

Addie W. Parks Installed as Club Head at Gala Meeting

Guild Dance Saturday at Clubhouse

Advance sale of tickets for the dance Saturday night at the Woman's clubhouse, 1422 Engracia avenue, sponsored by the St. Cecilia Guild indicates that the affair will be well-attended, according to Mrs. Ray Brooks, who is chairman of the dance committee.

The hall will be attractively decorated with spring flowers and blossoms and Graf's orchestra of Inglewood will supply the music. All residents of Torrance and vicinity are invited to attend the festivities.

Members of the committee in charge of arrangements are Mrs. Guy Kelley, Mrs. Wallace Post and Mrs. Herman Mitchell. The tickets are selling for 50 cents per person and the dancing will start at 9 o'clock.

P.T.A. Group Hear Talk On Advantages Recreation Center

Mrs. G. H. Sapp, representative from Torrance Recreation Center in speaking before the Elementary Parent Teachers Association at their meeting in the school auditorium urged mothers to send their children to the center during the vacation period, where they may learn some special art or craft and thus use their time, which hangs heavy, to good advantage.

Children who are in poor health should be kept at home as childhood diseases spread rapidly, Mrs. Sapp stated. Mrs. M. Edwards presided at the Tuesday meeting and announced a meeting for parents of boys eligible for Cub Scout membership. This meeting was held Tuesday evening in the offices of Judge Robert Lessing. If there is sufficient enthusiasm among parents, such a group will be organized at once.

The school program was presented by pupils of A-3 under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Pipkin.

Marstellers Hosts At Scavenger Party

"Go out and dig up the following, we don't care where or how you get it but remember to be back at 10:30 or the deal is off." This was the command Mr. and Mrs. Carl Marsteller, who were hosts at a scavenger party issued to their guests Tuesday morning, when they handed each a list which included every useless whatnot imaginable.

All returned at the appointed time and strange to say everything asked for was included in what the guests brought in. Though the count was close, winners in the hunt proved to be Mr. and Mrs. Harry Jacobs, Mrs. Sam Levy and Don Hyde. At a late hour supper was served to Messrs. and Mesdames Guy Kelley, Frank Paours, Harvey Guttenfelder, Fred Quaggin, H. Appenzeller, Don Hyde, Bill Rojo Jr., Sam Levy, Ray Brooks and Jimmy Newell of Los Angeles.

Lute Fraser Named Dist. Researcher

The impressive candlelight service was used by Gertrude Westing, past president of the Junior National Business and Professional Women's club of Los Angeles when she installed Addie W. Parks as president of the Torrance club at a banquet held in the Surf and Sand Club at Hermosa Beach, Monday evening.

Lute Fraser, who relinquished the gavel of authority after two years of faithful service, was rewarded by the appointment to the office of district research chairman. This announcement, made by Jo Hollebaugh, delegate at large for California Federation of Business and Professional Women, came as a complete surprise to the 35 members of the Torrance club seated at the banquet tables. The club presented Miss Fraser with a past president's pin.

Other officers seated at this meeting were Bettina Miller, first vice president; Florence Welch, corresponding secretary; Ada M. P. Chase, recording secretary; Marie Chilot, treasurer and Marjorie Huber, auditor.

Hear Pictorial Talk

A delightful travel talk, illustrated with slides, was given by Torrance C. Welch, local author, who has made a camera study of conditions in the far east. Welch answered questions asked about his pictures and told of many interesting and amusing situations encountered by his party while making them.

Madame Teala Billini, concert pianist and club member played three request numbers and Margaret Dobrich, first president of the club led in the community sing. Other past presidents introduced at the affair were Laila Bowen and Bea Hughes.

The Monday evening affair marked the seventh installation for the Torrance club and was one of the loveliest in the club history. Credit goes to Florence Welch, who served as chairman. Ada M. P. Chase, in charge of decorations and programs; Bettina Miller and Lute Hoover.

CHARLIE SAYS . . .
"Being very stork-minded after last week's Herald story about Jimmy Higgins and the one-man baby shower he staged for his mother, Weston Leech, it is alleged on good authority, gave the prime answer of the season to a TBS teacher's query."
"Weston was asked to explain the word 'collusion', as meaning two things that came together unexpectedly. After standing on one hoof and then 'tother, Weston replied, 'Twins!'"
"No one should understand this explanation better than the Luckless Papa Dionne, who inadvertently brought about a crashing 'collusion' literally heard 'round the world, yet is a person who must get permission from officials to visit his own children."
