'Night In Hawaii' Dance Program Set for May 18

That intriguing isle of romance, music, leis and hula maids will be re-created Saturday evening, May 18, when the Torrance Woman's club stages "A Night In Hawaii" dance and entertainment in their recently renovated clubhouse on Engracia avenue.

The two co-chairmen in charge of arrangements, Mrs. Fred Quaggin and Mrs. H. C. Barrington, are making elaborate preparations to decorate the clubhouse in typical Hawaiian fashion and present some novel entertainment. Fred Graff's orchestra will furnish the music for the dance.

In addition to several specialty numbers, a Hawaiian canteen will be opened and various booths will be in operation. It is planned to hold drawings for cash prizes and all proceeds will be devoted to paying off the remaining debt incurred by the renovation of the clubhouse.

MRS. MASON IS FETED AT SURPRISE PARTIES

Mrs. Sur Mason was delightfully surprised when friends entertained for her recently at the home of Mrs. Janet Woodington on the occasion of her birthday. A beautiful potted plant was presented to Mrs. Mason and refreshments of birthday cake and coffee were served at a late hour.

Those invited were Mrs. Patterson of San Pedro, Mrs. J. O. Moore, Mrs. Cleora Stanger, Mrs. Helene Miller, Mrs. Jean Guyan, Mrs. George Watson, Mrs. A. Denney, Mrs. Irma Trezise, Mrs. Edythe Woodington, Mrs. Janet Woodington and the honoree. Another delightful evening was enjoyed when Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wakely and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Rigg arrived at the family home, 2029 Arlington, to celebrate Mrs. Mason's birthday last week and presented her with several personal gifts.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY NOTES

Members of the Baptist Missionary Society will meet at the church for their regular meeting Thursday, May 16, at 10 o'clock. Mrs. Lorna Fish, newly-elected president, will conduct the meeting. A birthday luncheon will be featured at noon with birthday cakes and tables representing the seasons. Each member will be seated according to her birth month. Following the luncheon White Cross work will be conducted by the chairman, Mrs. O. R. Hill.

MRS. MELZ FETED AT SHOWER PARTY

Mrs. John Weigand and Mrs. E. Moore as co-hostesses entertained at the Weigand home on 220th street at a delightfully appointed stork shower Friday evening, honoring Mrs. E. L. Melz. A pink and blue color arrangement was carried out in accessories and Cecile Brunner roses and snaps were used at the tables. Individual cakes accenting a stork motif were served.

Those present were the honoree and Mesdames Lena Wells, Kay Carter, Tom Melz, Edward Hunter and Agnes Russell, all of Lomita; Charles Fisher, William Vogwell, Ann McGuire, Emily Pryor, William Chivell, Jr., and William Chivell, Sr., all of Compton; Geraldine Hawkes of Harbor City; Burt Bradford, Eva Norcross, Cecile Perkin, Viola Perkin, Buena Melz, Arthur Willoby and Janice Melz, of this city.

GATEWAY COUNCIL AT NARBONNE HIGH

Narbonne high school was hostess to Gateway council, P.T.A., at the meeting held Monday, May 6. Plans were discussed for the state convention to be held in Los Angeles May 21 to 23, inclusive. Torrance High P. T. A. was represented by Mesdames Woodcock, Bishop, Jolley and Rous.

MOTHERSINGERS ARE HONOR GUESTS

Torrance Elementary and Torrance High School P. T. A. Mothersingers were heard at the meeting of Torrance chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, on Thursday evening, May 2. The group also sang at First Christian church Sunday evening, May 5. Following church services the ladies were entertained at the home of Mrs. E. C. Rowell on Carson street where refreshments were served. Recognition of the birthdays of three members, Mesdames Ulrich, Edwards and Babcock, was made at this time.

Business Women Elect Officers For New Term

Mrs. Julia McManus, 1388 Engracia avenue, will lead the National Business and Professional Women as president for the coming year. Mrs. McManus and other officers were elected at a business meeting Monday night at the home of the outgoing president, Mrs. Lola Hoover.

Those who will serve with Mrs. McManus are Mrs. Edna Smith, vice president; Miss Dorothy Jensen, recording secretary; Mrs. Maud McNeil, corresponding secretary; Miss Marge Huber, treasurer, and Mrs. Arvilla Owen, auditor. Delegates to the state convention at Sacramento May 24-26 are Mrs. McManus and Mrs. Smith, with Mrs. Bettina Miller and Mrs. Owen as alternates.

The business meeting followed a bounteous potluck supper served in the patio at the Hoover home to the 21 members present. On Tuesday night, May 14, a number of the group will attend the installation of officers of the Bay Section, to be held at Bell, when Mrs. Hoover will be inducted into office as president of that group.

Installation of the local officers will be held May 20 at the California Yacht club in Wilmington, with Miss Meitzie Wilmer, state membership chairman, as installing officer.

MRS. RILEY ENTERTAINS ART-CRAFT CLUB

Mrs. Blanche Riley was hostess when she entertained members of the Art-Craft club at her home Friday evening. Garden flowers, gracefully arranged, added a festive note for the occasion. Following a business session conducted by Mrs. E. E. Banks, president, a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

MRS. FESS FETED AT EVENING PARTY

Mrs. J. H. Fess was delightfully surprised when friends entertained for her at an evening party Saturday. Personal gifts were presented and games furnished entertainment for the evening. Refreshments were served at a late hour. Included were Messrs. and Mesdames J. H. Fess, L. C. Miller, Frank Kerkov, S. Shriver, H. A. Lewis, A. H. Stogemyer and Mesdames Anna McFarland, May Reese and Estelle Graham. Prizes for games were received by Mr. and Mrs. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Lewis.

MATRON IS HONORED AT BABY SHOWER

Mrs. E. L. Melz was the guest of honor at a shower given for her recently when Mrs. T. H. Perkin and Mrs. Frank Perkin entertained on Anapola avenue.

A stork motif was used at the serving tables and pink rosebuds, sweet peas and stock added a festive note for the occasion. Guessing games pertaining to the shower furnished entertainment. Mrs. Maxine Fetherolf and Mrs. William Diamond were prize winners.

Those present in addition to the honoree and the hostesses were Mesdames Lillian Sleep, Frank Davis, Effie Leggett, William Diamond, Stephen Ball, William Chivell, Sr., and William Chivell, Jr., Compton; Maxine Fetherolf, Severn, Gardena; H. Perkin, Vera Parry, Mable Weigand and Miss May Sleep.

P. E. AUXILIARY PLANS FROLIC

Fifteen members of P. E. Auxiliary were entertained at the home of Mrs. M. J. Edwards, 2208 Andrea avenue, Friday evening. Plans were made for the picnic to be held at the city park Wednesday, May 29, when the Torrance group will be hostesses to the Los Angeles P. E. Club. Mrs. May Howe and her committee will have charge of arrangements.

Following the business session a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served.

MRS. BEEMAN ENTERTAINS CONTRACT BRIDGE CLUB

Members of Mrs. J. W. Beeman's bridge club enjoyed a delightful Friday evening party when she entertained at her home, 1617 Coia avenue. Turquoise and yellow were accenting in the color arrangement used for the candlelight dining table and sweet peas enhanced the setting. Covers were placed for Mesdames George H. Moore, Edward Rhone, Max Feller, Fred Quaggin, T. R. Marshall, Fred Harder, Robert Lessing, Merle Hinchaw, and the hostesses, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Lessing, were high score holders.
