Weds Senator

Paris Styles

PARIS. (L.P.)—Jean Patou has created one of those all-time dresses which can be worn for almost any occasion from early morning to the informal dinner at home or in a restaurant. This dress is in brown wool with the back of the bodice and the sleeves of the tulle-trimmed, brown, green and red plaid. The accompanying jacket of brown wool has wide ruffles of brown, coral and turn-back cuffs of the same fur. The costume is completed by the Patou tulle hat in brown felt. The crown diminishes the size of the top where it is crushed in a fold, similar to that in a man's felt hat. The narrow brim turns way up in back and far down in front and a bright red quill is its only trimming.
