Seminary Drive Group Formed by Priest Here

Cooperating with the Southern California campaign to raise $1,500,000 for the erection and endowment of St. John's Seminary, projected Catholic institution for candidates for the priesthood, Rev. Father Joseph Fitzgerald of the local Nativity parish, has appointed his local aides. The drive for the seminary fund will open Feb. 13 and construction of the seminary, on a 100-acre site near Camarillo in Ventura county is scheduled to begin within a few months.

The local parish workers, under direction of Father Fitzgerald and James A. Obble, lay chairman, will undertake the solicitation of contributions to the seminary fund. Each campaigner will be equipped with proper credentials. Gus Bray is secretary, James Thompson, treasurer, and the following are captains here:

John V. Murray, Gus Bray, O. J. Chicoine, Walter Gilbert, William Dietlin, J. W. Sullivan, S. W. Wunderle, Norman Hammon, James Thompson, Leonard Young, Neil McConlogue and John Kirchen. The following have been appointed lieutenants: J. E. McIntire, W. F. Murphy, James O'Toole, J. Nady, J. S. Kennedy, C. J. Flynn, Leo Henderson, Theo. Wertz, Frank Phelan, C. C. There will be a meeting of captains and lieutenants Monday, Jan. 24, at 7:30 p. m., at the Rectory. All are requested to be present.

Mock Trial Scheduled for Jan. 24 Presentation at M. E. Church

Enacts the role of defense attorney in a "murder trial" to be staged at the Methodist church Monday evening, Jan. 24, at 7:30 o'clock. "Frank Preston" (Dr. H. G. Mitts) will be tried before City Judge Robert Lessing with the "district attorney" (Rev. E. C. Brewster) attempting to prove that the defendant, while under the influence of liquor, drove his car thru a safety zone, killing two men and seriously injuring a young woman.

North, of Los Angeles, states the defendant is not the only one involved and that he will name the guilty party at the trial. The defendant will be faced by one of his victims, Miss Josephine Lansdown and W. E. Bowen, a "detective," and Rev. C. M. Northrup, "coroner," will testify for the prosecution. The state's "star witness" will be Mrs. E. Rowell. Rev. F. T. Porter will be "court clerk," Rev. E. W. Matz, "balliff" and the "jury" will be composed of Mrs. C. B. Smith, Mrs. S. S. Worrell, W. H. Tolson, Mrs. H. Heocott, Mrs. M. Chisholm, C. Pisel, Mrs. J. McVicar, Mrs. E. Broad, Scott Ludlow, Leonard Babcock, Daniel McCormack and

John V. Murray, Gus Bray, O. J. Chicoine, Walter Gilbert, William Dietlin, J. W. Sullivan, S. W. Wunderle, Norman Hammon, James Thompson, Leonard Young, Neil McConlogue and John Kirchen. The following have been appointed lieutenants: J. E. McIntire, W. F. Murphy, James O'Toole, J. Nady, J. S. Kennedy, C. J. Flynn, Leo Henderson, Theo. Wertz, Frank Phelan, C. C. Shaney, Joseph Anderson, Noel O. Morin, J. Landerville, David Hammon, W. J. Neff, Carl Grambling, Arthur Mullin, James Anderson, Ed. Anderson, Bert Anderson, C. J. Larava and Fred Koerner.

OBITUARY

MRS. MARY ANN CHAPMAN
 . . . a Lomita resident for 23 years, succumbed at the family home at Paradise Grove, 26011 Pennsylvania avenue, Saturday following an illness of several weeks. She was 75 years of age. Mrs. Chapman was survived by her husband, John G. Chapman; three sons, Wilbur and Willard of Lomita, and Robert; stepsons, John and Charles Morrison, and two daughters, Alta Mary Chapman of Lomita and Mrs. Florence Hanna.

The Chapmans came to Lomita in 1910, purchasing 10 acres in the south portion of the community which they gave the name Paradise Grove. Later they turned part of the estate into a cafe and picnic ground. The funeral service was held Monday afternoon at the A. M. Gamby chapel with Rev. John Orr and the Lomita Auxiliary of the V. F. W., in charge. Interment was at Roseview cemetery.

P. ALBERT NORTH

MRS. JENNIE SARLES
 . . . passed away suddenly Sunday while enjoying an outing at Orange county park. She was 57 years of age and had lived in Harbor City since 1929, the family home being at 1855 257th street. Mrs. Sarles was survived by three daughters, Mrs. Myrtle Vickery and Mrs. Dorothy Moore of Harbor City and Mrs. Mable Dotson of Eureka; two sons, Evert of Tunjuna and Wesley of North Bend, Wash.; a grandson, three granddaughters and one great granddaughter. The funeral service was conducted this afternoon at Stone and Myers' chapel by Rev. Earl Edwards of Wilmington's Baptist church. Cremation followed at Pacific Crest.

GEORGE HARRISON CRITTENDEN
 . . . a resident of Lomita for 27 years and a trucking contractor for a quarter of a century, succumbed yesterday at the family home, 2253 243rd street. He was 71 years of age and had been ill since last November. Mr. Crittenden was born in New York.

He is survived by his wife, Priscilla; three daughters, Carrie E. Smith, Preston; Sylvia J. Graffe and E. Marian Crittenden of Lomita, and a son, Elmer O. Crittenden. The funeral will be held Saturday afternoon, 1:20 o'clock, at the A. M. Gamby chapel in Lomita and interment will be at Artesia cemetery.

Bishops' Visits Scheduled Here

The Right Reverend W. Bertrand Stevens, D. D., will preach at St. Andrew's Episcopal church Sunday morning, Jan. 30, at 11 o'clock, according to the vicar, Rev. Thomas R. Marshall. The church will also be honored by a visit from Bishop Gooden in February.

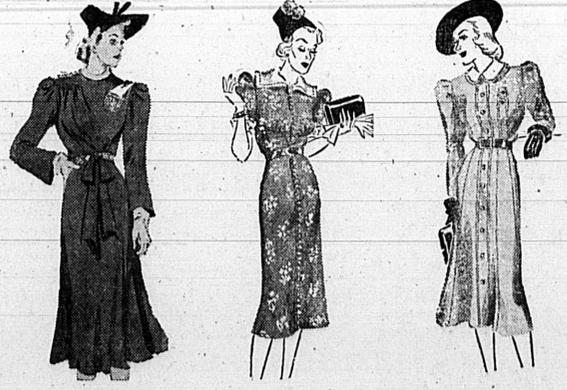

Bishop Stevens will speak on the Edinburgh and Oxford conferences which he attended last summer. Bishop Gooden will confirm the candidates in this year's confirmation class.
