Carrier Pigeon Stops for Food SANTA ROSA, Cal. (U.P.)—A carrier pigeon flying north over here on a presumably non-stop flight apparently became so exhausted it could not continue. It came down at the house of Mrs. Warren Jones, was fed and then resumed its flight.

Drinks Stolen, Money Ignored CANTON, O. (U.P.)—These burglars were just going on a party. They stole 40 quarts of whiskey, six quarts of wine, and the contents of a cigaret-vending machine.

Torrance Kiwanians will be hosts to El Segundo and Hermosa Beach Kiwanians here next Monday night when the national observance of "All-Kiwanis Night" will be a feature of the dinner-session. Similar meetings will be held throughout the United States and Canada that evening to listen to a broadcast from the Kiwanis International convention at San Francisco. The local gathering will hear an address by Charles Ann, advertising director of the Los Angeles Daily News, and vocal numbers by Mrs. Dona McCutchen-Moore, in addition to the broadcast-portion-of-the-program. Robert Deinger will be in charge of the program. Members of the Lomita Kiwanis club will hold a joint meeting with San Pedro and Wilmington clubs at the Wilmington Yacht clubhouse next Monday to observe "All-Kiwanis Night."

DETOUR

Col'm Under Construction By BETSY BYRNES Vacation-time is here again! You study highway maps and then you sally forth and feel like kings. When your two weeks have fled on wings Then home you come, yes, all worn out. And all your cash you are without. Vacations are worth it, we all agree! The trouble is though, that the other fellow never wants to hear about your trip. He wants to talk about his own! QUESTIONS If a titmouse, an albatross and a tern were traveling together, one could say, "There go three—" Can you fill in the proper word? What famous character in literature is known as "The melancholy Dane?" We went to a rodeo in Salinas a few years ago, so we have very pleasant memories of that town. What does the name Salinas mean? TODAY'S PROVERB "Riches are abused But never refused." —Danish

Starred in Huge 'Rice-Bowl' Party

Sung Lang Chow, noted Chinese actor, and two youthful admirers, who "went along for the ride," were featured performers at San Francisco's recent "rice bowl" party, at which $55,000 was raised for the aid of China's war and flood sufferers. More than 200,000 persons turned out for the night-long party, largest held in the United States.

Bull Fiddle Case Has No Developments

With the next move up to the city, the "Battle of the Bull Fiddle" between the city council and the Torrance Musicians' Society, Inc., offered no new developments this week. City Attorney John E. McCall said that the council will take the "ease under advisement" next Tuesday night. The police have been unable to "talk the Society into giving up the bull fiddle." Police Chief G. M. Calder said and he is unwilling to proceed further without a court citation.

BLUE AND GRAY TO GET FREE TRIPS TO REUNION ON FIELD AT GETTYSBURG

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (U.P.)—A few remaining gallants of the Confederate and Union armies will meet again on the Gettysburg Battlefield—but this time amicably—to celebrate the 75th anniversary of the great battle of July 1-3, 1863. Pennsylvania and the Federal government have joined to provide every able-bodied Civil War veteran from the 48 states, the District of Columbia and Canada with free round-trip transportation, maintenance during the eight-day convention (June 29-July 6), and all the entertainment they want. Philosophers may find the celebration freighted with deep meaning. To jingoists it might stress the "glory of war." The pacifist might find in it a multitude of arguments for "peace at any price." Guide for Each One But for the veterans themselves—and their letters of acceptance bear witness—it will be a rip-roaring, yarn-swapping good time—a fling such as they probably have not had since they celebrated the battle's half-century anniversary 25 years ago. Of the remaining 7,000 veterans of the Civil War, approximately 1,200 of whom many fought under Pickett and Meade will attend the celebration. Upon arrival here June 28 and 29 they will be assigned to floored, electrically-lighted tents—which may draw much dry and barbed comment from the doughty old warriors. Then they will be marshalled into mess-groups and each will be assigned a guide. To Dedicate Memorial July 1 will be "Last Reunion Day" and impressive ceremonies have been arranged in which the 48 governors and descendants of Abraham Lincoln, Generals Lee,

Grant, Meade, Pickett, Longstreet, Buford, and other Civil War notables are scheduled to participate. Survivors of America's later wars will parade on July 2 in honor of the Blue and Gray. Sunday, July 3, will be one of the highlights of the celebration: President Roosevelt has accepted the commission's invitation to dedicate an imposing memorial to "Peace Eternal in a United Nation." The monument, which houses an ever-burning flame, was built with $75,000 contributed by seven states. Opportunity for Rest On July 4, units of the regular army will go through a series of maneuvers designed to show the old campaigners the progress made in the science of war. That night a huge fireworks display will bring the official program to a close. The following two days will be free time during which the veterans will be entertained informally and accorded an opportunity for a rest before decamping for home.

Girls Snub Dutch Treat BUTTE, Mont. (U.P.)—When a questionnaire relative to social relations between high school girls and their escorts made the rounds of all high schools girls here, there were two questions to which not a single girl responded. They were: "Do you believe in girls spending money on boys?" and "Do you believe in the Dutch treat, 50-50 on dates?"
