P. T. A. LADIES ATTEND CONFERENCES

Representing Torrance at the P.T.A. Tenth District publicity conference held at the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce Building Tuesday were Mrs. E. W. Lock from High school P.T.A. and Mrs. C. W. Brown from Elementary P.T.A. Mesdames W. H. Tolson and H. R. Lee attended the Lomita-San Pedro council meeting today at Orange Street school in Lomita.

Tomorrow's a good time to start your shopping in Torrance.

NEWS OF WOMEN OF THE MOOSE

Library chairman Marie Benson and Ritual chairman Elsie Smith and their committees have charge of arrangements for the entertainment by Women of the Moose tomorrow evening at Social Hall, Portola and Torrance boulevard. A bingo party and posture class will follow a talk on "Library Benefits" by a guest speaker. The public is cordially invited. There will be no charge.

Several Thanksgiving baskets were prepared and distributed by Bertha Stevenson, assistant social service chairman, and her committee. Funds for this work were received from cash donations and receipts from a recent card party. The chapter takes this opportunity to thank all those who assisted in this worthwhile work.

Wednesday, Dec. 11, is the date of the Christmas benefit party at Moose Hall. A 12 o'clock luncheon will be followed by a card party. Tables of bridge, 600, pinochle and buncio will be in play. Tickets at 25 cents may be purchased from Women of the Moose or at the door. The public is cordially invited. Beatrice Thompson, Moosehaven chairman, and her committee have charge of arrangements.

An interesting business meeting is being planned for Friday, Dec. 6. Reports will be read by war relief, ritual, publicity, child care, Mooseheart hospital and membership chairmen. Much interest is being evidenced among membership teams during the current contest. Team having most new members by Jan. 1 will be guests of the losers at a dinner.

British War Relief Aided by Teas And Donations

Nigel Bruce, of Hollywood was the featured speaker at a meeting of the British Red Cross War Relief Society held at San Pedro last Wednesday. He gave an interesting talk, highlighting his topic by reading excerpts from letters from friends in England which gave an indication of the fine morale of the British people. At the close of his talk he was presented with a check for $100 for the British Red Cross, representing the proceeds from teas given during November.

The Greek Red Cross of San Pedro was represented at the meeting. Mrs. E. G. Neess reported the donation of 100 new coats, gift of the Jewish garment workers, for shipment to England.

The next meeting will be held at St. Peter's Parish hall in San Pedro Wednesday, Dec. 11. Tea was served at the conclusion of the business meeting. Torrance was represented by Mesdames G. A. Evans, E. A. Lock, Charles Chaplin, Chris Jones, A. Woodbourne and E. W. Lock.

City Librarian Urges Good Books at Fern P.T.A.

"Informed Adults at Home and in the Community" was the theme stressed at the Fern Avenue P. T. A. meeting Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. Dorothy Jamieson, in an interesting and informative talk, stressed books as one of the best mediums of being well informed. She advocated reading to small children, to give them the necessary background for later selection of good books and deplored availability of dime store novels. The city librarian suggested that parents cultivate in children a taste for better books, suggesting that "King Arthur and Knights of the Round Table" be substituted for Superman and Red Ryder for "hero worship" and adventure material.

A feature of the program was a demonstration of reading by Mrs. Frigan's second graders. Mesdames Turner, Moore, Davis and Billups composed the nominating committee to choose a first vice-president to succeed Mrs. Mark McIvaine, who recently resigned to take a position in San Pedro.

Mrs. J. O. Marriott, Lomita-San Pedro Council president, was guest of honor at the meeting and at the tea following. Mesdames R. E. Shumert and Michael Strasser served as hostesses for the tea. A book exhibit was an additional note of interest to the social hour.

J. R. WILKES IS HOST TO LEGION BOARD
J. R. Wilkes was host when he entertained the executive board of American Legion at a stag Mexican dinner at his home on Carson street Monday evening. The Mexican theme was carried out effectively in menu and accessories. Covers were placed for Messrs. Edwin Bird, Clair Larava, L. V. Babcock, Ralph Satchell, Charles Dunbar, James Brodie, D. A. Murphy, J. A. Hallinger, H. C. Stanger, Floyd Boyle, Louis Deinger, L. G. Barkdull and T. T. Babbitt.
