GOLD FEVER HITS COPS AND FIREMEN IN LOS ANGELES

LOS ANGELES, (U.P.)—The police and fire departments have the gold fever. A corporation formed by 100 firemen and policemen of Los Angeles today was operating a large mine works in Soledad hills, 25 miles north of here. Ore is assaying 40 cents to $10 a ton, with an average of $1.10. The site is close by the spot where Francisco Lopez found the first gold in California in 1842. And Canadians living in this district are specially invited to this all-Southern California event.
