Invite Public to Recital Saturday Night

Kathryn Buffington

Kathryn Buffington, pianist and teacher, will present a group of junior and senior students in public recital in the Methodist church next Saturday evening, June 22, at 7:30 p. m. The recital which will feature two-piano numbers, solos and duets. Walter Hanson, well-known tenor and teacher of voice, will again be guest artist, and assisting in the program in two numbers will be Richard Honrath, a young talented violinist of Torrance.

Walter Hanson

As music chairman of the Torrance Woman's Club for the past two years, Mrs. Buffington has presented local artists in recital at musical teas and appeared with Hanson in recital at the club. As accompanist for the Singing Six, programs have been given for the Eastern Star of Torrance. Parent-Teacher meetings and a musical at the Methodist church in May. Mrs. Buffington has also been active as accompanist of the Torrance evening school voice class. This summer special classes are being formed in piano, ear training and harmony at her studio, 1533 Marcelina avenue.

For the past two years Walter Hanson has been teaching in Torrance at Mrs. Buffington's studio. He is a student of Marshall Rusk of Hollywood and Paris. Hanson, known on the radio as Frederick Norman, has sung over Columbia stations and has made numerous appearances before music clubs of Los Angeles. He graduated from U. C. L. A. in 1938 and is teaching in Burbank high school and engaged in working for his master's degree. For the past three and one-half years he has been soloist with the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Torrance.

Two Collisions But No Injuries Here During Week

Two traffic collisions were reported to local police during the past week but no one was injured. Early Sunday evening Hide Nakuchi, Los Angeles, and Albert McNeely, Hawthorne, collided at 190th street and Hawthorne avenue when McNeely assertedly swerved into the Japanese's car when he saw he could not pass Nakuchi because of an approaching machine from the opposite direction.

The second collision occurred at 190th and Prairie avenue where Jack Kent of Torrance and Arthur Sigley of Gardena, were involved in a smashup. Kent, who said he made the boulevard stop on entering Prairie was struck by Sigley's machine.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Lee and children Marilyn and Janet joined a dinner party of 12 Sunday at the Rosemead home of Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Phillips, Mrs. Lee's parents.
