

Women of Moose Decide on Twice Monthly Sessions

Members of the Homemaking Committee of the Women of the Moose met Friday at the home of Mrs. Bertha Stevenson, 1026 Arlington, for luncheon followed by an all-day sewing and planning session presided over by Mrs. Irene Vincent, chairman.

Special business of the day centered around new dates for the committee meetings, and after discussion, it was decided that the group gather every two weeks henceforth, with the next session scheduled for 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, Dec. 5, at the Moose Hall.

At the meeting, Senior Regent Katherine Gossiaux stressed the importance of a good attendance at the first December gathering so that plans for the organization's card party, Friday night, Dec. 15, in Moose Hall, be completed.

CHURCH PLANNING CHRISTMAS FETE

Arrangements for the gala Christmas party and entertainment program which members of the Bible classes of the First Christian church are planning for 7:30 o'clock Friday night, Dec. 8, in the church parlors, are rapidly nearing completion, according to Rev. Frank T. Porter, pastor.

The program will be highlighted by a special paradoxical reading by Mrs. Porter, "Barbara Frigate" based on the life of Barbara Fritchie, and special musical numbers by Mr. and Mrs. Harris, former residents of Torrance. The public is invited to attend.

The event will feature bridge, bunco, 500 and pinochle, several prizes will be awarded high tally holders, according to Mrs. Auguste Barnett, publicity chairman. Proceeds from the event will be used to fill Christmas baskets for several needy Torrance families. The public is invited to attend.

BAZAAR ENLIVENED BY VARIETY PROGRAM

An interesting program of songs, dances and instrumental numbers was a feature of the annual bazaar of the Latter Day Saints Relief Society, Torrance Woman's clubhouse. The program was presented by students of the Torrance Conservatory of Music, managed by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Evans with Miss Virginia Crandell as dance instructor.

Those participating in the program were: Thelma Hauk, guitar solo; Janet Lewellen, dance, with chorus consisting of Helen Stitt, Shirley Cox, Patty Jo Moore, Beverly Wernett and Shirley Carr; Frances Perry, dance; Carol Jacobs, song and dance; David Jacobs, violin solo and songs; Bob Crandell, song; Dawn Perry Virginia Filppen, Dallas Martin, Connie and Dorothy Carter, Freddie Bartlett and Billie Wernett, dancers. William Day served as master of ceremonies, assisted by Bob Crandell.
