CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"Probation after Death" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. The Golden Text is from Revelation: "I heard a voice from heaven saying unto me, Write, Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord from henceforth: Yea, saith the Spirit, that they may rest from their labours; and their works do follow them."

Among the Bible selections in the Lesson-Sermon is the verse from Isaiah: "Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low: and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain." Another citation from the Proverbs states: "The man that wandereth out of the way of understanding shall remain in the congregation of the dead. . . . He that followeth after righteousness and mercy findeth life, righteousness, and honour."

Passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, includes the statements: "Every valley of sin must be exalted, and every mountain of selfishness be brought low, that the highway of our God may be prepared in Science." "Earth's preparatory school must be improved to the utmost."

Christian Science reading room at 1208 El Prado. Public welcome.

AUTO LEADERS CONFER

W. C. Cowling (left), Ford Motor company director of sales, who arrived in Los Angeles last week for meetings attended by local Ford dealers, is pictured above as he was greeted by I. B. Groves, Ford Long Beach branch manager. When interviewed by newspaper men, Cowling voiced the opinion that people should stop talking about the return of prosperity. The Ford executive said that prosperity has been with us for at least a year. To substantiate this, he referred to the automotive industry which is often considered an index to the nation's business. "Actually," Cowling said, "1936 was one of the biggest years in automotive history. This year promises to be even greater. Already, Ford passenger car and truck sales are well ahead of the same period last year," he concluded.

JUST FOR LUCK
Just 'cause spring has turned the corner and every girl's a bride at heart... here are seven simple ways to make a man like you, given me by quite the wisest woman I know. Make a fuss over him—let him know you like him. Ask his opinion about everything. Build him up in company. Suggest that he go out with the boys now and then—men like to feel free. Sympathize with his troubles. Let him know you think he's good at his job. Last, but not least, make him comfortable—an easy chair, a good light, a place for his pipe.
