

Boys' Week Is Observed Here

As this is Boys' Week, the boys at the high school are getting quite a few liberties and are having a good time doing so. On Monday, several of them made trips to the stock exchange, Times building, Adorn dairy, Armour Meat Packing company, and several other interesting places.

Wednesday was a big day. About 27 boys from the school took over the city offices such as mayor, fire chief, chief of police, city judge, street superintendent and city engineer between 10 to 12 o'clock noon.

Six boys, accompanied by their agricultural teacher, Mr. Stone, will attend the California Agricultural convention in San Luis Obispo today, tomorrow and Saturday. The superintendent of L. A. agricultural classes is in charge of Mr. Stone's classes while he is away.

Yesterday afternoon there was a boys' program. Some of the upper-grade boys then visited the P. E. shops, National Supply, and other industrial plants here. The 20-30 club sponsored these interesting events for the boys and ended the day for them with a free wienie-bake at the city park.

TROOP 211

A few tests were held at the meeting held April 27. Billy Moon and Ormsby Millar passed their tenderfoot tests and were admitted. Second class rank tests were passed by Bud Anderson, pace; Clyde Anderson, first aid; Richard Miller and Howard Bender will appear before the Board of Review to gain their second class rank.

TROOP 217

The troop decided to have a mothers' meeting Thursday, May 6. Thirty-two tests were passed at the last meeting. Toward second class rank, these tests were passed: Bob Bratton, signalling, 30-day service, cooking, oath and laws; Boice Cline, safety, thrift; Dick Hogue, signalling, compass, first aid; Norman Marsteller, first aid, signalling; Darrell Conley fire building, tracking; Bob Golden, first aid; George Henderson, compass, first aid, 30-day service; Robert Stirling, compass, 30-day service; Ben Prime, signalling; Richard Thompson, compass, fire building.

TROOP 218

Donald Guy was appointed quartermaster. This job means that he is responsible for all troop property. A complete uniform is to be given to the Scout that can prove he is the outstanding Scout. This uniform is donated by Mr. Casey. The contest will run from May 5 to August 4.

The following requirements must be compiled with: orderliness, progressiveness in Scout activities, neatness and cleanliness in habit and body, willingness, cheerfulness and obedience, promptness and regularity at Scout meetings, ability to appear before the Board of Review when the time to be served for each rank is completed and living up to the oath and laws.

TROOP 230

We had almost a record attendance out of this group of 22, 20 being present. Regular inspection was held, followed by a short and snappy Kelly drill. A period was held in which general study and practice was given for Scout tests.

Raymond Johnson successfully passed his tenderfoot test and was admitted into the troop. Next week's program promises to be interesting, as inner patrol contests will be held.

BOARD OF REVIEW

The Board of Review had a good showing. These boys passed for Second Class: Richard Rosset, Richard Miller, Carl N. Marsteller, Clyde Anderson, Dick Hogue, George Henderson, Robert A. Bratton, Robert A. Golden and Herman Wood.

For First Class: Marion Bufalo and Charles Prowten Jr. For Merit Badges: Charles Forrest, Robert D. Beck, Hugh Allen, Harold Kerber, Fred Marsteller, Leonard Babcock, Army Dowel, Keith M. Beck, William Jensen, Dan Hitchcock, Arthur Woodcock, LeRoy Snow, Harry Lewis, John Schwartz and Jean Bordeaux.

Leonard Babcock, Star Scout; Fred C. Marsteller, Life Scout; Arthur Woodcock, Star Scout; and Jean Bordeaux, Eagle Rank.

Rites Held Today for Miss Kresse

Funeral services were held this afternoon at Stone and Myers' chapel for the late Miss Anna Kresse, sister of O. A. Kresse, superintendent of the open hearth at the Columbia Steel plant, who passed away at Long Beach Tuesday morning as a result of a heart ailment. Miss Kresse, who was a native of Milwaukee, had been a business manager for years. Realizing her end was near, she left instructions for all funeral arrangements in a dresser drawer at her home.

Rev. B. C. Brewster officiated at the services, which were followed by cremation at Inglewood cemetery. Those who survive Miss Kresse, in addition to her brother here, are brothers Arno and Winifred, and Arwin of Chicago, sisters, Mrs. Alfred Olsen and Mrs. M. Zelman of Milwaukee; Mrs. Claire Toby and Miss Alvin Kresse of New York, both of whom flew here to attend the services.

Miss Kresse had spent several years in California and in Florida. Last October she was seriously ill in Milwaukee and on the advice of her physician came to Southern California.

Car Slips Brakes, Crashes Standard

Solving the mystery of how an ornamental light standard at Post and Carson street was almost completely wrecked, Miss Yeato Fulek, 15-year-old Torrance high school girl residing at 21020 South Normandie avenue, told police that her brother's car evidently slipped its brakes while parked and crashed into the standard early Tuesday morning. She said the car was insured for property damage and offered to take up the matter with the city's claim for $135 with the policy company at once.

ON VACATION

Miss Birda Paddock, Lomita postmaster, started a 10-day vacation yesterday. She plans to visit friends thruout Southern California.

Second Floor to Be Added On Building

Construction of a second floor and two-room pent house on Dr. C. L. Ingold's building at 1427 Marcelina avenue was announced this week by the optometrist. The one-story structure was completed several months ago and now houses the Southern California Edison Company office and the Modern Appliances store.

The second floor addition, which will cost approximately $5,500 to build and furnish, will contain a five-room suite of offices to be occupied by Dr. R. A. Bingham, a five-room apartment for Dr. and Mrs. Ingold, another front office suitable for professional men and the penthouse atop the enlarged building will contain two rooms, one for a laundry.

Floor plans of the second story reveal that Dr. Ingold has given considerable attention to comfortable and convenient office and living quarters. He also plans to build a garage at the rear of the lot which adjoins the post office. When completed by Contractor George Beckwith, who built the present one-story structure, the building will represent a $20,000 investment in Torrance's future, the optometrist said.

Horses' Tails Stolen
SYDNEY (U.P.)—Armed with a large pair of scissors, a thief made a night raid on the municipal stables at Newcastle, N. S. W., and stole the tails of all the horses.

160 Acres of Land Lost
GOLD BEACH, Ore. (U.P.)—A half section of land purchased by Charles G. Johnson, Milaca, Minn., in 1902 and on which he has paid yearly taxes of $35, is missing.

Babcock Gets Scout Position

Changes in the personnel of the Boy Scout organization here were announced this week when Robert Lewellen, district commissioner, resigned and Leonard Babcock was appointed to fill the vacancy. Lewellen is now district chairman of the Harbor division, Los Angeles Scout Council.

Babcock, a Boy Scout for five years, student body president at Torrance high school, former president of the Tarlar Alumni association, is now employed in the "National Supply" company office here. He has been assistant commissioner and district chaplain for the past year and has been attending a special Scouting school for the past three months to fit himself for his new position.

The district over which he will have charge includes Torrance, Lomita, Harbor City, Keystone and Waverly. Ray Begue, who has been assistant commissioner for the past year, will continue in that office. Babcock presided Monday night over a Court of Honor session at the Scout hall when 50 Scouts received merit badges and other awards.

Col. Ingersoll Named Head of Glendora School

Col. Robert L. Ingersoll, for a time a resident of Torrance about five years ago has been appointed commandant and superintendent of the Torrance Military Academy in Glendora, it was learned here.

Col. Ingersoll arrived at the academy on North Michigan avenue this week to assume his new duties. He comes to Glendora with 12 years' experience in private school work. Formerly, he was commandant and superintendent of the Torrance Military Academy, which he founded.

Col. Ingersoll was a commissioned officer in the United States army and is now retired through disability received in the line of duty in France during the World War.
