

Legion Auxiliary's Annual Fidac Program is Highlighted by Talk on Roumania

Piano Students Present Recital Before Crowd

Three hundred attended First Methodist church Sunday evening, when Kathryn Buffington presented junior and senior piano students in their summer program, Walter Hanson, tenor soloist assisting.

White flowers, palms and soft lights made an attractive setting for the two pianos, where students were presented in solos and duo piano numbers. Mrs. Buffington has stressed two piano work in her studio, believing it affords excellent training for developing musicianship and freedom at the key board.

Walter Hanson was received with enthusiasm, when he sang three numbers "When I Have Sung My Songs" by Charles; "The Night Was Made For Love" from the "Cat and the Hat" and "None But the Lonely Heart" by Tchaikowski. For an encore he sang Stephen Foster's "Beautiful Dreamer." At the close of the program Mr. Hanson's singing of "The Lord's Prayer" by Malotte in the dimly lighted church was a benediction.

Beauty of tone and interpretation of musicianship displayed by all students and their unusual stage presence won high praise for their instructor.

Students heard were Jessie Lou Quigley, Margaret Ann Vonderahe, Dolores Ulbricht, Jack McQuaid, Marjorie King, Doris Armitage, Billy Morgan, Betty Ruth Morgan, Marie Louise Acord, Norma Jean Harrell, Doris Robinett, Barbara Carstens and Barbara Woodcock of this city and Barbara Pearson of Long Beach.

DEMOCRATIC WOMEN ORGANIZE CLUB

A Reporter's Club of Torrance, recently formed, met at the home of Mrs. Pauline Phillips on Carson Street, and elected officers for the year.

Mrs. W. W. Smith of Keystone, was elected chairman; Mrs. Margaret O'Toole, secretary; and Mrs. Adeline Smith, treasurer. Mrs. Smith will instruct the group in parliamentary procedure.

Mrs. Margaret O'Toole gave a particularly good talk on the subject "Slum Clearance."

Next meeting of the club will be held at 1006 Sartori Avenue, Tuesday, June 18 at 7:30 p.m. when Mrs. Florence Griffith vice president of the California Democratic Central Committee will be the speaker.

LOUIS KELSEY HOST AT PARTY IN PARK

Saturday was July 4th for a group of Torrance youngsters or so says Louis Kelsey who was host at a patriotic party in the Torrance City Park Saturday afternoon.

Red, white and blue featured the decorative scheme, the birthday cake was in the national colors, and fireworks were displayed. The occasion was Louis's 10th birthday. A wiener bake with all picnic eatables topped the afternoon in gala manner.

BETTY WRIGHT WILL MARRY FRIDAY

Miss Betty Wright, daughter of M. A. Wright, 1951 Carson street, will be married to Jack Barling of Boston, at a ceremony to be performed in the home of her sister, Mrs. Bernard T. Madden of Huntington Park, Friday.

Miss Wright graduated from Torrance high school with the winter class of '39 and since then has resided with her sister in Huntington Park.

Mr. Barling receives his honorable discharge from the United States army at March field this week. The couple will leave for Boston, Massachusetts, Saturday, where they plan to make their future home.

Mrs. Nell Smith Speaks and Exhibits Native Craft Work

Bert S. Crossland Unit 170, American Legion Auxiliary, held its annual Fidac or Friendly relations program in the American Legion hall Tuesday evening. Ethel Sears served as chairman. The meaning of Fidac was explained by Lucille Lewellen, past president of 19th District Legion Auxiliary.

Each year in this program a different country furnishes subject matter. The topic for Tuesday evening was Roumania and the Auxiliary was fortunate to have as speaker, Mrs. Nell Smith who, with her family, resided in Roumania for a period of two years.

Members with their guests and the newly organized "Spinsters Club" were taken on an imaginary tour of Roumania, learned the customs, religion and mode of living among the peasantry in a manner such as only one who lived among the inhabitants can give.

Needlework, woodwork, pottery and wearing apparel gathered by the Smiths, while in Roumania were displayed and those present were permitted to ask questions. Coffee and dainty cakes were served at the close of the program to 75.

MRS. MITCHELL HOSTESS AT BABY SHOWER

A decorative scheme of pink and blue was used by Mrs. Herman Mitchell, 1104 Amalopolu avenue, Saturday, when she entertained at a dessert shower honoring Mrs. Vivian Cushing and her son Gary Michael aged seven weeks.

Corsages of pink and blue blossoms were attached to place cards for Mmes. Vivian Cushing, Norma McKnight, and Inga Holding of Alhambra, Robert Moffett and Mame Parker, of South Gate, Mmes. Maxine Smith, Emily Scheith, Ruth Sherret and Doris Jungers of Los Angeles, Mrs. Gordon Heinrich and daughter, Gretchen of North Hollywood.

After admiring the young son and presenting baby gifts to the proud mother, pictures were taken and Chinese checkers furnished diversion. Prize winners were Mmes. Maxine Smith and Bob Moffett.

MRS. WILKES ENTERTAINS CHAIRMEN AT DINNER

Officers and chairmen of Bert S. Crossland Unit 170 American Legion Auxiliary were entertained at dinner in the home of their president, Mrs. J. R. Wilkes, 2463 Carson street, Friday evening.

Covers were placed for Ella Robinson, Bess Myers, Eloda Barkdull, Ethel Sears, Daisy Watson, Olivia Lee, Hallie Doan, Lucille Lewellen, Janet Woodington, Caroline Collins, Selma Goddard, Roxie Sleeth, Cecelia Young, Gertrude Ralston and Fan Wilkes.

Following the dinner yearly reports were filed and contract bridge and Michigan furnished diversion. Prizes were awarded Eloda Barkdull and Bess Myers in bridge and Caroline Collins in Michigan.

A Honey!

Summer Fashion Review Presented Wednesday

An around the clock fashion review presented by the Sam Levy store in the Guild hall of St. Andrew's Episcopal church yesterday was enjoyed by 60 ladies.

Diminutive Beverly Jean Hopkins in doll costume showed placards that announced each model, the costume and time of day it should be worn.

Garments were modeled in professional manner by Mrs. Ethel Sears, Mrs. Dulcie Brooks and Miss Jeannette Mikelson. Hairdresses for Mrs. Brooks and Miss Mikelson were by Grand Beauty Shop and Mrs. Sears' hairdo was the work of Jean of Jean's Specialty Shop.

The hall was beautifully decorated in pink and white gladiolus placed in white pottery bowls, in the front and rear of the runway, where styles were shown.

Dainty dessert was served after which contract bridge kept the group entertained. Prizes were captured by Mrs. Nell Smith, Mrs. Ruth Rippey, Mrs. Mary Shaw, Mrs. Frances Young, Miss Jeanne Sears.

Committee in charge of the lovely affair were Mmes. Verora Murphy, Irene Hopkins and Mildred Harder.

CONSUMER EDUCATION CLASS DURING SUMMER

A potluck luncheon after which a question box was opened made a party at City Park, Friday, a social and educational affair for ladies of Fern Avenue P.T.A. who closed their series of consumer education classes recently. This group voted to start a second course and complete it during the summer.

Nine of the ladies were awarded certificates of recognition for creditable work accomplished. Mrs. L. A. Stump of Lomita, is the instructor.

The Herald—3 months, 50 cents.

SURPRISE EDNA STONE AT LONG BEACH HOME

Mrs. Edna Stone was pleasantly surprised when local ladies gathered at the Stone home 227 Cherry Avenue, Long Beach, Monday evening.

Bridge furnished diversion after which a tasty lunch was served and many lovely gifts presented to the honored one.

In the party were Mmes. Sylvia Shultz, Laura M. Buchman, Hazel Fossum, Hermine Oetken, Helen Miller, Janet Woodington, Della Dye, Harriet Bingham, Mary Krekow, Jennie Moore, Cleora Stanger, Bertha Wallace, Clemma Watson, Mary E. Shields, Margaret Massie, Alda Hudson, Loretta Miller, Anna Shriver and Wilda McKenna.

SPINSTERS MEETING TUESDAY EVENING

"The Spinsters" held their meeting Tuesday evening at the home of Miss Jane Roberts 2326 El Dorado.

Plans for a tea to which the girls plan to invite their parents and friends will be held in the garden at the home of Miss Jean Smith 2004 Carson Street, Sunday, July 9.

Club adjourned early permitting the group to be guests at the meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Betty Jane Zuver Becomes Bride of Stanley Sach

Tall tapers cast a soft glow over the fern and flower banked altar of St. Andrew's Episcopal church last Sunday afternoon when Miss Betty Jane Zuver, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Zuver of Fullerton, became the bride of Herbert Stanley Sach, son of Mr. and Mrs. Rex Sach of 1016 Cota avenue. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Thomas R. Marshall in the presence of 200 guests.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, N. T. Zuver, was radiantly lovely in all white bridal gown with fitted basque of silk lace and full tulle skirt, which extended into a train. Her gown boasted the new sweetheart neckline and leg-o-mutton sleeves. She carried a bouquet of gardenias, bouvardia and orchids. A wreath of orange blossoms secured her finger-tips.

A full skirted gown of blue taffeta was worn by Miss Ruth Zuver, sister of the bride, who served as maid of honor. She carried an arm bouquet of Talisman roses.

Pastel Color Motif

Bridesmaids, Miss Aleda Franklin of Fullerton, Miss Lucille Noel of Los Angeles, and Miss Lethe Keller of Redondo Beach, were gowned in frocks of pink, blue and peach and carried colonial bouquets of pastel sweetpeas. DeDe Lou and Barbara Lisoni, the diminutive flower girls were in pink and wore wreaths of Cecil Bruner roses encircling their heads.

Ralph Sach served as best man for his brother. Ushers were Ivan Eckersley, Delane Crook and Irving Crother of Long Beach. Mrs. Baker Smith played the wedding march and accompanied Robert Sleeth, Jr., who sang two numbers, Cadman's "At Dawning" and "O Promise Me."

The bride's mother wore an ensemble of dusty rose with navy accessories and corsage of gardenias. Royal blue was worn by the groom's mother with accessories in darker shade. Her corsage was also of gardenias.

To Make Home Here The ceremony was followed by a reception in the guild hall of the church. Afterwards the couple left for a honeymoon at Sequoia National Park. On their return they will reside in this city.

Mrs. Sach is a graduate of Fullerton high school and Junior college. For the past two years she has resided with her grandmother at 1011 Portola avenue.

The groom attended the local schools, graduating from Torrance high school with the summer class of 1932. For the

Free Brides' Booklet To All Brides-To-Be

There is a gift copy of Virginia Courtenay's Bride Book for each newly-wed or soon-to-be.

She tells about many forms and social questions which are not generally known and whose non-observance may prove embarrassing; it's worth consulting. Drop in at this office and get your copy—it's entirely free.

With apologies to Mr. Fuller . . . We do mean You!

★ Virginia Courtenay says the birds and the bees can't be relied upon to whisper the fact that you're really, truly married. It's the bride's duty to do it, if she wishes to avoid unnecessary offense to friends and relatives who should know. ★ Honey-mooning brides save time and worry by sending clever inexpensive Art Point Announcements; they cost little, mean much.

A gift copy of the famous little Bride's book, with its intimate chat-chat on important subjects, is here for every prospective bride or newly-wed.
