Tartar Coach, Losing 9 Regulars, Starts Work on Training '38 Grid Candidates at High School

TARTAR CAGE SQUADS LACK VET PLAYERS

Coach Bert Merrill is building his varsity basketball team at the Torrance high school around three players who saw action in Class A games last year. All three were guards in the 1936-37 campaign but Merrill is shifting one, David Powell, to center and another, Wilbur Franklin, to forward. The third, Harold Clemmer, is holding his old position.

Bob Klink is getting a try-out at the other guard spot and Don Moser is at forward. Both are inexperienced and the varsity team development to date has been slow with the squad showing much better offensive strength than defense. Merrill has the following former B-let-tenmen out for the varsity squad: Junior Richardson and Addison Smith, forwards; W. L. Priest, John Fess and Lester Stanley, guards. Others on the squad are Harold Masse, guard, and Art Woodcock.

C's, D's Unknown
Merrill's B team has been developing exceptionally fast considering that four out of the five who will start have had no previous basketball training. The same team will be back for one or two years to come. Players who have shown special interest in the casaba game are Bill Buckley, guard; Marvin Lee, center; Bob Yancey and Bill Nagel, forwards. Lettermen advanced from the Cees to the Bees are Tommy Wilkes, Melvin Benner, Bill Ritchie, Jean Bordeaux and Harvey Abrahamson. Hata Masahara, guard, is the only Bee letterman holding over from last year's team, and Marian Keating is a forward up from the Dees squad. Newcomers are Bill Orr, Bernard Van Ness and Harold Jackson.

The Tartar C and D teams are unknown quantities. The Cees have one letterman, John Keating, forward on last year's Dec squad, and Kenneth Vaughn, Richard Pierson, centers; Bill Ross, George Snow and O. B. Huber, guards, and Bob Steadman, forward. The Dees aggregation is composed of such newcomers as Charles Steadman, Clifford Powell, Keith Goddard and Bob Schwartz, forwards, James Daniel, Don Guy, Glen

Cochran Names 25 Players as Letter Winners

Because he is losing nine of his 11 regulars who played on the Tartar football team this fall because of graduation, Coach Cochran took steps this week to line up his 1938 varsity and B teams in anticipation of a heavier schedule than was played this year.

Tartars graduating are J. D. Radford and Jack Kent, ends; Leonard Harris and Al Winkler, tackles; Capt. Leo Rossett, guard; Jimmy Herlett, Louis Madore, Max Coast and Johnny Schmidt, backs.

Monday Coach Cochran held a meeting of all boys interested in turning out for football next year and announced he would hold practice for eighth graders and other Class B team candidates for the remainder of the semester.

In February he plans to train varsity candidates in grid fundamentals in order to learn what material he will have available and how good it is for the 1938 edition of Tartar grid teams.

Pasadena Players Swap Torrance Tennis Club

The five matches played here last Sunday by Torrance Tennis club members and racket wielders from Pasadena's Brookside park were won by the local players. But in Pasadena, the Torrance delegation lost all the other 28 points. The next games will be with Eagle Rock's Yosemite play-ground tennis club on Sunday, Dec. 19.

Local winners here last Sunday were: Singles—Dr. Butt, Tony Prodan, Leslie Prince; doubles—Dr. Butt and Prodan, Jack Clayton and Prince.

Hall and Phillip Hoffman, guards, and Claude Gotts, center.

NEW MARINE BASKETBALL SCHEDULE DOUBLES GAMES

Not until San Pedro high school's athletic director Henry had emphatically declared that the Marine league basketball schedule should provide for a double round of games, as favored by a majority of the Marine schools, did William G. Lopez, L. A. city schools sports arbiter, consent to the enlarged season. Monday he announced a six-game schedule for three schools and seven games for two schools, a set-up which nullified the previously announced game assignments.

However, Coach Bert Merrill of Torrance high is not satisfied with the line-up for the Tartar fives. Both Torrance and Narbonne are listed for bye dates on Feb. 4 and Merrill wants his squads to play the Gauchos on that date, thus making the Tartars' casaba season seven games.

The following new official schedule is for varsity and Bee teams only. The C and D squads will follow the original set-up, the reverse playing locations of the first five dates on the new program with games being run-off on Thursdays.

Friday, Dec. 3: El Segundo at San Pedro. (See story on this page about the results of that engagement.)

Friday, Dec. 10: Narbonne at Gardena; San Pedro bye.

Tuesday, Dec. 14: TORRANCE at El Segundo.

Friday, Dec. 17: TORRANCE at Narbonne; Gardena at El Segundo; San Pedro bye.

Tuesday, Dec. 21: El Segundo at TORRANCE; San Pedro at Gardena; Narbonne bye.

Friday, Jan. 7: Gardena at TORRANCE; San Pedro at Narbonne; El Segundo bye.

Friday, Jan. 14: TORRANCE at San Pedro; Narbonne at El Segundo; Gardena bye.

Friday, Jan. 21: TORRANCE by; San Pedro at El Segundo; Gardena at Narbonne.

Friday, Jan. 28: San Pedro at TORRANCE; El Segundo at Narbonne; Gardena bye.

Friday, Feb. 4: TORRANCE and Narbonne bye dates (subject to a scheduled game); El Segundo bye and Gardena at San Pedro.

San Pedro-Segundo Split Cage Games

Playing their first Marine league game of the season, San Pedro's varsity basketballers rallied in the final period last Friday to defeat El Segundo 16 to 14 at San Pedro. The Pirates were trailing the Oilers 7 to 4 at half time.

El Segundo's Bees turned the tables on the Pirate Bees by winning their game 11 to 10 after being behind 8 to 3 at the half.

Garner Booked for Long Beach Bout

Gene Garner, former Columbia Steel worker, resumes his ring campaign next Wednesday night at Long Beach Arena, meeting George Theodoratus, former All-American grid star at Washington State, in a special event. Both heavyweights are potent punchers. Four other bouts are on the card.
