Hundreds of persons, unable to gain admittance to the jam-packed church on Cota avenue, stood in the bright sunshine outside last Sunday morning while Archbishop James J. Cantwell administered the Holy Sacraments of Confirmation to a class of 62 at the Catholic Church of the Nativity.

The large class of confirmandi included 15 recent converts to the church, according to Rev. Father Joseph V. Fitzgerald. They followed a cross-bearing and two acolytes in a procession from Father Fitzgerald's rectory. His Grace, the Archbishop, was attended by Monsignors George Donahu of Redondo's St. James church, Vincent Schiapparelli of Wilmington's Sts. Peter and Paul, and Joseph McGuken, secretary to the Archbishop, and priests from all of the surrounding parishes.

After the two-hour service, made brilliant in the little church by the ecclesiastical pageantry of the church, Archbishop Cantwell received the visiting priests and members of the church at the rectory. According to Father Fitzgerald he was delighted to learn that a substantial building fund is being accumulated by members of the local parish for the construction of a larger and more attractive church.

"God the Preserver of Man" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. The Golden Text is from Paul's second epistle to Timothy: "The Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory for ever and ever." The Lesson-Sermon includes the words of the Psalmist: "They wandered in the wilderness in a solitary way; they found no city to dwell in. Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them. Then they cried unto the LORD in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses. And he led them forth by the right way, that they might go to a city of habitation." These verses from the Proverbs are also presented. "Trust in the LORD with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding. In all thy ways acknowledge him, and he shall direct thy paths." Among the correlative passages from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, are the words: "When we wait patiently on God, and seek Truth righteously, He directs our path. Love inspires, illumines, designates, and leads the way."
