PRIZE WINNERS AT FUNNY PAPER BALL

Mary Lou Kelley as Alice the goon captured the first ladies' prize at the funny paper ball in the civic auditorium Saturday evening. Grace Marie Rhone as little orphan Annie was second, with Emma Quaggin as Mammy Yokum, third. Fred Quaggin in the role of Pappy Yokum captured the first prize for men and Eddie Rhone the second. Two hundred were present at the affair, which was sponsored by members of the St. Cecilia Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, with Bess Paours as chairman.

LUNCHEON AT SNOGRASS HOME

Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass, 1606 Beech avenue, entertained members of her club at luncheon in her home Wednesday. Covers were placed for Mes. Leonard Snyder and Austin Jones, of South Gate; Clifford Beck, of Compton; George Morgan, W. Burgener and E. L. Snodgrass.

Mrs. Paul Blaisdell Republican Speaker

A women's Republican meeting is to be held at the headquarters in the old library building, 1321 El Prado, next Wednesday, Oct. 14, at 2:30 p. m. A large attendance is expected. Mrs. Paul Blaisdell, a speaker well known in Torrance having addressed the Woman's Club on former occasions, and now a leading speaker via the radio in the interests of the Landon-Knox cause, has been engaged as the principal speaker.

Considerable interest is being manifested by the women in this district and if their sentiment is indicative of the registered Republicans, a large tally for Landon and Knox can be expected according to John Connell who is in charge of the local headquarters.

Many other gatherings are scheduled. The offices are open from 8:30 a. m.

SURPRISE PARTY HONORS MRS. SWEET

Mable-Ella Sweet was pleasantly surprised Monday evening when friends gathered at her home in Los Angeles for an evening party. In the group were Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Beck, of Compton; Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Snyder and Mr. and Mrs. Austin Jones, of South Gate; Mr. and Mrs. W. Burgener, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass, Miss Hazel Lewis, of Torrance, and T. Bowman, of Redondo Beach.

DESSERT BRIDGE AT HUDSON HOME

Mrs. O. W. Hudson, 1763 Andrew avenue, opened her home for a benefit bridge party Friday afternoon. Proceeds from the affair will help swell the Woman's Club program fund.

Eight tables were in play with prizes for high scores captured by Mrs. Scott R. Ludlow and Mrs. F. Mineck. Low by Mrs. John Shaw and traveling prize by George D. Watson.

Legislative Chairman

Discusses Propositions on the November Ballot

Torrance Woman's Club opened their club year yesterday with one of the most interesting and varied programs in the club's history. Sixty ladies attended the luncheon, which was served in the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia avenue, at 12:30 p. m.

LOCAL GIRLS AT COMPTON

Jayne Trailer, graduate of Torrance high, is now enrolled at Compton Junior College. She was recently a candidate for secretary of the Associated Women Students, losing by a small margin. She is a member of the Tartar Shield newspaper staff.

Ellen Madsen, also a Torrance resident, was a candidate for vice president of the A. W. S. but was defeated by a few votes.

Mrs. George Elder, club Bible chairman, who was the after-dinner speaker, likened the Bible to a body of literature in which there is a complete library consisting of 66 books. She advised members how to look for certain things in the Bible and how to study it to derive the most good. Mrs. M. J. Beale, president, acted as toastmistress at the luncheon and presided at the afternoon meeting.

KHJ Artist

Janet Ruth Outhbert, who has appeared on radio station KHJ, has taken part in the concerts at Inglewood Bowl and is a teacher of note, delighted the audience with her lovely soprano voice when she sang one of Schubert's German compositions and a selection from the opera "La Tosca." Going into a lighter vein, Miss Outhbert sang a group of numbers including, "Do You Know My Garden?" by Woodin, and "Gypsy Life" by Clara Edwards. The ladies applauded so generously and Miss Outhbert was so gracious that only time completed her part in the program. She was followed by Mrs. Frances G. Munger, district legislative chairman, who explained the first seven measures on the November ballot. Mrs. Coates spoke on local opinion.

The Best Last

Mrs. O. G. Henshaw, reader, surely made true that statement that the best is always last when she started off her part on the program with the statement, "Women come in three classes, the beautiful, the intellectual and the majority," and added if we are to vote in November, seems to me we had better try to be intellectual. She gave as her first contribution of the afternoon the story of a farm woman, who, given a picture of the Angelus, made of her humble life a thing of real beauty and contentment. She gave several readings dealing with the humorous side of life such as the one in which the salesman attempts to teach a lady to drive a car, and the family on a trolley car. She ended in rather dramatic fashion when she proved America the greatest land of all and waved the American flag as she left the stage.

Mrs. Jas. H. Crumrine, program chairman, presented the program. The following chairmen were introduced during the meeting: Mrs. Fred Knudsen, American homes; Mrs. Naomi Riley, arts and crafts; Mrs. George Elder, Bible; Mrs. C. J. Merriam, business and protective law; Mrs. Paul Watson, California history and landmarks; Mrs. Phoebe Milburn, historian; Mrs. Ivy Herring and Mrs. Sadie Boyd, decorations; Juliette Johnson, evening diversion; F. C. Winkler, gardens; Mrs. Wm. Nye, highway safety; Mrs. E. M. Johnston, hospitality; Mrs. Ila M. Gilbert, reservations; Mrs. Willis Brooks, scattering; Mrs. John Shaw, motion pictures; Mrs. Dean L. Sears, radio; Mrs. R. S. Sleeth, press; Mrs. Carrie Parks will again serve as a member of the district credentials committee.

Chairmen

Mrs. Ruth Yager, 2121 Andrew avenue, left Saturday for a ten-day visit with her brother, Ray Yager, at La Pine, Ore.

Kiwianians Observe Ladies' Night

Torrance Kiwanians and their ladies made merry at Hollywood Riviera, Monday evening, when they gathered for their last ladies' night of the year. Seventy-five were present. Entertainment was furnished by Lynda Mayberry, Fanchon and Marco novelty girl, who came to the clubhouse between her acts at the Paramount Theatre, where she is appearing this week. Miss Betty Dalton played several selections on her accordion.

Remainder of the evening was spent in dancing to the music of Jack Gledhill's orchestra. Balloons and confetti dropping from midair during the dances added zest to the occasion and members heralded it as one of the best evenings in years. Credit for the entertainment goes to the Automate Printing Company, and for the success of the affair to the committee W. Shawyer, club president; R. J. Deininger, first vice president, and Al Robinson.

Colorful Pot Holder

This square little crocheted pot holder is sturdy and practical as well as being extremely decorative in the kitchen—or in the dining room for that matter. It is crocheted of strong knit-crocheseen, which works up tightly so that it is heat proof. Directions may be obtained by sending a stamped, self-addressed envelope to The Crochet Bureau, 525 Fifth Avenue, New York City. Specify Pot Holder, #922.

20-30 Club Receive Charter

One hundred and twenty-five persons were present at the 20-30 Club meeting in the hall at 1951 Carson street, Wednesday evening, Sept. 30, when Ralph Layton, vice president of the 20-30 Club association came from Fullerton to present the local club with their charter, No. 184. Dick Pullman, president of the Torrance club, made the acceptance speech. Donald Strahl, governor of the fifth district, was an honored guest at the meeting, as were representatives from Whittier, Inglewood, San Pedro, Fullerton, Los Angeles and Hollywood clubs.

Wayne Malloy, president of the Inglewood club, presided at the meeting and presented the Torrance club with a song and gave as a gift from his order. Wm. E. Shawyer, president of the Kiwanis Club of Torrance, welcomed the 20-30 Club into the service club circle of the city.

At the close of the meeting those present danced to the music of a ten-piece orchestra.

Fireman is Surprised

J. J. Benner, of the Torrance fire department, was struck practically speechless Saturday night when he went home to his residence at 1023 Cota avenue and found a birthday surprise waiting for him. He walked into the dining room where a beautiful birthday cake, baked by his young daughter Ruby, was ablaze with candles, and a fine chicken dinner had been prepared to go with the cake. The party was strictly a family affair with Mr. and Mrs. Benner, their son Melvin, daughter Ruby, and Benner's young brother Leroy to enjoy it. The guest of honor received some fine gifts, and says he will never forget the surprise and pleasure of his latest birthday.

Mrs. Mock Honored at Birthday Dinner

A delightful affair of recent date was the dinner party given at the Eugene Mock home in the Castle Apartments honoring Mrs. Mock on her birthday.

Kiwianians Observe Ladies' Night

Out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Moore, of Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Cowell, of San Luis Obispo; Mr. and Mrs. Felix Gillespie, of Long Beach, and Mrs. Inez Funk, of South Gate. Mrs. Mock received a number of lovely gifts including a basket of gorgeous yellow chrysanthemums.

Wonders Are Proud Grandparents

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Shaw and daughter Dorothy visited for a short time Sunday with Rev. and Mrs. O. D. Wonder at the Wonder home in Burbank.

Rev. and Mrs. Wonder are now grandparents, a son having arrived at the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Eugene A. Hessel, of Los Angeles, Sept. 29. The infant, Eugene Andrew, Jr., weighed five pounds five ounces at birth and he and his mother are fine.
