Three Boys Held for BB Shooting and Car Daubing

Three young boys found themselves in trouble during the past week as result of escapades which included the shooting of another boy in the eye with a BB rifle and the malicious daubing of a local woman's car inside and out with paint, according to police reports.

A 16 year old Bellflower youth was arrested late last Thursday for assault in connection with the wounding of John Wallace, 12 year-old Wilmington boy, Sept. 3, on the Weston Ranch. Young Wallace faces the loss of the sight of one eye as result of being shot by the Bellflower boy with a BB rifle. The Bellflower youth plead guilty to the charge and his sentence has been continued pending outcome of his victim's medical treatment.

Two local youngsters, aged 14 and 15, were charged with malicious mischief following investigation of the painting of Mrs. B Townsend's car on the night of Sept. 4. Mrs. Townsend lives at 2203 Gramercy avenue. The 15 year-old is reported by police to have a previous record and had been a ward of the Juvenile court. Both boys have admitted the paint daubing, police state.

Phone Links Local Resident to Both S. F. and N. Y. Fairs

When other great fairs are held in the future, Mrs. Mary Haig Olding is going to be greatly disappointed if she doesn't receive a telephone call from them.

Last week she enjoyed a telephone conversation with her sister, Mrs. B. B. Lewis of 1323 Cedar avenue who was speaking from the San Francisco Exposition. Mrs. Lewis happened to be the lucky person visiting the phone company exhibit there who was allowed to make a call any place in the U. S. free of charge.

This morning Mrs. Olding conversed with her father, F. R. Haig, who was calling from the New York World's Fair. Haig has been on an eastern vacation trip for a month. He is expected to return in about two weeks.

ORDER FIRE PLUG

The city council instructed the Narbonne Ranch Water Company No. 3 to install a fire plug at 227th and Pennsylvania avenue this week.

Coordinators to Press Move for Youth Center

Determined to press the establishment of a Torrance Youth Center on a site that will carry out the name of the facilities for boys and girls, a real clubhouse centrally located, the Torrance Coordinating Council Monday night authorized President Robert Lessing to appoint a committee of 10 to obtain an early commitment from the city council on the project.

This group will be headed by Rev. Thomas R. Marshall, Lessing said. He has not appointed the other members as yet. In addition to this effort to obtain a building and equipment for the use of supervised boys' and girls' activities, member organizations belonging to the Council indicated they will circulate petitions among their individual groups to support the movement.

"We have put in months of intensive study on the problem of leisure-time activities for boys and girls up to 18 or 20 years of age and we feel we have an eminently worthy proposition to place before the city council," Judge Lessing said. "Our investigations have proved that present facilities, those confined to the City park and the three recreation centers, are not enough to hold the interest of our young people. And only a relatively small percentage of boys and girls are patronizing them. Therefore, we must do something to attract the attention of the younger generation. This a well-equipped, modern Youth Center building can do."

The man who brags, "I run things in my house," usually refers to the lawn mower, washing machine, vacuum cleaner, baby carriage and errands.

TO IMPROVE STREETS

Two appropriations totaling $497.06, were approved by the city council Tuesday night to pay for materials for the repair of Pennsylvania avenue from Scrubveda to 240th street and to resurface the main street in the Pueblo district.

CORNELL, N. Y.—Impurity of rain is due to dust, pollen and other substances it washes from the air.

Survey of State Highway System Asked by Assoc.

A strong movement is under way to have a complete survey made of the entire California state highway system by the Highway Commission. This movement is supported by the Southwest District Highways Association and is asked for these reasons:

To include more important highways not at present in the state system; eliminate highways that are not important in proportion to others and to bring up highway standards of important thoroughfares so that they may be included and maintained under the state system.

In asking this survey, the local highway group is requesting that the U. S. government be consulted to determine what roads are needed for military purposes and for what roads the maximum amount of Federal highway funds probably could be procured. The state legislature has been requested to pass any or all laws necessary to aid the survey and thereafter to conform the facts therein found.

Inclusion in the state system of Imperial Highway from Roosevelt Highway at the Pacific Ocean in El Segundo easterly to that section of Imperial Highway already in the state system is being strongly urged by the Southwest District Highways Association. The movement started in the form of a resolution which will be presented to the Board of Supervisors, State Highway Commission, each assemblyman and state senator in the district affected, and all newspapers and Chambers of Commerce in the Southwest area.

It is planned that necessary legislation be passed at the next session of the state legislature to take this highway into the state system.

Penney Store to Move Into New Site In 18 Days

Manager Hillman Lee of the J. C. Penney store announced today that he expects to occupy the new store, now under construction at 1263 Sartori avenue in 18 days. In preparation for the big moving-day, Lee announces a special "Removal Sale" at the Penney store in today's issue.

Rapid progress is being made on the $17,000 structure which adjoins the Star Furniture Company. It has a 60-foot frontage on Sartori avenue and its brick walls extend 120 feet back on the lot. The Penney manager recently returned from a combined business and pleasure trip to New York where he conferred with company officials about furnishings and stock for the new store.

Oil Field Clean Up Starts Soon

Five closely typewritten sheets containing names of owners of oil wells in the Torrance field have been compiled for the proposed oil field clean-up of abandoned derricks, oil sumps and other traces of the activity which had two "booms" here, City Clerk A. H. Bartlett informed the city council Tuesday night.

This information was ordered turned over to the police chief and fire chief who will investigate and seek to have the owners clean up the property. If nothing is done about the proposed improvement the council then may institute condemnation proceedings and request the state to forfeit the $5,000 bond posted by oil well developers guaranteeing proper clean-up after a well is abandoned.
