Two New Arrivals In Hospital Here

Only two new babies joined the James H. Scott twin boys in the nursery at Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital during the past week. The Scott babies, who arrived Oct. 26, are expected to be taken to their home at 2415 Sonoma avenue tomorrow.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Dotson of 611 Portola avenue last Wednesday and a son arrived to Mr. and Mrs. Marion Fox of Wilmington Sunday.

WELL FOLKS,

A Free Country is one that doesn't fear anyone except the officials it elects to serve it.

This is Stove time. You will need them soon. I have them, all sizes and kinds to suit your purse.

It is always in order to "paint the surface to preserve the body." So the ladies say. SHERWIN-WILLIAMS Paints do all you could ask any paint to do. The outside of the doors need a coat of Spar Varnish, and the Floors need a coat of Varnish or Shellac.

Two Non-Combatants in China's War

COMING HOME—Anthony Billingham, New York Times correspondent, seriously injured in one of the first bombings of Shanghai, arrives at Alameda, Cal., by clipper ship while en route to New York to complete his recovery.

GOING BACK—R. Montague, British-Canadian businessman, embarks from Vancouver, B. C., on a return trip to the Orient after recuperating from wounds received in a Japanese bombardment. He lost an eye when shrapnel hit it.

Steel Worker Boxer Nurses Elbow Injury

Slated to resume his professional career in Long Beach next week, Gene Garner was nursing an infected left elbow, evidently the result of an insect bite and therefore forced, under doctor's orders, to delay his return to the ring. His last bout, which he won in slambang fashion, was in the Olympic Auditorium, Los Angeles.

Garner, who is shown above in a fighting pose, is employed in the Rolling Mill warehouse of the Columbia Steel plant here. He has been a boxer for quite some time and lately entered the professional field.

Coach Roy Cochran: Bruno Giacomi's easy passing because of some of the finest blocking that ever spilled a plunging defense gave him plenty of time for his heaves and a Tartar forward wall that span the Pedro Pirates back into their hatches starting regularly. Giacomi is a real find and if his pass receivers ever connect with his offerings, Garcoma and possibly some Pacific league team will be left in the hole tomorrow and later.

Outgint San Pedro
Every player on the Torrance team did top-notch work against San Pedro. All deserve credit for their aggressiveness that was decidedly different from the Torrance performances during the years preceding former Coach Bernie Donahue's reign. Torrance made seven first downs to San Pedro's three, hurled 25 passes to the Pirates' 12. Only five of the local's passes were completed, however, and three were intercepted. Pedro completed three and had three intercepted.

The opening line-up was:
Torrance (0) vs. San Pedro (0)
Giacomi LER Patterson
Harris LTR Botich
Grubb LGR Hill
Richhart C Foltz
Rossett RGL Craig
Puskoff RTL Giacalone
Trezise REL Bowers
Macore Q Overdorf
Schmidt RHL Reynolds
Herlett LHR Wolfe

representation in the same year. He was defeated in the finals by Fred Frey, national heavyweight champ.

Since that time Gene has fought a few professional bouts with considerable success. In his last engagement, as a substitute at the Los Angeles arena, he kayced Tiny Stebbins in a battle that had thousands of fans on the edge of their seats. Sid Ziff, L. A. Herald-Express sports editor, wrote this after fight:

"Gene Garner, a substitute, knocked out Tiny Stebbins with a terrific right hand just as the bell ended the fourth round. Stebbins never could have made the grade without help; he was limp as a rag, with a huge bump by his left eye where the blow had landed. His seconds gave up rather than send him back for more."

Garner, altho he suffered a broken nose in that fight, is in fine condition for his Long Beach showing. He weighs 195 pounds.
