

Kiwanians Hosts at Dinner Dance Attended by 40 Couples at Lakewood Club

Club Now Planning Another 'Ladies Nite' Early in June

The Kiwanis club's quarterly dinner dance held Monday night at the Lakewood Country club proved most interesting of this week's social events. Forty couples attended the party which Kiwanians term as ladies night. "It is on this occasion that wives and sweethearts don their prettiest gowns, stick a pony in their hair and join in the singing of such well known numbers as "Sweethearts Forever," "I Got a Pocketful of Dreams," "Sidewalks of New York" and other selections.

Dean Sears, president of the club, as toastmaster mixed wit with wisdom as he introduced members of his executive family and guests. W. E. Shawger directed the group singing with R. S. Sleeth playing the accompaniment. Music for dancing was furnished by Buell Payne and his band.

"How Like Her" or "Just Like Her"

There's a difference; when friends say, happily, "How like her" on receipt of a smart Art Point Marriage Announcement it's one thing. When, after months of waiting, they learn second-hand of the marriage, and they say "Just like her" it's something else again.

Brides need not take a chance of offending, when Art Point Marriage Announcements are so easy to buy, so sure to please. Call at The Herald office for your 1939 brides' Book. It's entirely free.

ELEGANT IS THE WORD... Sentimental, perhaps, but elegant is the word for this Balenciaga white linen evening dress trimmed with English embroidery and tied up with baby-pink ribbons, as shown in April's Harper's Bazaar. The cutout work is better known as eyelet embroidery.

"COTTON starts at the beginning of the day and never stops," says

Carnel Snow, editor of Harper's Bazaar. "This year cotton will be worn in the city and go to your biggest evening party. Cotton has definitely gone to town, is no longer a country cousin. Cotton will be right for town in the evening, trimmed with lace or extravagant in rich embroidery, the kind we used to call eyelet embroidery. In city day clothes, cotton feeling is terrific."
