First Luncheon Gathering Features Music and Readings

Not since the Torrance Woman's club was organized in 1921 has there been presented to the club a group of new members such as that which Mrs. Marie Quigley, membership chairman, greeted the club president Wednesday, when 25 members were introduced at the meeting and the names of four others read.

The 29 new members were obtained during the summer when a membership campaign was waged. Two teams were organized, one captained by Helen Sillgo, who was credited with 17 members and the other by Mary Vonderahe, credited with 12 members. This brings the total club enrollment to 94 and places the club in an enviable position.

New members were introduced by their respective captains and welcomed by Mrs. Lillian Barrington, club president, who then explained the aims and purposes of the club.

Year Books Distributed
Mrs. Charles Schultz, first vice-president and program chairman, presented Mrs. Eugene Fincher, vocalist, and Mrs. Joseph Mault, by accompanist and reader, in one of the most delightful musical programs ever heard by the club group.

Attractive year books were presented to all present. These contain the names of all club members, list committee chairmen and club officers, the club prayer, collect, pledge of allegiance to the flag, the American creed and club anthem.

The year book committee was composed of Marie Beale, chairman; Minnie Brooks, Garnet Johnston and Louise Johnson.

Four Members Presented
Club women prepared the tasty luncheon, which was served to 75. Mrs. P. G. Briney served as kitchen chairman and Mrs. J. W. Post as chairman in the dining room.

New members introduced were Misses Harry Abramson, R. F. Bingham, Bessie Bradford, Edward Brunner, Jr., Ferno Cheesman, Harley Haynes, Mary Lou Kelley, H. T. Lintott, Harry Masie, William Rojo, Jr., Raymond Rogers, Jr., John L. Watson, Henry Wertalla, Margo Roos, Leonard Young, H. E. Schlundt, C. B. Mitchell, Max Pons, Marie Morgan, Irma Trezise, Kathryn Buffington, Ruth Woodcock, Leonard Babcock, R. R. Smith, T. A. Mitchell, Jack Keefer and R. J. Deininger.

Mrs. Caroline Collins, past president of the club, was presented with an honorary membership.
