HER FIRST YOUNG DREAM OF LOVE

Simone Simon and Herbert Marshall, starred in "Girl's Dormitory," the story of a young girl knowing the tumult of love for the first time, which is double billed at the Plaza Theater, Hawthorne, with "Give Me Your Heart."

IN TECHNICOLOR TRIUMPH!

Color, perfected at last, glorifies the world's greatest love story, "Ramona," featuring (above) Loretta Young and Don Ameche, which opens Sunday at the Torrance Theatre.

In no detail did Director Henry King compromise with the historical records in filming "Ramona." 20th Century-Fox picture produced in the new perfected Technicolor, which opens Sunday at the Torrance Theatre. This beautiful picturization of Helen Hunt Jackson's famous novel of the California of yesterday carries the full conviction of realism.

Dynamic Drama of Human Emotions At the Plaza

"Give Me Your Heart," a dynamic drama revealing the human emotions of love, passion, hate and sacrifice, comes to the Plaza Theatre today with Kay Francis in the stellar role.

She is supported by an exceptionally strong cast which includes George Brent, Roland Young, Patric Knowles, Henry Stephenson, Frieda Inescort, Helen Flint, Hallwell Hobbes, Zeffie Tilbury and Elspeth Dudgeon.

The story concerns the romance of a young English girl with a nobleman who is married to a semi-invalid wife. Their child is taken into the nobleman's family by the grandfather who longs for an heir his son's wife cannot give him. The girl seeks forgetfulness in America, marries a fine business man whom she respects, but does not love.

Torn with mother love and the loss of her child, she seeks to drown her anguish in social gatherings, but her nerves are on the breaking point, and an estrangement seems imminent, when a friend of both families, an English playwright comes to America, where the young nobleman, his wife and "their" son are visiting. He arranges a meeting of the two couples, unbeknown to either. This creates a situation so intense both parties are on the breaking point, but thru the bigness of the nobleman's wife matters are finally smoothed out in one of the most tremendous climaxes ever filmed.

STEEL MAN

Victor McLaglen, star of Universal's "The Magnificent Brute"

which opens at Warner Bros. San Pedro Theatre tonight. The picture has a local setting with many of the scenes taken at the Columbia Steel plant. The picture will be shown for five days only. The second feature on the program is "Here Comes Carter," featuring Ross Alexander.

POWELL 'BUTLES' FOR LOMBARD

William Powell presents himself to Carole Lombard as the new butler in Universal's "My Man Godfrey."

Long before "My Man Godfrey" was announced for screening at the Torrance Theatre tonight, Friday and Saturday, word came trickling thru from Hollywood and way stations that Universal's outstanding contribution to the new movie season was a splendid screen offering.

After combing the market for available stories, Universal purchased Eric Hatch's novel and invited the author to Hollywood to collaborate with Morrie Ryskind on the screen play. That happy combination turned out a script which read even funnier than the book. Gregory La Cava was chosen as the director. Having the story and the director, the officials then turned

Prizes Offered For Best Letter To Santa Claus

Write a letter to Santa Claus and win a prize. That's the attractive proposition that the Star Department Store is making to little boys and girls this Christmas.

To the boy who writes the best letter, the Star will give a brand new shiny wagon, worth $10.00; and to the girl who writes the best letter, the Star offers a big, luxurious doll buggy, also worth $10.00. These are truly worth while prizes so you better get busy and think up a mighty good letter.

When you have written your letter to Santa, bring it to the Star and put it in the special Santa Claus Mail Box, which is on the mezzanine floor. Then on Dec. 23, just two days before Christmas, the prizes will be awarded.

While you're up on the mezzanine floor be sure to go into the big Toyland, which is already in full bloom. You'll see lots of things that will tickle you pink, and maybe you'll get an idea of what you want most of all for Christmas.
