Upholstery Suffers in Winter

Since car upholstery is subjected to greater wear in winter than summer, motorists appreciate the very timely Seat Covers Sale event, now in progress at the Western Auto Supply Company, the local manager declares. Principle causes of extra wear in winter are the wet packages and umbrellas of Milady, the wanderings of children's dirty feet and those of their pets, and the contact with wet soiled clothing. Use of Seat Covers absorbs this wear and preserves the life of upholstery. The Western Auto man says, pointing out that during his firm's current event 30 per cent savings on Seat Covers may be effected by wise car owners.

"Ascribe ye greatness unto our God. He is the Rock, his work is perfect: for all his ways are judgment: a god of truth and without iniquity, just and right is he." This verse from Deuteronomy is the Golden Text in the Lesson-Sermon on "Truth" on Sunday in all Churches of Christ, Scientist.
The Lesson-Sermon includes also these words of the Psalmist: "Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O LORD: let thy lovingkindness and thy truth continually preserve me. . . I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations. For thy mercy is great unto the heavens, and thy truth unto the clouds. . . Happy is he that hath the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in the LORD his God: Which made heaven, and earth, the sea, and all that therein is: which keeps truth for ever: . . . The LORD openeth the eyes of the blind: the LORD raiseth them that are bowed down: the LORD loveth the righteous."
Among the selections from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, is the passage: "The understanding of Truth gives full faith in Truth and spiritual understanding is better than all burnt offerings."

OPTOMETRIST SMITH REVEALS FLOUNDER'S FLOUNDERING EYE

Every Isaac Walton who ever boasted catching a flounder, and every epicure who has succumbed to its tasteful lure, accepts as a natural phenomenon the fact that the fish has both eyes on one side of its body. This, however, is not "natural." The young flounder begins life with an eye on each side, like many other members of his water-inhabiting family; but later in life, he becomes lazier and gives up his early habit of swimming upright.

As the fish grows used to lying always on one side, the soft cartilage of its skull disappears completely from between the eyes. The underneath eye then slips into this hole like a well educated golf ball, and settles on the other side next to the top-most eye. The skull then hardens into solid bone, and the lazy flounder thus saves himself the trouble of turning over in order to see out of both eyes.

IN COMPARING the Statement of Condition at the close of 1938 with that at the end of the previous year (1937) a number of noteworthy betterments are noted, among the most outstanding being:

1. An increase in Loans and Discounts from $215,782.85 in 1937 to $261,774.10 in 1938, which means, of course, that more of the bank's deposits are at work earning interest and thereby increasing the profit for stockholders. At the same time, a larger amount of quick assets was maintained.
2. An additional $4000.00 of Preferred Stock has been retired during the past year and the same amount added to the Common Stock account, thereby enhancing the value of the latter holdings.
3. Surplus and Undivided Profits have advanced from $35,454.29 at the close of 1937 to $43,017.63 on December 31, 1938, representing a profit of $7,563.34 during the past year.
4. Since the Torrance National Bank was organized in 1934, it has earned a profit of $33,017.63, over and above all expenses, dividends on Preferred Stock, losses on loans, and depreciation on building and fixtures. Of this $33,017.63 profit, $10,000.00 has been utilized in retiring Preferred Stock and the balance of $23,017.63 remains in the Undivided Profits account. This record reflects the sound condition of the bank and most satisfactory earnings.
