Ford May Buy "Firefighter"
FREMONT, O. (U.P.)—The first motorized piece of fire-fighting equipment in Ohio is reportedly being considered for purchase by Henry Ford. It is Remont's old Webb firefighter.

To Make a Long Tale Short

A fellow from the country made our heart skip a beat when he told us that he had burned a hundred dollar bill this morning. "How come?" we asked, to which he replied that it was easier to burn it than to pay it, and at the same time he was handing us the last payment on the used car that he had bought of us.

PLAZA TO SHOW KIDNAPING EXPOSE

A new romantic team of unusual appeal is introduced in the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, "Fury," starting Sunday at the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne. The co-starring leads are Sylvia Sidney and Spencer Tracy and their acting in many of the difficult scenes of this powerful screen play approaches new heights. "Fury," with its excellent acting, swift-moving dramatic force and superb photography, is a real credit to the distinguished Viennese director and, incidentally, to his first American picture. Tracy and Miss Sidney, the stars, are a typical American couple planning to marry. He is arrested as a suspect in a community where a kidnaping has just occurred, and circumstantial evidence blackens his case. Rumors spread, and trouble-makers in the town stir up a demonstration that ends in a furious attack on the prison in which Tracy is being held.

NEW DOG STAR MAKES FILM DEBUT

Night shots were "out" on 20th Century's "Call of the Wild," location on Mount Baker, Washington. The 40-odd sled dogs and assorted pooches used in the Darryl Zanuck production, based on Jack London's classic of the Alaskan gold rush, set up such a deafening serenade when the moon burst over Shuksan mountain that not even the "sound-proof" stage could exclude their clamor. Though their kennels were located almost a mile from the center of the company's activi-

Will Rogers Film Shows at Lomita

When Will Rogers returns to the Lomita Theatre this week in his comedy hit, "Connecticut Yankee" theatregoers of this district will have what is probably their last opportunity to see this great American humorist at his best.

The story of the "Connecticut Yankee" has been one of America's most popular pieces of fiction for years and it is only when this mythical tale is brought to the screen by the genius of Will Rogers that the great amount of amusement furnished in the original story becomes evident. The story is one that allows the whimsical Rogers to appear at his best. Opportunities for the use of that droll sense of humor for which Will Rogers was world famous are furnished in great abundance throughout the film.

Florodora Girl Retires WATSONVILLE, Calif. (U.P.)—Mrs. Mabel Miller, member of the "ladies' ensemble" of the original New York Florodora company, has retired from all connection with the theatre. For the past 15 years she has been ticket seller at the Fox theatre here.

ties, the clear night air carried their plaintive voices that distance without apparent diminution. Clark Gable, Loretta Young, Jack Oakie and other members of the company experienced difficulty sleeping the first few nights on location, but as time went on the assorted howls became an accepted factor in daily location life. "Call of the Wild" is released thru United Artists and comes to the Torrance Theatre Tuesday and Wednesday.

Old Violin Worth $15,000 TOLEDO, (U.P.)—For 55 years, an old violin was in the family of Joseph Jurdick. Only recently did Jurdick learn that the instrument is a genuine Amati, made in 1680 and valued at $15,000.

Circumstantial Evidence Meshes Brilliant Lawyer

Man Who Sends Men to Gallows Wrapped in Web He Can't Break

With the production of "The Unguarded Hour" at M.G.M., a new romantic team threads thru the gripping scenes of a fresh departure in mystery-romance stories.

It unites Loretta Young and Franchot Tone, popular young players who trail a succession of hits, Miss Young for "The Crusades" and "Shanghai," and Tone for "Mutiny on the Bounty" and "Lives of a Bengal Lancer."

Briefly, "The Unguarded Hour" is the story of an attorney whose brilliance enables him to send men to the gallows by circumstantial evidence alone. In his most sensational case, he finds his wife the witness whose testimony absolves the defendant, after which he himself becomes involved in a crime, trussed in a skein of circumstantial evidence which he cannot break.

It is a thrilling story which never lags, from the first scenes at a Mayfair party to the fade-out in a tense courtroom.

Directing the production was Sam Wood, whose last two pictures were the record-breaking "A Night at the Opera" and "Whipsaw." Shown Sunday and Monday at the Torrance Theatre.

Again that golden voice rings out! Again her magic songs thrill the world anew! Your heart will soar as Grace Moore sings the love songs of the immortal Kreisler... in the grandest of all musical love dramas! This latest film is Columbia's "The King Steps Out," featuring Franchot Tone, Walter Connolly and Raymond Walburn, and showing tonight, Friday and Saturday at the Torrance Theatre.

It hits a glorious new high in screen romance... the lyric lark of the divine madcap who stole a king on his wedding day! You'll thrill to the golden voice of Grace Moore! The romantic dash of Franchot Tone! The glorious melodies of Kreisler! You will be held breathless in its enraptured spell!

"The King Steps Out" is Grace Moore's gayest gift of glorious entertainment—the rollicking romance of a merry madcap who tempted a monarch!

Supporting the principals is a star-bright cast including Victor Jory, Elisabeth Risdon, Nana Bryant, Frieda Inescort, Thurston Hall, Herman Bing and others. Sidney Buchman wrote the screen play, and Josef von Sternberg directed.

Victim of Mob Fury Contrives Unique Revenge

Mass Lawlessness Is Bitterly Scored In "Fury" Now Showing At Tower

Sylvia Sidney and Spencer Tracy are the brilliant co-stars of "Fury," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture opening Thursday, July 23, at the Tower Theatre. Tracy, as the man, is arrested as a kidnap suspect and apparently buried to death by a furious mob that storms and fires the prison in which he is held.

His life wrecked and his mind twisted by the horror he has been thru, he goes into hiding and contrives to have 22 of the mobsters convicted of his murder.

Suspense and Thrills The companion feature, "The Princess Comes Across," with Carole Lombard and Fred MacMurray, is a story of a charming American girl posing as a Swedish princess, en route to New York to land a film contract. A pair of murders, blackmail, intrigue and the snoopings of five detectives provide suspense and thrills.

Starting Tuesday, July 28, Robert Taylor and Loretta Young bring you the story of an unusual romantic problem. Filled with youthful lovmaking, gay romancing and vivid drama, highlighted with hilarious comedy, "Private Number" is said to be the year's outstanding romantic hit. On the same bill Damon Runyon's wisecracking romance, "3 Wise Guys," with Robert Young and Betty Furness.
