

OBITUARY

GUS J. WEBER... father of Gus D. Weber, 2032 Gramercy avenue, who is a master workman at the Columbia Steel plant, passed away in his 75th year at his home in Marshalltown, Iowa. He had been ill for about two years. Besides his Torrance son, Mr. Weber was survived by three others, Fred, John and Charles, and two daughters, Mrs. Anna May Weismann and Mrs. Adeline Lurbe, all of Marshalltown. He had 12 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. The funeral service was held Monday.

RAYMOND PATTERSON... a resident at 1144 Maple avenue in the Hamerton tract adjoining Torrance for the past 17 years, passed away early Wednesday morning at the age of 31 years. He had been ill for about four years as result of a heart ailment. Mr. Patterson is survived by his wife, Dorothy; two small daughters, Thelma and Alma, and his grandmother, Mrs. Emma Sanders.

The funeral service was conducted this morning at 11 o'clock at the Stone and Myers' chapel by Rev. Frank Porter, pastor of the First Christian church. Interment was at Rosevelt Memorial park.

MRS. DOROTHY E. BOARDMAN... succumbed Sunday at a Los Angeles hospital after a long illness. She lived with her husband, Robert T. Boardman, at 1605 Hickory street. Mrs. Boardman was a sister of Mrs. May Hyde, former president here who now lives in Sacramento. She was 28 years of age.

The funeral service was held Wednesday at Stone and Myers' chapel with John Cooke, Christian Science reader, officiating. Interment was at Inglewood Park cemetery.

JOE BEASLEY... beloved father of Mrs. Alton F. Herchelroth, wife of the well-known Lomita chiropractor, passed away Monday night at the Herchelroth home, 24608 Narbonne avenue, at the age of 64. He has been in ill health for about two years, suffering from a heart ailment. Mr. Beasley, whose home was at Soap Lake, Washington, came to Lomita about two months ago to live with his daughter and son-in-law.

He was a dealer in real estate and was born in Chippewa Falls, Mass. For the past 30 years he had lived in Washington. A private memorial service was held to conform with Mr. Beasley's request, Wednesday night and cremation followed Thursday morning at Crest View. A. M. Gamby, Lomita mortician, was in charge of the arrangements. Dr. and Mrs. Herchelroth express their sincere thanks to friends who offered their sympathies following Mr. Beasley's demise.

Covina to Build Home Here Soon

Mrs. Estelle Strasburg of Covina has purchased the lot on Cota avenue next to Mrs. May McKinley's Inn and expects to build a home there in the near future. Mrs. Strasburg is reported to have given much time and attention to the selection of her future home and finally decided on Torrance "because this city has so much to offer." The sale was negotiated thru B. C. Buxton, realtor at 1900 Torrance boulevard.

ATTENDS BREAKFAST
Miss Esther Z. Maxwell, superintendent of the Lord Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital, attended the annual Armistice Day breakfast meeting of the Women's Overseas League yesterday at Los Angeles.

Catholic Bazaar Next Thursday

All indications point to a record crowd for the "Grand One Night Bazaar and Dinner" to be held by the Catholic Church of the Nativity at the Civic Auditorium next Thursday night, Nov. 18. In addition to the traditional bazaar features, the affair will also include the presentation of a valuable hope chest, Mikmaster and quite an amusing Dutch auction of turkeys for Thanksgiving.

All of the proceeds will be added to the fund now being raised by the parish for the construction of a new Catholic church here. The booths to be operated that night include the ham and bacon center, manned by Walter Gilbert; hand-made fancy work, operated by Mrs. William Putnam; a special booth where "hand-made" quilts, table and reading lamps will be sold by Mrs. Emma Allgood.

The baked ham dinner, tickets for which will be on sale at the door to the Auditorium for 50 cents, adults, and 25 cents for children, will be served from 5:30 to 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. William Cressmeyer is in charge of the dinner. The hope chest award is to be directed by Mrs. William Stapelhoff and Jack Murray is chairman of the Dutch auction. The public is cordially invited to attend.

Public Housing Help Sought

Seeking to eliminate slum conditions within the county despite the failure of Governor Merriam to sign state legislation which would have enabled local governments to sponsor such undertakings, the Los Angeles county board of supervisors this week requested philanthropic-minded citizens to assist in providing homes for the very poor.

Supervisor John Anson Ford was author of a resolution adopted by the board empowering the supervisors to receive requests for this purpose and instructing various county experts and departments to cooperate in making plans for slum clearance and for the creation of model home districts "or in any other fashion that a prospective donor to this cause may desire."

According to Ford, more than 7,000 indigent families whose support is provided by the county are living in homes or shacks of various degrees of dilapidation.

1208 El Prado.

Sunday morning services at 11. Sunday school, 9:30. Wednesday evening meeting, 8 p. m. Reading room in church edifice.

"Because ye are sons, God hath sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, Abba, Father. Wherefore thou art no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ." These words of Paul's to the Galatians are the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on "Mortals and Immortals" on Sunday in all branches of The Mother Church. The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

The Lesson-Sermon includes these Scriptural verses from the ninety-first Psalm: "He that dwelleth in the secret place of the shadoweth in the Almighty. Because he will deliver him, I will set him on high, because he hath known my name. He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble; I will deliver him; I will satisfy him, and show him my salvation."

Among the passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, is the statement: "Except for the error of measuring and limiting all that is good and beautiful, man would enjoy more than three score years and ten and still maintain his vigor, freshness, and promise."
