Briton Writes Brother Here He's Now in His Second World War

We do not worry very much over Hitler for we are just waiting for him to come over here till we give him a dambod good whacking.

So reads a letter received late last week by Frank Thompson of 823 Cota avenue from his brother in England.

I am in the army again and doing fine so this is two wars for me. I am enjoying it up to now.

The author of the following tribute to the Factory Frolic, "B. B." recently had one of her poetic squibs published by Bill Henry in his Los Angeles Times column.

ALL PARTICIPANTS ARE THANKED

In expressing their thanks and appreciation to everyone who participated in the Arts, Crafts and Hobby Show.

We could never have had such a splendid show if everyone had not been so willing and eager to cooperate.

POET WRITES FROLIC ODE

The author of the following tribute to the Factory Frolic, "B. B." recently had one of her poetic squibs published by Bill Henry in his Los Angeles Times column.

Oh, Torrance is a lively town, A thriving little city. From lawns of green to hills of brown.

Each year we don our jeans and cap And roll our shirt sleeves high. Then put good-fellowship on tap.

We put our wares upon display. Exhibit talents too. So much to see, to make one gay.

So now it's back to work we go. But first give thanks today. 'Tis such a blessed thing to know We're Torrance, U. S. A.!

that she will be pleased to see you all. She is quite able when she gets a letter from you—it seems to brist her up a lot.

Frolic Sports Winners Listed

Winners of the various Factory Frolic sports events were recorded each day by Earl K. Johnstone, supervisor of the Torrance WPA Recreation project.

GIRLS' PLANK RACE Evelyn Jean Tucker, 12, 1740 Arlington, who traveled farthest on narrow boards laid on El Prado's pavement; Mary Lafferty, 11, 1816 Arlington; Elisa Stanley, 13, 2232 Andros avenue, and June Johnstone, 12, 715 Pacific Lane.

ADULTS' GOLF PITCH Jack Barrington, 2368 Torrance Boulevard, first; L. B. Kelsey, 817 Madrin avenue, second; Gerald Madrin, Torrance, third.

JALOPY TURTLE RACE Because all cars in this "slow motion" race stalled during the course of the "dash" all were disqualified and the "race" called off.

BOYS' FOOTBALL PASSING Jim Frowthen, 2212 Torrance boulevard first; Jim Post, 1541 Post avenue, second, and Clair Johnson, 1938 238th street, third.

Men's high score—50 shoes: Fred Lydy, 1324 Portola, with 108 points.

Women's high score—50 shoes: Mrs. D. R. Baird, 2554 Sonoma, 29 points.

Parade Spectators at Reviewing Stand Are Kept Well-Informed

Two announcers manned two microphones at the reviewing stand during the parade. Commander Edwin A. Bird of the Torrance American Legion post described the floats, marching and comedy units—getting well squibbed by his fellow Legionnaires as they trooped by mounted on donkeys—and Elden Frock of La Crescenta gave information to the crowd on the horse entries.

Froek was doing double duty last Saturday. Before the parade started he was the lone judge of the horse entries and his many years' of experience qualified him for that arduous job.

El Prado Furniture's Rooster Eats, Decides Unique Guessing Contest

That rooster which Carney Emmet installed in his El Prado Furniture Store window during the Factory Frolic pecked up a total of 255 kernels of corn in 10 minutes after a short fast and thus gave a floor lamp to Mrs. M. J. Carr of 1537 Marcelina avenue.

She guessed the fowl's consumption almost to a kernel. Second prize for the second best guess, a coffee table, was awarded to Ed Torrance of 1211 El Prado.

Float Pilot Nabbed by Officer as Gag During Procession

The next time George Chaney thinks about piloting a vehicle in a Torrance Factory Frolic parade—he's going to remember what happened to him last Saturday afternoon.

Chaney was driving a Mercury tractor pulling a string of six small cars bearing the National Supply Company's products in the Frolic parade when he was "arrested" by Captain Frank Schumacher right in front of the reviewing stand.

The gag-victim's helper, Tom Dougherty, offered him no assistance as Chaney was led off to the city jail. His place was taken by Henry Junior and the parade went on. But Chaney missed the rest of the parade. The "charge" against him—which was never formally recorded—was speeding (at six miles an hour) and living in Inglewood!

BLEND ROMANCE, RHYTHM... Streamline glamour is deftly combined with ancient Greek backgrounds in the romantic musical farce "The Boys From Syracuse," as indicated by two of the lovely ladies shown herewith. Rosemary Lane (L) and Irene Hervey. The comedy drama opens Sunday at the Grand theatre.

MR. and MRS. BUMSTEAD... Blondie wants a maid and she's talked Dagwood into promising to ask for a raise—which should explain the worried look on Arthur Lake's face and Penny Singleton's more cheerful expression. The comedy opens Sunday at the Lomita theatre.

Frolic Scores Big Hit With Huge Crowds

(Continued from Page 1) thru the entrance and this showed: 5,009 on Thursday, 4,864 on Friday and 7,700 on Saturday. Of course those figures included those who came in more than once during the Frolic but those who repeated visits usually brought friends who had not seen the displays as yet.

The sports events, arranged by George Moore, attracted more entries than such features at previous Frolics and the barbecue served late Saturday afternoon and evening was an innovation that accommodated some 850 diners.

Chairman Gilmeister, in a statement Monday, pointed out that the Frolic was a success because nearly every organization in the city cooperated in its arrangement and shared in the big job of planning the festivities. He expressed his thanks and appreciation and those of his general committee to everyone who worked to make the Frolic the fine community enterprise it was.

Members of Committee The general committee included: Mrs. Hillman Lee, vice-chairman; John Shidler, secretary; Sam Levy, treasurer; Parade and Floats, M. J. "Curley" Brumley, chairman; Police Chief John Stroh, Councilman Vern Babcock, Commander Edwin A. Bird of the American Legion post, and Robert Lewellen of the Sons of the Legion.

Concessions: John Shidler, chairman; Sports: George Moore, chairman; Dale Riley and Johnstone; Decorations: E. E. Murchison, chairman; Dances: Vernon Coll, chairman; Publicity: Michael Strasser; Arts, Crafts and Hobbies: Mrs. Cora Bohrer, Dale Riley and Miss Ada Chase; Amusements: Dr. O. E. Fossum, chairman; and Finance: Dean L. Sears and Sam Levy.

The open-air and Civic Auditorium entertainment programs drew large crowds and the enjoying people, won applause for entertainers, mostly children and every act.
