

BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY NOTES

The regular meeting of the Baptist Missionary Society will be held Thursday, June 20, at 10 a. m. "A Service of Light" has been chosen as the theme of the program.

Devotionals will be led by Mrs. Allan Muir and will be followed by a talk on "Missionary Lights From Bethlehem" by Mrs. H. G. Mitts. Mrs. Peterson will be presented in a story and Mrs. E. E. Dalby will speak on "Religion Still Lives In Russia." Mr. A. W. Daniels and Mrs. Hammond will complete the program with a duet. Everyone is cordially invited.

NEWS OF WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

Mrs. Anna Wilken and her Mooseheart committee will have charge of a luncheon and card party to be held Tuesday, June 18, at 12 o'clock noon and also a food sale scheduled for Friday, June 29.

The ladies will also entertain at a party at Moose Hall tomorrow evening for which they will charge 10 cents admission.

MRS. SHAW IS CLUB HOSTESS

Mrs. John B. Shaw was hostess when she entertained her bridge club at luncheon Friday at her home, 1422 Anapola avenue. Pansies and delphinium were used for the tables at which covers were marked for Mesdames M. J. Beale, Boyd Thompson, H. M. Haynes, S. F. Ludlow, C. B. Mitchell, Ralph Hatton, George Morgan, John Hooper and the hostess. Mrs. Hooper was awarded a prize for high score at bridge and Mrs. Haynes received consolation.

BURCHETTS ARE DINNER HOSTS

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Burchett entertained at dinner Wednesday night at their home, 1411 Anapola avenue, in honor of Mr. Francis Waddingham, science teacher at Torrance high school who leaves Saturday for Riverside where he will be stationed with the National Reserves.

Yellow roses and delphinium formed an attractive centerpiece for the dining table at which places were marked for Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Elson, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Waddingham and Mr. and Mrs. Burchett.

Retiring Elementary P.T.A. Board Has Luncheon Party

Mrs. A. H. Silligo, retiring president of Torrance Woman's club, was honored with a luncheon Tuesday given at Palos Verdes Country club by members of her executive board, committee chairman and past presidents of the club.

An attractive arrangement of carnations, sweet peas and larkspur formed the centerpiece for the luncheon table where places were marked for 25.

Bridge furnished diversion for the guests after luncheon with Mrs. John Hooper receiving a prize for high score and Mrs. O. W. Hudson receiving the consolation award. A beautiful bouquet of flowers and a personal gift were presented Mrs. Silligo by the group as tokens of their respect and esteem.

DINNER BRIDGE IS ENJOYED

Mrs. Julia Cucci was hostess when she entertained her bridge club at dinner Friday evening. A pansy ring was used for the table at which covers were placed for Mesdames Eloda Barkdull, Evelyn Fernley, Maxine Smith, Bessie Myers, Grace Harvey, Lillian Snow, Juanita Thompson, Alma Smith and the hostess. Awards for high score at bridge were received by Mesdames Bessie Myers and Alma Smith.

ART-CRAFT CLUB DINNER PARTY

Eighteen members of the Art-Craft club enjoyed a dinner party at a Los Angeles cafe Friday evening, honoring the birthday anniversaries of Miss Virginia Bell and Mesdames G. A. Kealey and J. L. Murray. Request numbers by the orchestra were played for the club members.

LUTHERAN LADIES' TEA, BAKE SALE

Members of Lutheran Ladies' Aid will hold a silver tea and bake sale at Lutheran parish hall Thursday, June 20, from 12 to 5 p. m.

Mrs. C. A. Benzel as chairman of the committee will be assisted by Mesdames C. Becker, B. F. Hannobrink, Jr., and E. J. Hosking. The public is invited.

Church Rites Unite Rampley-Albertson

In a pretty ceremony, solemnized Sunday afternoon at the First Christian church with Rev. F. C. Porter officiating, Mrs. Mae Albertson became the bride of Hubert Rampley of this city.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Frank Tucker, of Los Angeles. She chose as her wedding gown a model in powder blue net over taffeta and carried a shower bouquet of talsman roses.

Her matron-of-honor was her sister-in-law, Mrs. Frank Tucker, of Los Angeles. She wore a pastel formal and carried an arm bouquet of hybrid delphinium. Her attendants were Mrs. Frances Robertson in pink organdie and Mrs. Eileen Nolan wearing wine crepe, both carrying old fashioned nosegays.

Her two small daughters, Shirley and Beverly, in pastel taffeta frocks, served as flower girls. Cecil Nelson of Hawthorne was the bridegroom's best man.

Following the church ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Rampley left for a three weeks' honeymoon at the home of the groom's parents in Texas and upon their return they will make their home at 1521 Date street.

EASTERN GUESTS AT FESS HOME

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fess entertained with a five-course dinner at their home on Arlington avenue Sunday afternoon. At the dining table centered with an arrangement of pansies and gladioli covers were placed for the Misses Louise and Mathilda Keifer of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. E. Reichold, Kenneth Fess and the hosts.

The Misses Keifer, cousins of Mr. Fess, are on a three months' tour and have been guests at the Biltmore hotel while in Los Angeles. They left Monday for San Francisco on their return trip to Detroit.

W. B. A. PARTY TUESDAY EVENING

Members of W. B. A. will entertain at a bingo party at McDonald hall, Tuesday evening, June 18. Tickets may be secured at the door. The public is cordially invited.

McElderry-Burger are Wed Tuesday Evening

In a beautifully simple ceremony Tuesday evening, Miss Alice Burger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Burger of 1104 Cedar avenue, became the bride of Hubert McElderry, son of Dr. and Mrs. Chester McElderry, of Pasadena.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Wendell Miller of University Methodist church in the presence of the immediate families of the principals.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. McElderry left for a honeymoon trip to Sequoia National park. Upon their return they will take up residence in Los Angeles where they will attend U. S. C. summer session. Both are working for degrees.

The bride is a graduate of Torrance high, class of 1934, and graduated from U. S. C. in 1938. She won her master's degree in 1939 and is affiliated with Phi Kappa Phi and Phi Beta Kappa, national educational societies.

The groom is a U. S. C. graduate 1939, and is attached to the staff of Doherty Memorial library on the university campus.

MRS. QUAGGIN IS LUNCHEON HOSTESS

As a courtesy to her committee which worked for St. Cecilia's Guild when the group sponsored the Palos Verdes Symphony concert, Mrs. Fred Quaggin entertained recently at luncheon at her home on Anapola avenue. A centerpiece of corsages of gardenias was used, the corsages being presented later to the guests who also received diminutive lappel crosses as favors.

The committee presented the hostess with a gift of American Beauty roses in an attractive container and Mrs. Dean L. Sears, guild president, also presented Mrs. Quaggin with a gift. Covers were placed for Mesdames J. W. Post, N. H. Cucci, Dean L. Sears, J. R. Wilkes, J. J. Deiminger, C. Boyd Thompson, J. E. Miller, Rev. and Mrs. T. R. Marshall and the hostess.

Contract bridge furnished diversion for the afternoon, with Mrs. Cucci and Mrs. Sears winning first and second prizes.

NOTES OF WOMEN'S COUNCIL M. E. CHURCH

A cooked food and pastry sale will be held Saturday, June 15, at 10 a. m. at the entrance of Levy's department store by the Woman's Council of the Methodist church, according to plans made at their Tuesday meeting. Preceding the session a dessert luncheon for 50 members was served by Circle No. 2 in the church parlors which were beautifully decorated with a profusion of spring flowers.

A splendid program was given, one of the most enjoyable numbers being the solo, "Song of the Soul," sung by Mrs. Nadine Farrar who was accompanied by Mrs. Hilda Findley. Mrs. Levi Stump, leader of consumer's education classes, was heard in an informative talk on "Textiles," illustrating her talk with examples.

10TH DISTRICT MEETING NOTES

Mrs. Edwin J. Strong was installed as president of Tenth district C.C.P. and T. at the meeting held at Belmont high school Thursday, June 6. Mrs. James K. Lytle, treasurer of National Congress Parents and Teachers was heard in an interesting talk on "Education for Civic Responsibility." Attending from Fern Avenue were Mesdames J. J. Millard, Irene Davis, John Gardner and A. C. Turner.

SURPRISE PARTY IS ENJOYED

Mrs. C. C. Bohrer was delightfully surprised when 25 members of her evening art-craft class, including groups from Hawthorne, San Pedro and Torrance, arrived at her home Wednesday and enjoyed a social evening. Fortune telling from coffee cups furnished diversion for the group and potluck refreshments were enjoyed at a late hour.

TOMMY QUAGGIN'S FIRST BIRTHDAY

The first birthday of Tommy Quaggin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Quaggin, was celebrated last Thursday evening with a dinner party at the Palos Verdes home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bromwich, the baby's godparents.

An arrangement of rosebuds and gypsophila flanked with tapers in crystal candelabra was used for the dining table. Covers were placed for Tommy and Mr. and Mrs. Quaggin and daughters, Doris Lee and Marlene, and the hosts.

Chicken dinners, "family style," in quiet, clean, exclusive party-patio. See the lady on Sepulveda whose ad appears under class 28.

High School P.T.A. Installs Officers at Dinner-Meet

More than 60 Torrance high faculty and Torrance high P. T. A. board members attended the dinner meeting and installation of officers at the school Monday evening at which Mrs. C. E. Woodcock presided and Mrs. J. P. Ziegler, as installing officer, was guest of honor.

The tables were beautifully decorated by Miss Ada Chase who used the P. T. A. oak leaf emblem in the place cards and carried out the gold and blue colors of the organization.

Mrs. J. O. Bishop gave an interesting report of state convention activities and Mrs. Woodcock read her annual report. Miss Elizabeth Parks, in the absence of Mr. Elson, spoke of the school's appreciation of P. T. A. work completed during the year. Mrs. Woodcock was presented with a beautiful piece of pottery and a past president's pin.

Officers installed by Mrs. Ziegler were Mrs. J. O. Bishop, president; Mrs. M. J. Edwards, first vice-president; Miss Elizabeth Parks, second vice-president; Mrs. T. R. Yoder, secretary; Mrs. William Jolley, corresponding secretary; Mrs. E. B. Boyle, auditor; Mrs. E. E. Banks, historian, and Mrs. C. E. Woodcock, parliamentarian.

New officers were presented with potted plants by the school. Later, at the auditorium, Mrs. Woodcock presented Mrs. J. O. Bishop, and Mrs. Marjorie Cooke and her high school choir were introduced and a program of music followed. A contribution to local chapter Red Cross was made by the parents present.
