CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES
"Christ Jesus" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday in all branches of The Mother Church The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. Jesus' words, from John, are the Golden Text: "The Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son; that all men should honour the Son, even as they honour the Father."

One of the Bible selections in the Lesson-Sermon presents these passages from the Acts: "The God of Abraham, and of Isaac, and of Jacob, the God of our fathers, hath glorified his Son Jesus. . . . And he shall send Jesus Christ, which before was preached unto you: . . . For Moses truly said unto the fathers, A prophet shall the Lord your God raise up unto you of your brethren, like unto me; him shall ye hear in all things whatsoever he shall say unto you. . . . The Lesson-Sermon includes also this statement from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The Christ was the Spirit which Jesus implied in his own statements: 'I am the way, the truth, and the life.' 'I and my Father are one.' This Christ, or divinity of the man Jesus, was his divine nature, the godness which animated him." Christian Science reading room at 1208 El Prado. Public welcome.

PASTOR WILL GIVE FINAL SERMON HERE ON SUNDAY

Rev. George G. Elder, pastor of the First Christian church, will terminate his services here next Sunday. He began his work with the church in the fall of 1928. At that time there were only 74 on the membership roll. Today there are about 300. More than 400 have been added through special evangelistic meetings and regular services.

At the present time a very fine missionary spirit prevails and supporting organizations include a modern church school, Ladies Council, Missionary Society, Men's Brotherhood, and several Christian Endeavor Societies. Under Rev. Elder's leadership the church has added greatly to its housing program. A $4,500 mortgage on the first unit has been reduced to less than $2,000, a $1,000 debt on the second unit has been paid off and a third unit with more than 2,000 feet of floor space built this last year is practically free of encumbrance.

The Los Angeles church presents a larger field for service, larger and finer equipment, and a larger salary. The people here have been most gracious to Mrs. Elder and her, a happy fellowship has been maintained throughout my long pastorate—we quit friends.

"Rev. Frank T. Porter, my successor, is a great leader and will lead the church on to new heights. I wish to pay my respects to Grover C. Whyte, editor and publisher of the Torrance Herald, for the generous space afforded us in his paper, to the Torrance Chamber of Commerce for the use of their equipment, to the business men of the city for their excellent cooperation and to hundreds of others who have made my stay here so joyous."

The church will observe "Elder Day" this coming Sunday. The Men's Bible class, founded and taught by Rev. Elder, will give him a "send off" in a special session beginning at 9 a. m. All the old members as well as the new, are urged to be present. The morning preaching service will begin promptly at 10 o'clock. Rev. Elder will give his last message at this hour. All those who have taken membership with the church under his pastorate, are most cordially invited and a section of the building will be reserved for them. George Luddecke of Los Angeles and several of his star pupils will supply special music for this closing service.

To Lead Service

For the concluding union service of the summer, the churches of Torrance will be sent the "Haven of Rest" quartet and Paul (First Mate Bob) Myers, Sunday evening, 7:30 o'clock, at the Civic Auditorium. The famed "crew of the good ship Grace" is shown above, top to bottom: Robert Bowman, baritone; Kenneth Nelson, section; Clarence Soderberg, second tenor; "First Mate Bob" (Myers); Ernest Payne, bass, and Lorin Whitney, organist.

Church Picnic at Park Tomorrow

The annual Sunday school and church picnic for members of the Central Evangelical church will be held tomorrow afternoon, Friday, at the city park, starting at 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon. The picnic potluck dinner will be served at 5:30 and Rev. E. W. Matz urges all members and their families to attend.

EXPECT 5,000 AT BARBECUE SEPT. 5-6

More than 3,000 pounds of choice steer beef are to be cooked to an epicure's taste Sunday and Labor Day, Sept. 5 and 6, when the biggest barbecue and entertainment the Harbor district has seen in years will be staged in lovely Royal Palms park between Redondo Beach and San Pedro. The Torrance Catholic Church of the Nativity is sponsoring the event to raise funds for a new church and all Southern Californians are invited to attend.

Master chef, who will be charged with providing ample food for 5,000 persons will be Assemblyman Godfrey Andreas of Upland, recognized for 30 years as one of the outstanding experts in the art of preparing barbecues. Andreas claims that the pan-barbecue method is supreme. All meats are seasoned, wrapped in sterilized flour sacks and cooked in immense Dutch ovens where the progress of the barbecue can be watched as carefully as at home.

In addition to cooking the meat, Andreas will supervise preparation of 335 pounds of brown beans, more than 300 dozen fresh beans, an entire crop of Italian squash and cucumbers, 185 pounds of fresh coffee and other items on the two-day menu. The food will be served from 12 noon to 4 o'clock each afternoon and sandwiches will be available at all hours. There will be dancing, distribution of gifts, booths, strolling players and a country store.

DOG FEES DUE NOW

D. V. Davidson, humane officer for this district, asked The Herald to notify all dog owners today that a penalty of 50 cents will be charged on every delinquent license after Sept. 1. The dog licenses may be secured at the city clerk's office in the city hall at the rate of $2 for males and $3 for females. Davidson, who works out of the South Day Humane Society's pound at 20927 East street, which is one block west of Hawthorne and off Torrance boulevard, said that the Society has a number of dogs on hand which may be obtained on payment of license and pound fees.

By CHARLES J. COLDEN

WASHINGTON, August 19, (Special to The Herald)—The appointment and confirmation by the Senate of Senator Hugo Black to the Supreme Court by a vote of 63 to 16 was one of the knock-outs in Washington. President Roosevelt has never made a more clever coup than he did in this instance. Senator Black has been one of the leading progressives in the Senate. Coming from Alabama, the very heart of the old South, he has parted company with the old regime of Democrats who have ruled the South for many years. At the present time many Southern Senators and Representatives are waging war against the wages and hours bill, but Senator Black has been outstanding in his battle for better wages and shorter hours. He was the author of the five-day week and the six-hour day bill that has been before the Senate and was introduced in the House by Bill Connery, who recently died.

The President's action fired the tempers of the reactionaries. It was a sizzling bolt out of the blue sky. The opponents of the President's Supreme Court reform plan are out on the spot. The Democratic Senators who voted against the confirmation of Hugo Black are marked men. Regardless of their personal opposition, some of them were compelled to fall in line in order to save their own political hides.

The President's appointment of Black is a recognition of the new Democracy of the South. There has been much sullen and some open opposition from Southern Senators against the New Deal Program. The old-time Democrats of the South still talk a good deal about states' rights. But the old idea of states' rights is passing. The South has surrendered its jurisdiction on flood control in the Mississippi River and its tributaries years ago. They were very happy for the Federal Government to assume this vexatious problem, although it did violate their theoretical ideas of states' rights.

HAM REJECTED

Ham Fish is sore. This is not the first time, because Ham jumps the traces periodically. This time, Ham Fish wanted to be on the New York Exposition commission. The Speaker of the House had the appointment of one of these Commissioners from the Republican side. Bert Snell, minority leader, recommended Ham Fish, ranking minority member of the Committee on Foreign Affairs. But Ham Fish made himself a self-appointed smelling committee. He attacked the President for avoiding the income tax. When this was explained to the satisfaction of the Ways and Means committee, he attacked Jimmie Roosevelt, and then he followed with an attack on Mrs. Roosevelt.

Each time, the Ways and Means Committee held hearings and the accusations of Ham Fish were rejected by all the members of the Committee, including both Democrats and Republicans. Speaker Bankhead ignored the recommendation of Snell, the Minority Leader, and appointed Representative Jimmie Wadsworth, from New York. Wadsworth was a former Senator. He is one of the oldest members of the House. He is esteemed and respected by both Democrats and Republicans. While a regular Republican, he is always fair and is never petty. So there is a lot of chucking on the Democratic side, and also among some Republicans, while Ham Fish and a few others are gnashing their teeth.

WELCOME CHANGE . . . The Rivers and Harbors Committee were invited up to Atlantic City to inspect a harbor project. We had two grand days of vacation. The best part of it was the restful salt air and cooling breezes. After a few days' test, I must say that I still prefer the Point Firmin variety.

NO HANG-OVER . . . Ever attend a watermelon party? I was invited to such a happy occasion by the Hon. Daniel C. Roper, Secretary of the Department of Commerce. The melons were large and luscious. They require no ginger ale, lemons or cherries and leave no headaches.
