Jury Trial Set for Accident Charge

Charged with hit-run driving in a complaint signed by Alice Gravemaker of Gardena, John McIntosh, 2064 220th street, appeared before City Judge Robert Lessing and pled not guilty last Friday afternoon. He was released on his own recognizance and his case set for jury trial on June 30.

Miss Gravemaker, who is employed at the Torrance laundry, claims that McIntosh side-swiped her car containing two other laundry workers as they were en route home on the afternoon of June 16. McIntosh appeared at police headquarters here a few minutes after the accident and reported he had accidentally struck a car as he was driving north on Western avenue.

Letters to the Editor

Torrance, Calif., June 22, 1937
The Torrance Herald,
Torrance, Calif.

The members of the Parent-Teachers Association of the Torrance Elementary school wish to thank you for the publicity you have given their organization during the past year.

Gratefully,
MRS. CARL PISEL,
Corresponding Secretary.

Lullaby Cradle Designed
CHICAGO (U.P.)—A new method of putting the baby to sleep is the "lullaby lamp." A music-box plays a simple tune for about five minutes. Gradually the melody dies away, and baby is supposed to be asleep.

Yearly Contracts Awarded By City

The approach of a new fiscal year was brought to the attention of the city council Tuesday night by a sheet of proposed contracts for city supplies. The gasoline and oil contract was awarded the General Petroleum Corporation, low bidder. The garbage contract was extended at the rate of $400 a month and the lease held by Wait-Morris on the city park diamond was renewed. Morris pays the city 10 percent of the gate and six percent on concessions.

At the request of City Attorney C. T. Rippey, the contract with the Torrance band, at the rate of $500 a year, was held up for further investigation to determine how the city can pay this fund, inasmuch as it can no longer be taken out of the publicity and advertising account.

Anniversary Sale Starts Today At Star Department Store

It was just a year ago today that a crowd, estimated at over 8,000 people, gathered at the corner of Sartori and Post avenues to celebrate the formal opening of the Star Department Store's beautiful new building. So starting today, the Star inaugurates a spectacular Anniversary Sale.

"While much of the fanfare and glamour which accompanied the opening a year ago will be omitted this year, we can assure our customers that the Anniversary Sale values will be even more attractive than were offered a year ago," said J. G. Koch, proprietor and manager of the Star Department Store.

"Reductions of 20 percent and more are being given generally throughout all departments and special Anniversary Sale prices will prevail on every piece of merchandise in stock with the exception of a very few items upon which the price is set by manufacturers and we are not permitted to sell at less than the nationally advertised prices," continued Mr. Koch.

Many of the Anniversary Sale offerings are advertised in this issue, but there are hundreds of other bargains just as attractive that await customers at the Star beginning today, according to Mr. Koch.

Neff Launches Oil Well Supply Firm

Many friends of W. J. (Bill) Neff, former deputy constable in Lomita and later connected with the state highway patrol, are wishing him success in the new business venture he started this week. Neff has leased the D and B Pump and Supply company at 1719 Carson street and will continue to operate it as the Torrance Oil Field Supply company.

He will continue to handle D and B equipment and service it and is also adding a complete line of other new and used oil well equipment.

Realtor Sells Two Residences Here

J. C. Smith, veteran realtor, reports considerable activity in sales during the past few weeks and this week completed two home-purchasing transactions. Perry Kinchloe bought a five-room stucco residence at 1313 Amapola avenue from C. T. Rippey thru Smith and the Torrance Investment company for $3,000. Smith also sold a five-room frame house at 1634 Amapola avenue to Pomp S. Cothran of San Pedro. The Pacific Electric company formerly owned the home.

RECIPES IN THREE-QUARTER TIME

Friends Say Guy Lombardo's Cheese Sandwiches Are As Good As His Rhythmic Arrangements

Stuffed Celery:
Stuff celery hearts with Bavarian Bar Spread either plain or blended with minced olives, pickles, nuts, ham, horse radish. Garnish with rice hard cooked egg yolks, minced parsley, or paprika.

Snack Waffles:
Spread slices of fresh bread with Blue Moon Bavarian Bar Spread. Remove crusts and butter the outside of the slices with softened butter. Toast in a heated waffle iron until golden brown. Serve immediately with butter.

French Toast Cheese Sandwich:
Spread slices of bread with Bavarian Bar Spread, put together sandwich fashion, and cut in halves. Dip in egg and milk batter (2 eggs beaten together with 1/2 cup milk, 1 teaspoon sugar and 1/2 teaspoon salt) and saute in butter until golden brown. Serve immediately.

Cheese Puffies:
Blend one package BAVARIAN Bar Spread with 2 tablespoons butter, 1 egg yolk and 1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce. Make tiny mounds of the cheese spread in the center of small crackers, dust with paprika and toast under a broiler flame.
