

Local Doctor's Eldest Son Weds New York Girl at Ojai

Geo. Shidler-Dorothy Snowden Married by Appellate Judge

Miss Dorothy Snowden of Syracuse, New York, became the bride of George Francis Shidler, eldest son of Dr. and Mrs. George P. Shidler of this city, at the home of Judge Edward Henderson in Ojai, California, Saturday evening at 8 p. m. Judge Henderson of the Appellate court of Santa Barbara and Ventura counties, a fraternity brother of the groom, read the Episcopal wedding service.

Mrs. Betty Miller, sister of the bride, served as matron-of-honor and George O'Neil of Hollywood was best man.

The bride is employed as secretary in the Los Angeles offices of the Aetna Life Insurance company. Shidler is plate glass adjuster for the Travelers Insurance company's Los Angeles branch.

Reception in Ojai, a pre-nuptial dinner was served the bridal party at Pierpont Inn, Ventura. A reception for the couple after the wedding at the Henderson home in Ojai was attended by friends of the Shidler family from Ventura, Santa Barbara and Los Angeles. Torrance folks present were Dr. and Mrs. George Shidler and son James.

The couple will reside in the Lyman Arms apartments in Los Angeles.

Mowry-Atkinson Nuptials In L. A. Church Tuesday

Miss Katherine Wiley Atkinson, 3927 Flower Drive, Los Angeles, and Guy L. Mowry were married in a simple ceremony performed in the First Methodist church of Los Angeles, Tuesday, at 4:00 p. m. "SUNS GO DOWN" by Flannery Lewis: In this book we have a picture of the by-gone, almost incredible days in Virginia City as seen by the author's grandmother, a most remarkable old lady of 90, who came to the old gold boom town as a bride and who still clings to her home on the Divide. In her story is all the glamour and color of the rip-roaring era of a mining boom; gallant highwaymen, saloon czars, sudden millionaires and other picturesque members of a mining town. Out of all this emerges not only a picture of the old days of the Wild West, but a vivid revelation of grandmother Flannery herself, one of the most entertaining individual personalities to be depicted in many moons.

QUESTIONS

What was the name of the first English child born on United States soil? Which sentence is correct, a or b?

(a) The murderer was hanged. (b) The murderer was hung. What is the Iliad?

TODAY'S PROVERBS

"When two dogs strive for a bone and the third runs away with it, there's a lawyer among the dogs."

Here's another clever one about lawyers. . . "Lawyers and woodpeckers have long bills."

ANSWERS

Virginia Dare was the first English child born on United States soil. She was the grand daughter of Governor White and was born in Roanoke in 1587.

"The murderer was hanged" is the correct sentence. When speaking of an execution, use "hanged" instead of "hung."

The Iliad is an epic poem by Homer. It is the story of the siege of Troy.
