Hermosa Beach Clubwomen Aid in Candlelight Rites

Torrance Woman's club wrote flits to their year's work Wednesday when club reports were given and Mrs. M. J. Beale, who has wielded the gavel of authority for the past year surrendered it to Mrs. H. C. Barrington, who, with her staff of officers, was installed in an impressive candlelight ceremony.

Mrs. W. W. Wilkinson of Hermosa Beach, past district courtly chairman, assisted by Mrs. Robert P. Holmes, president of the Hermosa Beach Woman's club, served as installing officer. Mrs. Wilkinson explained that in this particular ceremony she chose to use yellow tapers in blue holders. Yellow she said, stands for constancy and blue for fidelity. This is the third time Mrs. Wilkinson has installed Torrance club officers.

Other officers seated were: Mrs. M. J. Beale, second vice-president; Mrs. Howard Locke, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Howard Locke, corresponding secretary; Mrs. A. W. Johnson, treasurer; Mrs. N. F. Jamieson, auditor; Mrs. W. J. Neclands and Mrs. J. B. Scotton, directors.

Names Chairmen
Mrs. Ed Hatter, soprano delighted the members when she sang a group of three numbers, "Morning" by Olle Speaks, "The Star" by Rogers and "Luxemburg Gardens" by Kathleen Manning. Mrs. Juliette Johnson played the accompaniment.

Mrs. Barrington appointed the following chairmen who will serve with her: Mrs. Willis M. Brooks, finance; Mrs. Dean L. Sears, business and protective law; Mrs. Jack Riley, arts and crafts; Ila M. Gilbert, reservations; Carrie Parks, legislation; Mrs. R. S. Sleeth, press; Mrs. C. D. Lowen, decorations, and Mrs. William Nye, safety and highways.

The club voted to sponsor the presentation of a musical comedy under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Denny at the Civic Auditorium, July 15 and 16. Persons desiring to take part in this presentation with either speaking or singing ability are urged to report to the Woman's clubhouse Wednesday evening, June 9, at 7:30 o'clock.

Character Reader Enlivens Lodge Session Here

Demonstrating an uncanny ability at reading character from handwriting, Michael Sullivan, world traveler who claims he was radio's first instrumentalist—he played a harmonica from a broadcasting station in Indiana at the dawn of radio, entertained a large turn-out of A.O.U.W. members last Thursday night in Recreation hall, George Figueroa, master workman of the local lodge, presided.

Sullivan read character studies of a number present after they had presented him with samples of their handwriting. Another entertainer was R. Steele Hartman, secretary of the Inglewood Chamber of Commerce, who gave an inspirational talk.

PERRY FACULTY HOSTS TO SCHOOL BOARD

Members of the Perry school faculty in North Torrance gave their annual dinner party in honor of members of the school board this week. A five-course dinner was served and the tables were decorated in yellow and blue. Three girl students, Hazel Monroe, Louise Whistler and Dorothy Elliott, served as waitresses, wearing little yellow and blue caps and aprons.

In addition to the faculty, those present were Mr. and Mrs. John Clockworthy, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. John Wallace.

"The double holiday left us pretty rushed so we're submitting this today. If it leaves you flat and disconcerted, then send us something better."
"I wouldn't read this article if I were you, for it won't interest you or nobody else. Frankly, it's nothing at all, just words, meaning nothing, just words, occupying this space. If I were you I would stop now."
"Well—Well! I am surprised. I see you are curious. Well, read on, don't let me stop you now that you've started, but don't say I didn't warn you. Ah—I know you'll probably think the last part is catchy or funny. Well it isn't. You actually have read it all. Now tell me, are you—satisfied?"
