TRIO LEAVE FOR EXTENDED JOURNEY

Mr. and Mrs. James Hitchcock, of the C.C.M.O., Mrs. Harvel Guttenfelder, 1415 Amalpa, and Mrs. R. R. Smith, 2004 Carson street, will leave tomorrow noon for an extended trip through the east. They will go by rail to Detroit, take delivery of a new car, and motor into Canada, New York, Niagara Falls and through the New England states. Before returning home the Hitchcocks will visit relatives in Pittsborough, while Mrs. Guttenfelder and Mrs. Smith visit in Philadelphia. All will then motor to Washington, D. C., and return by way of Florida. They plan to be away at least a month.

BEVER'S ENTERTAIN BREAKFAST CLUB

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Bever were hosts to the monthly Sunday morning breakfast club at their home, 1512 Acacia, last Sunday morning. The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Shriner, Mr. and Mrs. R. T. Lewis and son Harry, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Miller, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fess, the hosts, and their daughter, Joyce.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS MEET TUESDAY

Job's Daughters, Torrance Bethel, will meet Tuesday evening, Oct. 17, at 7:30 at the Masonic temple for initiation and inspection.

Glendale Church Scene of Shaw-Hall Nuptials

Before an altar beautifully but simply decorated with large baskets of white chrysanthemums, and pink gladioli, with a background of palms, ferns and white candelabra, Barbara Jane Hall daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville E. Hall of 2107 Gramercy avenue, and Max Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Shaw of 1504 Cedar avenue, were married Saturday evening at the Wee Kirk of the Heather, Glendale.

Rev. R. A. Young, former Torrance pastor, officiated in the presence of 100 guests.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a King's blue velvet dress made with bustle effect. She wore matching accessories and carried a handkerchief, made by an aunt, Mrs. Charles Groves of Jonesburgh, Indiana, 35 years ago. The aunt, a sister of the bride's mother, carried the same handkerchief on her wedding day.

Will Reside Here
Miss Hall's corsage was white gardenias and lilies of the valley. Miss Harriet Kingry, of Los Angeles, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Her dress was vintage with matching accessories and she carried a nosegay of rose buds in the soft shades of pink.

Allan Sherry, of Costa Mesa, served the bridegroom as best man and the ushers were Jay Kingry and Noel Bradley. Soft organ music was played during the services and a reception was held in the patio by the wishing well.

The bride graduated from the Torrance high school with the winter class of 1939. Shaw graduated from Durand (Wis.) high school and later attended the Radio Institute in Los Angeles. He is in charge of the radio service department of the Firestone Service store here. Following a short honeymoon the couple will reside in Torrance.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

The engagement of Miss Ailla Hansen of this city to Clarence Chambers of Gardena was announced this week by the bride-to-be's mother, Mrs. Clarissa Hansen. Chambers is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Chambers and the grandson of C. L. Clossen of Gardena. He is employed by an oil company and is active in fraternal circles. Miss Hansen, a graduate of George Washington high school, is an active member of the local Foursquare Gospel church.

BENEFIT DANCE PLANNED BY SPINSTERS

A benefit dance to be held at Rolling Hills Community House on Saturday, November 25, was the principal topic of discussion at meeting of The Spinsters, held Monday evening at the home of Mary Peckham, Post avenue. Proceeds of the dance will be given to the Torrance Relief Society. Next meeting of the Spinsters will be held October 23 at the home of Helen Smith, with Betty Jane Rous as co-hostess.

Home is Setting for Chadwick-Falk Rites

In the presence of about 20 relatives and friends, Miss Ilene Falk, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. Falk of 20700 North Royal boulevard, became the bride of Kenneth Chadwick of 20610 North Royal boulevard, last Saturday evening.

The wedding was held at the Hamerton Tract home of the bride's parents and Rev. Ernest Bias officiated.

Miss Falk, who was unattended, and her bridegroom were attired in blue. She carried pink roses, white carnations and orchids. The home was beautifully decorated in fall flowers.

Honored at Showers

Following the wedding a luncheon was served to the guests after which Mr. and Mrs. Falk departed for their new home at 1917 Cabrillo avenue. Mrs. Falk has been employed at the Salm Manufacturing company here for the past six years. Her husband is a Columbia Steel employee.

The bride was honored at several pre-nuptial affairs, including a variety shower and a surprise bridal shower. The latter function was held at the home of Mrs. W. Smith on Abalone street.

SPINSTERS INAUGURATE SERIES OF PARTIES

Fall flowers ranging in hue from light yellow to deep orange filled the rooms at the home of the Richard R. Smiths 2004 Carson when three members of the Spinsters entertained at a dessert bridge Wednesday afternoon. Misses Mary Peckham, Dorothy McMillan and Jean Smith were the hostesses. The Spinsters are planning a series of parties during the fall and winter months with different girls in charge. Among the guests yesterday were, Meses. James Hitchcock, Harold Appenzeller, Clifford Tilleson, Margaret Mills, Mina Shidler, John McMillan, George Peckham, Wallace Post, Grover Whyte, W. H. Stanger, Charles Schultz, Richard R. Smith and Sam Levy. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Shidler and Tilleson.

Young Matrons Organize New Group Here

The "Penny Anns" have embarked on a schedule of social meetings and special affairs which promise to hold the interest of a number of the young married set in this area. The club was organized last month at Doris Watson's home 1225 1/2 Cota avenue. Those present were:

Maxine Willets and Mickey Twyman of Redondo Beach, Mae Coldwell of Los Angeles, Martha Coburn, Mildred Tidland and the hostess of this city, George Tappin and Marguerite McLean are other members but they were unable to attend the organization session.

At the second meeting, Oct. 4, at the home of Mrs. Twyman in Redondo Beach, Mrs. Watson was elected president and reporter. Rules and regulations for the group were established and afterwards the "Penny Anns" played cards and enjoyed refreshments. High score was won by Mrs. Twyman at the first meeting and Mrs. Tappin won at the second.

GOOD ATTENDANCE AT NURSING CLASS

Mrs. C. T. Schiebler, health and parent education chairman for Torrance Elementary P. T. A., announces that 18 were present last Tuesday at the home nursing class, held in Room 6 at the elementary school. Miss Humphries, the instructor, says enrollments may still be added and there is plenty of time to earn the certificate given to all who complete the work. Sessions are held each Tuesday from 9 to 11:30 a. m.

W.C.T.U. TO MEET AT CHURCH TOMORROW

The W.C.T.U., will meet tomorrow (Friday) at 1:30 p. m. at Central Evangelical church, corner Marcellina and Arlington. Mrs. Wheeler, a returned missionary from Africa, will be the speaker and Mrs. Murray of Walteria will give a report of the convention held at Wilmington. The public is invited.

Dist. P.T.A. Aids T.H.S. Students

Mrs. Charles E. Woodcock, president of the high school P.T.A., learned this week that the 10th district P.T.A. spent $150 last year out of the Community Chest fund on student welfare projects at the local high school. The total expenditure by the 10th district for this purpose—purchase of clothing, luncheons, milk and supplies—was $252 last year, Mrs. Woodcock said.
