Narbonne G. A. A. under the sponsorship of Miss Mason for Friday, March 29. The program will appear in a radio bill, nationally-known radio artist, and Mr. Brower, a ventriloquist who has been featured in the movies with his two dolls.

Mr. Graybill will play chiefly ballads and old-time Southern melodies on the xylophone. He will demonstrate and explain different types of mallet techniques. According to Miss Mason, the program should prove both educational and entertaining. It will be held during roll call period, beginning at 11:10 a. m.

Twenty Children Enroll For Work In Recently Organized Orchestra

The Lomita Children's Orchestra met for its second rehearsal at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning at the Veterans' hall and was very well attended. The organization of the orchestra took place March 9, and regular rehearsals will be as follows: The "B," or beginners' group, meeting at 10:30 sharp, and the "A," or advanced group meeting at 11:30 sharp. Punctuality is asked, that the rehearsal may progress without any wasting of time. The hall, which has been donated rent-free for the free training of the potential musicians of the community, is located on Lomita boulevard, near Narbonne, next to the Central market, and directly across the street from the Lomita post-office. All children between the ages of 6 and 17 are cordially invited to enroll, and it costs absolutely nothing.

Keeping Up With Torrance High

March 21, the regular meeting of the Commercial Club was held with Lucile Stroh presiding. Attorney Albert Isen was the guest speaker and addressed the club on the subject of "Commercial Law and the Process of Court Trial." After his most interesting talk the club members then engaged in a general discussion of the topic.

Four beautiful and interesting Japanese magazines were sent to the World Friendship Club by President K. Makada of At-Torney Albert Isen was the guest speaker and addressed the club on the subject of "Commercial Law and the Process of Court Trial." After his most interesting talk the club members then engaged in a general discussion of the topic.

A portable stage is being constructed by boys in the woodshop, so it can be used in either the half section or the entire part of the gym. It will have a movie curtain for moving pictures and a projection booth in the balcony. The stage will be complete with all curtains, footlights, and overhead border lights. A special crew of boys from the shop will be picked and trained to handle this job.

Mr. Waldelfch will be one of the guest speakers at a combined teachers' and principals' meeting of the third area which will be held Bred Hart junior high school May 1, with Assistant Superintendent of Schools Warren C. Conrad presiding. Mr. Waldelfch will talk on "Leisure Time Activity At Torrance." The "Leisure Time Activity" as conducted at U. S. H. S. has received and aroused much comment on the part of both educators and laymen.

"Capricious Women" is the name of the play presented Wednesday by the dramatics class, under the instruction of Mr. Hale. The cast included: Mildred Everett, Prof. Baker, Cleo McGeehan and Mildred Higgins. "Capricious Women" are most interesting, judging by the play which was a wow!

For the past few weeks the G. A. A. has been holding hockey practice after school in order to pick a "first" G. A. A. hockey team. After much consideration on the part of Miss Bent, sponsor, and the hockey manager, the following girls have been chosen for the team: Mildred Higgins, Ella Levy, Mildred Neelands, Fern Wright, Betty Stevenson, Peggy Wood, Jane Johnston, Agnes Peet, Margaret Kibbe, Doris Pullman, Dorothy Elder, Georgiana Humer, Fanny Greaves and Ruth Granger.

The following members of the Madrigal Society, who have been chosen to sing in the California music convention, will last, sponsor, and the hockey manager, the following girls have been chosen for the program. Over 500 young people of various high school choirs will unite in one huge choir, under the direction of Mr. Ralph Peterson, of L. A. J. C., will present a musical program at convention. The convention will last three days and the choir will sing April 17, at an evening session: Dorothy Elder, Laura Mae Hyde, Joan Klink, Gertrude Mowry and Margaret Kibbe, sopranos; June Turner, Betty Stevenson, Ella Levy and Ruth Barnard, altos; Jack Piper, Roger McGinnis and Douglas York, tenors; and Joe Gosstaus, George Isbet, George Bradford, Hal Smith, Walter Bunje, Bob Wertz and Ray Davis, basses.

Electric Ranges Offered At Most Attractive Terms

The most attractive opportunities ever offered for the purchase of electric ranges are extended to Southern California housewives during the intensive sales campaign now in progress in territory served by the Southern California Edison Company, according to C. C. Bartlett, Edison Company manager. The Torrance Electric Shop, 1419 Marcellina avenue, is showing a fine line of electric ranges and are co-operating fully in the campaign, which is conducted for a limited time only.

"Several features of this campaign combine to make its duration the most advantageous time to purchase an electric range," Mr. Bartlett stated. "The most important is the new monthly payment plan, which is the most liberal offered. No down payment is necessary and the housewife uses her range in her home for 30 days before she makes the first payment. Monthly terms are arranged in payments as low as "10c a day" which has been adopted as the slogan of the sales movement. These convenient terms make it possible for every family even the one of the most modest means, to enjoy the numerous advantages of cooking electrically. The low prices—now in effect on all models of electric ranges and the free installation in most homes are further reasons why purchase is especially expedient during this campaign.

"The reduced electrical rate which is put into effect with the increase of the electric range is another reason why housewives are interested in its purchase now. This lower rate, the domestic wholesale rate, applies to all uses of electricity in the home—not only for cooking but also for lighting, heating, refrigeration, and all the other applications of electricity to the home. The Edison Company is enabled to offer this reduced rate due to the prospective addition of Boulder Dam power to the company's own reserve generating capacity, which makes the latter immediately available to every home under these advantageous conditions. When both an electric range and electric water heater are used, an even lower electrical rate is secured for all domestic uses.

"All of these reasons for buying an electric range during the present campaign are predicated on the many pleasures of cooking with a modern electric range—its beauty, speed, convenience, automatic accuracy, simplicity, safety, cleanliness and coolness.

"Newspaper advertisements is forming the backbone of the campaign. Through newspaper space the Edison Company is setting forth the major reasons why the all-electric kitchen is beautiful, convenient and economical. Purchase of an electric range, the most important

Judges Speak at Townsend Rally

Judge Oda Faulconer, Judge Arthur Crum and James Renfro will be the speakers at a Townsend Plan rally to be held Friday evening, March 29, at 519 West Fifth street, Los Angeles, under the auspices of the Civic Leaders Club. The public is welcome to attend this meeting and also the meetings held at noon on Wednesday of each week at the same address.

step toward the all-electric kitchen, is made so easy during the present campaign that many housewives are finding it possible to bring to realization their long-cherished desire for a modern electric range."

Brother Dies In Long Beach

Funeral services for Ellahn W. Simmons, brother of Mrs. Joe Sana, 1511 Annapola avenue, were conducted in Long Beach, Saturday afternoon. Torrance persons attending the funeral were Mesdames Hugh Henry, O. E. Hall, J. E. McClumphy, J. O. Bishop, Nellie Zuver, R. E. Hall, Frank Weiss and Miss Mary Spoon. Mrs. Sana received word Monday that her mother, Mrs. Mildred Simmons, who is visiting with a daughter, Mrs. Ulla Chambers, in Walters, Oklahoma, is seriously ill. Torrance folks know Mrs. Simmons well as prior to leaving for Oklahoma, she made her home with the Sana family.

We Are Fighting To Keep Meat Prices Down!

While it is true that there has been a considerable advance in the wholesale price of meats, you will find upon investigation that our retail prices have not advanced proportionately. At our present prices for quality meats there is no need to deprive your family of the vital energy which only good meats provide.

We invite you to compare our present prices with those which prevailed before the recent wholesale increase. You will be surprised at the little difference in cost of good meats.

For Vegetables raised in California

your Safeway grocers spend over SIX MILLION DOLLARS a year

TOMATOES $1,073,832.00 (in 12 months)	POTATOES $855,065.00 (in 12 months)	BEANS $750,482.00 (in 12 months)	LETTUCE $736,232.00 (in 12 months)
----------------------------------------------	--------------------------------------------	-----------------------------------------	-------------------------------------------

The millions of dollars your Safeway grocers spend for food goes largely to farmers of our own State of California. In twelve months for instance, your Safeway grocer spent $1,073,832 for California tomatoes alone. Over $800,000 for California potatoes, another $750,000 for California beans. And actually $736,232 for California-grown lettuce. Safeway money stays home, helps California's prosperity. That's a policy here. Over 46 million dollars worth of products were bought from Californians in these 12 months to help promote the prosperity of the State.
