Stage Hits Are Abundant Now At L. A. Theatres

Tickets to May Robson in "Kind Lady," at the Belasco Theatre starting next Monday evening, October 21, and to other leading Los Angeles attractions are now on sale at regular box office prices (plus phone toll only) at the Mitchell Theatre Ticket office in Dolley Drug Co., at 1225 El Prado, Torrance, according to an announcement from Lloyd Mitchell, manager.

Miss Robson, America's beloved actress recently seen in many screen successes, returns to the stage in "Kind Lady," a dynamic New York dramatic hit adapted by Edward Chodorov from a Hugh Walpole story. Ralph Forbes, film and footlight favorite, heads the fine supporting cast in the coming Belasco presentation.

Max Reinhardt's production of Shakespeare's "A Midsummer Night's Dream," declared to be the most beautiful and elaborate film in the history of the industry, is being shown daily at 2:30 and 8:30 p. m. at Warner Bros. Beverly Hills Theatre with all seats reserved.

Outstanding speakers will be presented in the lectures of the Modern Forum and the Pacific Geographic Society Globe-Trotter Series, for which ticket reservations are now being received.

The Shubert Festival of Opera and Musical Comedies at Shrine auditorium is proving popular. "Rose Marie" will open Monday, October 21, following the initial show, "Bitter Sweet." New productions will be given weekly during the 12-week season.

Says Practical Nursing Offers Big Opportunity

Among the professions and vocations offering the greatest advantages to women today, practical nursing is outstanding, according to Mrs. Iola Barnebee Pierce, registrar of the Pierce School of Practical Nursing located at 702 West 17th street, Los Angeles. She reports that there are more positions than there are trained, efficient practical nurses to fill them.

Mrs. Pierce explains this great demand by the fact that in this present day the trained practical nurse is far more capable and efficient than she was 25 years ago. Women and men everywhere are learning that a competent practical nurse fits into the routine of the home in a wonderful way and assumes the household duties as well as those of a nurse. Complete training gives modern practical nurses thorough familiarity with all phases of the work.

Years ago, all that a woman needed to become a practical nurse was a liking for the work and a little general instruction. Today, the schools which specialize in training of practical nurses offer courses which embrace many points formerly known only to registered nurses.
