Luncheon-Bridge Is Delightful Function

L. B. Pacific Coast Club Locale for Notable Affair

Not for so many years it is difficult to remember, have Torrance society matrons attended such a delightful and attractive luncheon-bridge as was given at the Pacific Coast club in Long Beach Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. J. B. Scott and Mrs. Robert E. Burns.

Garlands of yellow roses and spring flowers decorated a T-shaped table. Place cards were unique with tiny flowering plants cut out of colored felt and pasted on the score cards. Gay afternoon frocks added color to the Spring motif.

Following luncheon, bridge was played. A lovely luncheon cloth set—the prize for high score—was awarded Mrs. Alice Dalton. Mrs. Nora Deisinger received an hors d'oeuvres tray for second, and Mrs. Mary Canfield of Manhattan Beach, a bubble bowl, for third.

Other guests were: Mesdames Ruth Rippey, Ethel Sears, Lillian Ullright, Edie Bishop, Frances Levy, Katherine Klink, Marguerite Kelsey, Velma Schultz, Iola Young, Viola McGuire, Dorothy Post, Mildred Lancaster, Florence Peckham, Pluma Whyte, Mary Lou Barnes, Cleora Stanger, Esta Hitchcock, Myra Beaman, Dulcie Brooks, Velora Murphy, Hallie McQuaid, and Nell Smith, all of Torrance; Mrs. Ardis Anderson of Long Beach; Mrs. Irene Schaffer of Redondo Beach; and Mrs. Louise Chase of Glendale.

P.T.A. MEMBERS ENJOY BOAT TRIP

Tenth District, California Congress of Parents and Teachers, held an interesting session at San Pedro high school last Thursday, with Mrs. Rose Stetler, assistant supervisor of secondary curriculum of the board of education, as the featured speaker. Mrs. Stetler discussed the topic, "A Changing Family Meets a Changing World."

A group of senior students from Manual arts high school presented their problems and deductions in a panel discussion. The musical program was given by San Pedro high school students under the direction of Miss Corinne Mansfield, choral director, and Carlton Smith, director of the orchestra.

Following the program the Gateway and Lomita-San Pedro councils arranged a cafeteria luncheon and a harbor boat trip which was enjoyed by a large delegation of the visiting Tenth District members.

NEW OFFICERS WILL BE INSTALLED

Mrs. Lola Hoover and her staff of officers, who will be in charge of activities of the National Business and Professional Women next year, will be installed at the regular meeting next Monday night, May 15. The affair will be held at Scully's on Crenshaw boulevard, and members will bring their husbands or friends, as this is the important party of the year. Members are urged to meet promptly at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Bettina Miller, outgoing president, and Mrs. Addie Parks, junior past president, are in charge of arrangements. The program will include songs by Lloyd Jones, of Los Angeles, and piano solos by Madame Teala Bellini. Ruth Spencer, of Huntington Park will install the new officers.

Torrance leads the conference for the first time, and members are busy preparing for the event.

Opal Williams, senior regent, will be conference leader, and as such will oversee the work of various committees. She will be assisted by Auguste Barnett, publicity, and Ruth Kidd, child care and training. The Torrance chapter will exemplify balloting in the new ritual. The conference theme, "Mooseheart Standards Universal," will be carried throughout the entire session.

Card Party Friday Night

A special program last Friday night in observance of May Day was sponsored by the child care and training committee. Mrs. Ruth Kidd, chairman, introduced Mrs. Ethel Volmer, national chairman, who spoke on the work of "Mooseheart," a model city where children of deceased members of the Moose lodge are cared for and trained from infancy to maturity to become useful citizens. She also emphasized importance of toy loan libraries as local aids in training children to respect rights of others, and establishment of day nurseries for the benefit of mothers who are employed.

Child care and training recommendations from the national department call for local committees to acquaint themselves with federal, state, county and community agencies organized in the interest of child health and protection.

At this meeting the chapter initiated two new members, Mrs. Carrie Nelson and Mrs. Lorene Hynic.

Members are asked to remember the card party to be given tomorrow night, May 12, Ruth Kidd in charge, and the regular meeting May 19 when nominations for new officers will be made and three birthdays will be honored. Zoe Dethiers, ritualistic chairman, asks members of the escort team to arrive early tomorrow night for a rehearsal.

SUB-DEBS HOLD BEACH PARTY

All but one member of the Sub-Debs, organization of high school girls, participated in the beach party at Hermosa last Saturday. Those enjoying surf and sand were Peggy Neff, Marcia Rous, Elaine Foster, Edna Lukes, Irene Findley, Connie Fernicy, Betty Follis and Mrs. Margaret Allen, sponsor of the group.

ANN GALLIMORE HAS A CIRCUS

It was a circus party and everybody had a "circus" too at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Gallimore, 22314 Normandie avenue, when their daughter Ann celebrated her eighth birthday last Saturday afternoon. Favors and decorations were all in the circus theme. There were gay animal painted balloons, suckers, caps and snappers; but the best of all were the clowns, the elephants, monkeys, tigers, and other inhabitants of the "big top" which were drawn from the birthday cake by the excited guests. Even Ann's big hobby horse joined in the spirit of the day and took child after child on a gay ride around the imaginary circus tent.

After delightful refreshments were served, games were played. Betty Miller won the prize at musical chairs; Rose Marie Rossi drew the best clown; and Donna Morgan was adjudged the best guesser. Other guests included: Marilyn Warnick, Marlene Quaggin, Patsy Jessome, Patricia Findley, Joan Thienhous, Patsy McCall, Yvonne Thomas, Margy Dunham, Barbara Gilliam, Nahay Ann Whyte, Marilyn and Janis Haarer.

It's Never Smart To Be Inconsiderate

The 1939 bride may be ever so sophisticated, but if she's really smart, she'll be considerate, says Virginia Courtenay in her new Brides' Book. It is being inconsiderate when a bride lets friends find out belatedly, second-hand, about something they should have had prompt and official information about.

Whether the wedding is large or small, Miss Courtenay suggests Art Point Marriage Announcements; the 1939 models are shown in the new portfolio at this office.

What a 1939 Bride Should Know...

• Virginia Courtenay writes interestingly in her new 1939 Brides' Book with much first-hand information for the young lady who said "Yes"... and is soon to add "I do."

• She tells about marriage forms and social customs... which are not generally known and whose non-observance may prove embarrassing.

• Prospective brides are invited to drop in and accept a gift copy of Miss Courtenay's Brides' Book.
