

No Need Seen for 'Socialized Medicine'

With the widespread interest throughout Southern California in group hospitalization as recently inaugurated by a non-profit organization of the leading hospitals themselves, there is no need for so-called "socialized medicine," according to a statement issued this week by Dr. L. B. Rogers, executive director of the Associated Hospital Service of Southern California. He recently visited the 31 member hospitals which comprise Torrance Memorial hospital of the city.

The service was formed recently following passage of State legislation patterned after group hospitalization laws in effect in several progressive Eastern states, and enables a wage earner or any member of his family to provide for future hospital needs for a few cents a day. The Southern California group, the first to be set up under the new measure, already has more than 5,000 subscribers among employees of industrial and commercial concerns from Santa Barbara to San Diego and eastward as far as Redlands.

While central headquarters for the service are maintained in Los Angeles, arrangements have been completed by Dr. Rogers so that member hospitals may operate as branches of the main office, supplying all necessary information and registration forms required by the State Insurance Commissioner under whose jurisdiction the group operates. All member hospitals, it was also pointed out, are approved by the State Board of Health.

"The response of both employers and employees to the group plan of hospitalization is most gratifying," asserts Dr. Rogers. "Hospitals alone can guarantee hospital service and this is the ultimate responsibility. There should be no middle-man between the hospital itself and the person needing its services, and this group plan enables the hospitals themselves to make it possible for working people to provide in advance for hospital care and pay for it as a regular item in the family budget."

Tudor Feature

Those who prefer a tudor sedan, especially those who ride in the back seat of a tudor sedan, will appreciate the advantages of the interesting front seat hinges in new two-door Ford V-8s. This innovation was designed to give passengers easier access to the rear seat.

This model car has been very popular for the family with small children because there are no rear doors for little hands to tamper with while daddy drives. It has been popular with the salesman too—he has to look only two doors instead of four when he parks his car. Schultz and Peckham, local Ford dealers, claim that the Ford tudor model has been considerably more popular since the new seat hinge feature pictured above was introduced.

This verse from the Psalms: "Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth," is the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on Sunday in all branches of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts. The question, "Is the Universe, including Man, Evolved by Atomic Force?" is the subject.

The Lesson-Sermon includes these verses from Jeremiah: "The LORD hath brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of the LORD our God. . . . He hath made the earth by his power, he hath established the world by his wisdom, and hath stretched out the heaven by his understanding." It includes also this verse from the Psalms: "Let Israel rejoice in him that made him: let the children of Zion be joyful in their King."

Among the correlative passages from the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, are the words: "The scientific fact that man and the universe are evolved from Spirit, and so are spiritual, is as fixed in divine Science as is the proof that mortals gain the sense of health only as they lose the sense of sin and disease."

FRESHNESS ASSURED... EVERY LOAF DATED!

The fine flavor of Julia Lee Wright's Bread did not "just happen." It was carefully planned and produced. Recipe after recipe, submitted by women of the West, was tested and retested. Various blends of flour, leavening materials, etc., were tried out in the kitchen of the Home-makers' Bureau in search of the perfect combination that resulted in Julia Lee Wright's Bread.

The valuable formula, thus perfected, was then turned over to Safeway's staff of experts in the bakery department. Here, with baking equipment of modern design, the fine loaf that was developed under woman's baking conditions, is produced in huge quantities, retaining all its delicious flavor and delicate texture.
