Baby Boy Gets Much Attention In Hospital

One of the youngest patients to be confined at Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital is Norman, eight-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Emory R. Harris, of 618 Beryl street, Redondo Beach.

The little fellow entered the institution Sunday morning, suffering from a hernia. Instead of being bedded in a regular hospital room, he was furnished with a brightly painted baby bed, Teddy-bear and other toys in Miss Esther Z. Maxwell's office.

He is said to be a good patient but likes company—and this he gets in full measure from his parents and nurses who find him a most interesting "case."
