Opposition Greet Ravine Fair Site (Continued from Page 1-A) bility of this former home of the municipal pesthouse in size, accessibility and potential traffic and parking facilities is immediately plain. It might get by as the locus for a permanent trade show to which no one day would bring very large crowds. But for a world's fair of limited duration, to which tens of thousands of invited guests from everywhere will flock daily, it would never do. "Fortunately the people themselves will have a chance to vote on the question at the coming special election on the subject."

Shoshone Indians Cited For Easiest Divorces RENO, Nev. (U.P.)—Nevada's divorce laws may be the most liberal in the country since the six weeks' residence requirement was adopted in 1931, but they are a lot stiffer than they were 100 years ago. It was necessary for a squaw only to move her buck's belongings out of their tent when he left, and when he returned, he would understand that a 'divorce decree' had been taken against him.

Joseph Manter WRIGHT FOR COUNCIL APRIL 12 It is time for Americans to cooperate. America is menaced, not by a foreign foe that would storm its battlements, but by the more fearful enemy of domestic strife and savagery. I am not backed by any COMBINE in Chamber of Commerce, or out that I know of. Six years ago I tried to get the CITY COUNCIL to assume responsibility as required by Law in the expenditure of the so-called Chamber of Commerce fund. It was the Council's and Attorney's fault if a large amount was misappropriated.
