

Lake Sailboat Stolen DALLAS, Tex. (U.P.)—William E. Campbell was proud of his sailboat's good points. But he didn't realize "it would sail so far that I couldn't find it." His boat disappeared from White Rock Lake near Dallas.

How to Plan a Camping Trip

By E. E. MURCHISON, Local Manager, Western Auto Supply Company

About this time of year a strange unrest begins to manifest itself in countless homes. Simultaneously, members of families haul out old camping equipment, check over outing clothes, investigate fishing tackle, and begin to discuss the comparative merits of seashore and mountains. Father listens anxiously to the sound of the family motor, begins to wonder how the brakes are holding out, and speculates on the condition of the old battery. He peeks at the tires, feels the treads, and pulls off tire covers to look at the spares. An air of expectancy and anticipation hovers over the household, and, of course, the big question on everybody's mind is: Where shall we spend our vacation?

Of all the vacation possibilities, what can compare with the joys that are yours when you pitch your tent by a mountain lake or under great trees far from the turmoil and excitement of the workaday life? That is a real vacation that renews you in body and spirit and is ideally suited for the family.

The West is a camper's paradise. In the great area from Washington to Mexico and from the Pacific to the Rockies, we can each find a wonderful spot that for a few glorious weeks will be our own private Eden.

Home Rehearsal Helps

To come back to more prosaic things, we should all prepare well in advance in order to assure the success of the camping trip. Sources of supply for many needed things may be far distant from our camping place.

TORRANCE HIGH LIGHTS . . . by Alice Taylor & Dorothy Elder

Beach Outing . . . Saturday, June 5, will be a day never to be forgotten by the girls who were the guests of Mrs. Hitzler at her cabin in Topanga Canyon. The girls, all seniors who belong to the G. A. A., met their hostess at the Topanga Beach in the morning; there they enjoyed swimming and games. About noon, when everyone felt sufficiently sun-burned, the girls went to the cabin in the mountains where Mrs. Hitzler had a delicious lunch prepared. Hiking and playing games, furnished entertainment for the rest of the afternoon. The guests were: Margaret Batosky, Korena Carlin, Dorothy Elder, Midge Higgins, Norma Jacobs, Henrietta Schipper, Inez Smith, Alice Taylor, Peggy Wood and Mr. Jacobs.

Eclipse Broadcast . . . On Tuesday classes especially interested were excused to the gym to listen to the eclipse of the sun being broadcast over the radio from 9:15 and also at 11:11:15. Romantic Theme . . . Last minute arrangements are being made for the "prom" to be held Friday night. It is to be held in the gym and the theme is to be Romance.

Gauchos Hostesses . . . Last Wednesday the G. A. A. girls had a very pleasant time at Narbonne high school where the playday was held. The schools invited were Hamilton, San Pedro and Torrance. The theme of the playday was graduation. After the games, everybody participated in relays. Each school then put on a skit of some kind, or a G. A. A. yell.

Madrigals Perform . . . The Torrance—capella choir, commonly known as the Madrigals, sang last Friday night in an all city music festival at Washington high. Elementary and junior high schools participated in this as well as a Mother's chorus, Euterpean singers, and Torrance, which represented the capella choirs in the city system. After these various choirs and glee clubs sang, Washington high put on their operetta, "The Red Mill," which was splendid for a high school performance.
