artless and simple but are arranged with great elaborateness.

Likewise the drapery which is so much in demand for evening wear gives an illusion of simplicity but is in reality an elaborate silhouette combining the classic and the modern. Among the Bible selections in the Lesson-Sermon are the words of Paul to the Corinthians: "There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it."
A correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, states: "The human mind will sometime rise above all material and physical sense, exchanging it for spiritual perception, and exchanging human concepts for the divine consciousness. Then man will recognize his God-given dominion and being."
