

Legion Post-Auxiliary Dance Saturday Will Usher in Yuletide Season

IS YOURS A PRESSING PROBLEM?

If indeed it is then we're the people you should see. We take the wrinkles out of any and all fabrics, put the creases in your pants, press the bags out of your elbows.

TEXANS BID TO MEETING FRIDAY

The Texas State Society is holding a regular monthly meeting Friday night, Dec. 3, at 845 South Figueroa street, at 8 p. m. There will be a nice program and dancing during the evening. All former Texans and their friends are cordially invited.

JOE'S DAUGHTERS TEA TODAY

The most important event of the week in so far as Joe's Daughters are concerned is the tea and apron bazaar being held this afternoon in the Central Evangelical Guild hall from 2:00 to 5:00 p. m. The girls report an advance sale of 200 tickets for the tea and 60 aprons no two of which are alike.

David is Host at Birthday Party

A jolly time was enjoyed at a party given at the L. V. Babcock home, 2021 Gramercy avenue, Monday afternoon, when Master David invited his friends to help him celebrate his seventh birthday.

Baseball and other games furnished entertainment with the conventional birthday cake and ice-cream for refreshments. Included were Forest and Donna Jean Turner, Eddie and Helen Fortin, Janet and Marilyn Lee, Donald Fetherolf, Geraldine Dietrich, Billy Morgan, Patty Sue Allen, Perry Paul, Billy Floyd, Danny Ford, Lynn Smythe, Jackie McQuaid, Lois Dillard, Donna Jean Weber and David.

Gala Party is Open to Public; Proceeds for Kitchen Stock

Ushering in the Yule season with one of the year's nicest social events, members of the American Legion Post 170 and Auxiliary will hold a dance party in their hall on Carson street, Saturday evening, Dec. 4.

Incidentally, who on previous occasions have scored such a hit with dance enthusiasts in Torrance and vicinity, will be on hand to play from 9 to 12 midnight.

Balloons, horns and confetti will add to the gaiety. A fortune teller will be on hand and refreshments will be served in the dining hall. Proceeds from the affair will be used to replenish the kitchen equipment.

According to the committee in charge of ticket sales, this will be a real party. It is open to the public and those who have not yet purchased tickets may get them at the door.

Marie Marsteller and Jack Barrington, serving as co-chairmen, have as their assistants Audie Modiglian, Ethel Sears, Velora Murphy, Bess Myers, Jim Wilkes, Charles Myers, Grant Barkidull and Bob Wellen.

Meglin Kiddies in Relief Benefit Friday Evening
Meglin Kiddies of Torrance, Redondo and Inglewood will appear at the Civic Auditorium Friday evening, December 3, at 8:00 p. m.

The famed kiddies will present "The Princess Has a Birthday" written by J. Lillian Vandever; the same show which will form part of the program to be given in the Shrine Auditorium, Los Angeles, December 10, when Eddie Cantor and other radio and screen celebrities hold their annual charity show.

Tickets for the Friday evening performance may be purchased at the auditorium tomorrow evening for a nominal fee. The proceeds will be used by the Relief Society to fill Christmas baskets for the needy.

Mrs. Emma Quaglin, 1609 Anapola avenue, recently returned from a week's visit with her sister in Stockton.

MARY FENTRESS

Knitted afternoon frocks with high necklines swathing the throat, broad sashes, detail and lace effects are a feature of Anna Blatt's midseason collection in which she introduces a new "woven and knit" combination.

Casual knitted skirts with soft cashmere sweaters in gray, black flecked with red or white and tweed patterns are designed in novelty frocks—shown with a deep band on the lower part of the skirt knitted to give the effect of knife-pleating.

Tucked and puffed effects are numerous. One turquoise suit of ribbed design is trimmed at the front of the jacket with double "ladder" effect of horizontal detail, the wide leaders for a brown leather belt following the horizontal design.

A distinctive black dress of the "knit and woven" type is made with high-cut neckline which opens at the throat, long fitted sleeves and a knitted sash of red and purple. With it is worn a hip-length loose-cut jacket.

Wool and silk are combined in a black afternoon dress with close-knit straight skirt and lacy blouse, the silk giving a lustrous hand effect. Another costume incorporates the current corset band at the waistline. A Southern wear ensemble in the collection is a white double-breasted knitted coat with matching skirt and wine-hued loose-knit sweater.

A current red crocheted evening gown designed with gores of flesh-hued ecruet in the long classic skirtline is an interesting novelty. Giving the effect of a fine lace, the gown is designed with swathed waistline, close-fitting bodice and wide shoulder straps that cross high in front and form a draped cowl at the back.

Embroidered pencil stripes are a novelty for a two-piece gray knit with blocked effect on the lower part of the jacket, and a deep beige corduroy is made with all-over design of small blocks, outlines in embroidery stitches.

TODAY'S FASHION TIP
Yokes of contrasting stitches are featured in knit frocks in Anna Blatt's midseason collection.

FERN AVENUE P. T. A. CARNIVAL PLANNED
Fern Avenue Parent Teachers Association have reserved Saturday, Dec. 11, for a carnival, which they will hold in the Civic auditorium. They invite the public to be their guests.
