When the rejuvenated Torrance Tartars sweep south into the pampas of Lomita tomorrow afternoon they will have five fingers clutching Lady Luck's good right hand to help them toward their second victory over Narbonne's Gauchos. That handful of pro-Torrance dope is composed of:

(1) The game will be the 13th between the two schools and inasmuch as Torrance has borne the tough breaks since 1926 the conflict should prove unlucky for Lomita;

(2) Last week's victory over the Banning Pilots gave the Tartars some confidence in their own powers;

(3) Because Narbonne and Banning played a scoreless tie two weeks ago, the "paper edge" of Friday's game goes to Torrance;

(4) Toughened by league games with Gardena and Banning, the Tartars have had more experience than the Lomita squad whose game with San Pedro last Friday was their first, and

(5) Torrance has a heavier team. The Tartar line averages 185 as compared to the Gauchos' 162, while the local team's backfield averages 100 as against the Lomita eleven's 152 pounds.

And, if the thrill of another Torrance-Narbonne game is not enough to send all grid fans in this city trekking south to Lomita in time for the kick-off at 2:30 o'clock tomorrow, there's another feature to the inter-community classic: It will be a junior edition of the U.S.C.-U.C.L.A. "civil war."

Teams in Good Shape
Coach Robert Barr, mentor of the Tartars, is an alumnus of U.C.L.A., while Bill Sloan's alma mater is the Trojan institution. Each will produce everything they learned from Messrs. Bill Spaulding and Howard Jones to help their first high school charges.

There will be extra bleachers at Griffin field in Lomita to accommodate as many as 5,000 fans. Both teams are reported in excellent condition for the annual combat. Narbonne's Green and Gold supporters will be on hand en masse hoping to see the Gauchos make it two straight victories this season and the 10th over the Torrance Tartars.

The other Marine league game of the week-end is the Gardena-San Pedro encounter at Gardena. Banning is playing a practice game with South Gate.

Torrance Takes Banning 7-0 for First Grid Victory in Two Years

When plunging Marvin Goetsch skirted the Banning Pilot line for 20 yards to the invaders' two-yard marker and Akige Shimatsu dived over center for the touchdown early in the third quarter of the Torrance-Banning game last Friday afternoon, a long, long two-year period between grid victories for the local school came to an end. Kenneth Perkin's talented cut booted the extra point and the first Tartar win since Torrance beat El Segundo 18 to 7 on Nov. 6, 1936, was in the bag.

Banning threatened to tie that score with a feverish passing attack but this failed when Torrance recovered the ball on its own 20 and the gun barked for the last time. More than 2,500 fans swept on the field and the victory celebration added another festive note to the Factory Frolic.

COACH ROBERT BARR
Whose Torrance Tartars bump up against their traditional "enemies," the Narbonne Gauchos, tomorrow afternoon. Barr, a graduate of U.C.L.A., has developed a football team this year that rivals some of the best squads produced by former Coach Bernie Donahue.

Narbonne Gets Revenge on S. P.

The over-confident Pirates from San Pedro high school were forcibly smothered under an 8 to 0 score when they met a driving, smashing Gaucho team on Griffin field in Lomita last Friday. It was the Gauchos' second league game, the first with Banning ending in a 0 to 0 deadlock.

There seemed to be no stopping the revenge-eager Narbonne men who had suffered defeat at the hands of San Pedro last year. They found holes in the line and almost walked through to smother passes and block kicks attempted by the Pirates.

All of the scoring occurred in the second quarter. The Gauchos started it by ringing up two points as Jack Seden, left end, rushed through the line to block a kick from which the ball fell home two points for a safety. Soon after, San Pedro made a desperate drive. The ball was given to Mardesch, who skirted his right end and tore from his own seven-yard line to cross the Narbonne goal—only to be called back because of a penalty for clipping.

Then again came Narbonne's turn to score as Fada Wada intercepted a Pirate pass and crossed the goal line to chalk up six points. On the technical side, the yardage went to the Gauchos, Narbonne gaining 101 to San Pedro's 93. However, the Gauchos lost 45 in penalties to San Pedro's 30. Vernon Hart, Gaucho halfback, occupied the kicking line, his punts proving heart-breaks to the Pirates as they traveled from 65 to 72 yards.
