

NEWS OF WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

There will be no meeting Friday evening of the Women of the Moose. Initiation of new members will take place at the regular meeting Friday evening, July 5.

A tea and food sale will be held at Moose hall tomorrow from noon until 4 p. m. and games will be featured. Mrs. Anna Wilken, Mooseheart committee chairman, announces that food baked by the Women of the Moose will include pies, cakes, salads and baked beans.

CHURCH GROUP TO SUMMER CAMP

Rev. Thomas R. Marshall and seven young people of St. Andrew's Episcopal church will attend the Episcopal camp at Idyllwild from July 1 to 10.

Included in the group are Audrey Miller, Dorothy Sandstrom, Doris Wilkes, Marguerite Beech, Barbara Carstens, Rose Marie Disario and Fred Russell. Rev. Marshall will give a course on "Christian Society" to young people between the ages of 18 and 24.

Edwards-Smith Wedding Attended by 225 Guests

First Christian church provided the setting for a pretty ceremony, solemnized Saturday evening in the presence of 225 wedding guests with Rev. F. C. Porter officiating, when Miss Eleanor Helen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edwin W. Smith of 1407 Cota avenue, became the bride of Vernon Russell Edwards of Bakersfield, son of Mrs. Verna McCandles of Santa Maria.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a white net and lace model over satin and finger tip veil with halo of orange blossoms. A strand of heirloom pearls, a gift from her grandmother, and gold bracelet completed the bridal ensemble. Her flowers were gardenias, orchids and bouvardia.

Miss Virginia Smith attended her sister as maid of honor. Her gown was yellow chiffon and she carried a sheaf of hybrid delphinium in orchid shades. Miss Marcella Smith as bridesmaid wore a pink chiffon gown and her flowers were blue hybrid delphinium. Both sisters wore gold locket, gifts of the bride.

Reception at Church Hall Preceding the ceremony Mrs. Edna Babcock played the accompaniment while Mrs. Nadine Farrar and Leonard Babcock sang. Walter Cowan of Long Beach served as the bridegroom's best man and ushers were Michael Mahoney of Long Beach and Edwin Smith, Jr., brother of the bride.

Little Diane Downing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. H. Downing of 732 Border avenue, in a peach colored frock, was flower girl, and Wesley Smith, brother of the bride, as ring bearer, carried the wedding ring in an easter lily.

Following the church rites there was a reception at the social hall of the church. Mr. and Mrs. Edwards will make their home in Bakersfield. The bride is a graduate of Torrance high school class of summer '39 and of Sawyer's Business College. Since graduation she has been employed with a life insurance company at Long Beach.

JOINT BIRTHDAYS ARE CELEBRATED

The birthdays of Lloyd Russell of Los Angeles and Jack Quigley furnished the incentive for an intimate family party Saturday evening at the R. J. Rogers home, 2215 Andree avenue. Garden flowers were used in the rooms and attractively decorated cakes with appropriate greetings were cut.

Included were Messrs. and Mesdames Lloyd Russell and Earl Marquis of Los Angeles, Jack Quigley, Sam Neely, Raymond Rogers, Jr., and the hosts. A buffet supper was served at a late hour.

Their Wedding is Scheduled July 6

CECIL BISHOP, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bishop, of 2021 Carson street, will wed Miss Martha Weidlein at the Wee Kirk o' the Heather, Glendale on Saturday evening, July 6. He is a graduate of Torrance high school class of summer '34, attended law at U.S.C. where he received a B. A. in 1938.

Miss Weidlein, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Weidlein of Manhattan Beach attended Chapman College and U.S.C. She is affiliated with Beta Chi and taught two years at Wasco, California. Following a motor honeymoon trip thru southern states they will take up residence in Glendale where they will be at home after August 1.

The consumer education class sponsored by Fern Avenue P. T. A. met for the last class of the year at Torrance City park last Friday when a breakfast was served. Diplomas in consumer education were awarded to Mesdames C. W. Stevens, A. C. Turner, J. J. Millard, Irene Davis and Selma Depasse.

Certificates of completion of 12 or 24 weeks' course were given to Mesdames H. A. McDonald, A. C. Steele, George Fischer, J. J. Millard, A. C. Turner, C. W. Stevens, Irene Davis and Selma Depasse. Mrs. L. A. Stump, class director, received many beautiful handkerchiefs showered on her by members of the class.

DOINGS OF THE SPINSTERS

Miss Shirley Johnson was hostess to the Spinsters when she entertained at her Rolling Hills home Monday evening. Following the business meeting, conducted by the newly-installed president, Miss Helen Smith, the girls enjoyed refreshments.

A dinner party at the Tropics in Hollywood is scheduled for July 11 and a Red Cross benefit silver tea is being arranged for the first week in August.

Miss Jean Kresse will entertain the group at a potluck party at her home on El Prado, Monday evening, July 8.

HOUSEWARMING FOR GILBERTS

Mr. and Mrs. Merton Gilbert were delightfully surprised when friends arrived at their new home, 2607 Sonoma street, Saturday evening for a housewarming party. Many beautiful gifts were presented to the Gilberts and refreshments were served at a late hour.

Those present were Messrs. and Mesdames Roy Krieger of Lomita, Clyde Bodley, Colburn, L. J. Babcock, Stanley Gilbert, Francis Gilbert and daughter Francis, T. H. Higgins, W. H. Gilbert, Mrs. Wilburn and Ray Begue.

MRS. ROBERTS IS CLUB HOSTESS

The regular meeting of Art-Craft Club was held at the home of Mrs. Reese J. Roberts, 1739 Andree avenue, Friday evening with 14 members present. Pansies and sweet peas were used in the rooms and refreshments were served at the close of the evening's handiwork activities.

Rotary "Demotion" Party Tonight Will Have 100 Present

About 100 Rotarians, their ladies and guests will attend the annual dinner-dance of Torrance Rotary Club this evening at Lakewood Country club. Highlight of the dinner program will be the "demotion" of Harold E. Appenzeller, retiring president, who is relinquishing his gavel to George Peckham, pioneer automobile dealer, who will head the club's activities for the coming year.

Charles V Jones is chairman of the evening's program and Dr. R. A. Bingham is scheduled to give the humorous demotion talk. Others on the committee include Harvel Guttenfelder, Sam Levy, David L. Roberts, J. Hugh Shertey and Grover C. Whyte.

BRIDAL SHOWER FOR MISS DAVIS

Miss Marjorie Davis was honored Wednesday evening when Miss Etta McCulloch entertained for her at her home, 1107 1/2 Portola avenue. Pink and white sweet peas were used in the rooms and a bridal motif was carried out in cake decorations and accessories.

Miss Davis, whose marriage to Shirley Justice will take place June 29, was the recipient of many lovely miscellaneous gifts. Prizes for games were awarded to Tot Burton and Lea Minton.

Those present, in addition to the honoree, were Lea Minton, Pauline Ray, Tot Burton, Helen Joseph, Mrs. Hughes, Paula Pierce, Marie Bezich and the hostess.

Elementary P.T.A. Uses Artist Theme for Installation Rites

Torrance Elementary P. T. A. met Tuesday at the school auditorium when Mrs. H. R. Lee, president, presided. A group of songs by Mrs. Rhine's second graders was enjoyed and readings followed by sixth grade pupils, who also entered many beautiful floral arrangements under the direction of Miss Crittenden, art teacher. The 86 graduating class was heard in a group of pleasing vocal numbers under the direction of Miss Brigham.

The installation ceremony conducted by Mrs. J. Marriot was unusually beautiful, featuring the theme, "An Artist and His Palette," using flowers instead of paints. Each officer while being impressed with the duties of her office was presented with an old fashioned bouquet.

Elective officers installed at this colorful rite were Mrs. W. H. Tolson, Mrs. H. R. Lee, Leonard Dykes, Mrs. S. Venable, Mrs. R. M. Roberts, Mrs. Joy Prime, Mrs. C. T. Schiebler, Mrs. D. B. Douglas and Mrs. L. K. Delessegues.

Appointive officers were also presented with corsages. They were: Mesdames S. R. Hopkins, L. Kirshman, Grover C. Whyte, G. A. Roos, T. A. Mitchell, M. Minni, Henry Beach, Carl Pisel, H. L. Hardin, Scott Ludlow, Richard Ban, Paul Findley, Clayton Geer, L. V. Babcock, Feltham, Haydon and Miss Helen Jewell.

P. T. A. history for the past year was read by Mrs. Joy Prime in the absence of Mrs. G. A. Roos, historian. Honoring the teachers, tea was served by Mrs. S. R. Hopkins and her committee including Mesdames M. J. Edwards, C. T. Schiebler, V. C. Viellenave and T. E. Watson.

BIRTHDAY FETE FOR MRS. YOUNG

The birthday anniversary of Mrs. John Hugh Young provided the incentive for a family reunion and party Sunday when her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Locatelli, of New York, entertained for her at her home, 1965 218th street.

Those present in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Young were their granddaughters, the Misses Gertrude Coates of St. Paul and Betty Jane and Helen Carlson of Duluth, who accompanied Mrs. Locatelli to California for a two months' vacation trip.

Mr. and Mrs. Stowell Bancroft of Pasadena, Mrs. C. G. Olsen of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Jones of South Gate, Mrs. Janet Woodington, Mr. and Mrs. John Keefer and son Bill, Mrs. L. C. Burger, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Burgener and sons, Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy Snodgrass and daughter and the hostess.

A buffet dinner was enjoyed at 1:30, followed by a song fest and games.

SUB-DERS ORGANIZE FOR SUMMER FUN

Torrance's newest sub-deb club made its debut recently when a group of girls gathered at the patio of the L. H. Deinger home, 1337 Engracia avenue, for a potluck supper and elected officers for the newly organized group. The girls plan many social affairs during the summer and are looking forward to beach parties, barbecues and other events.

Officers include Louise Van Kralingen, president; Diana Stanton, vice-president; Karna Deinger, corresponding secretary; Patsy Whitney, recording secretary; Enid Weis, treasurer, and Barbara Woodcock, publicity chairman.

MATRON IS STORK SHOWER HONOREE

Mrs. Leland Pisel (Lena Andrews) was honored at a shower given for her Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Jack Quigley, 1003 N. Arlington avenue. A pink and white color arrangement was used and pink rosebuds added a dainty note. Gifts surrounding a large standing stork were presented to Mrs. Pisel and refreshments were served on individual trays.

Names inscribed in the guest scrapbook included those of Mesdames J. R. Vandegrift, E. A. Stamper, R. J. Rogers, Wm. Everett, Don Kelley and son Donnie, Jim Carey, Orville Haeffell, Mona Thomas, Roy K. Newkirk, Allen Muir, C. M. Northrup, H. G. Mitts, F. A. Lincoln, Velora Murphy and sons Jimmy Gene and Billy Pat, Millie Andrews, Lida Turner and daughter Lavina and the hostess.

AUXILIARY LEADERS RECEIVE CITATION

Mrs. Ella Robinson, accompanied by Mesdames Merle Youngkin, Oliva Young and Daisy Watson, attended the 19th District American Legion Auxiliary meeting at San Pedro last Wednesday evening when a national citation for membership was received by Mrs. Robinson for her auxiliary group. Much credit for this honor is due Mrs. Maxine Smith and her membership committee for their splendid work in securing their quota of members before Dec. 31 last year.

BAPTIST MISSIONARY SOCIETY NOTES

Fifty-six members of Baptist Missionary Society attended the meeting held at the church last Thursday. Beginning at 10 a. m. devotionals were led by Mrs. Allan Muir followed by a talk by Mrs. H. G. Mitts on "Missionary Lights from Bethlehem." Mrs. Pierson was heard in a story and Mrs. E. E. Dalby spoke on "Religion Still Lives in Russia."

A potluck luncheon at noon was followed by White Cross work in the afternoon. A duet sung by Mrs. A. W. Daniels and Mrs. Hammond was enjoyed by the group.
