Mme. Bellini's Pupils Present "Practice Hour"

The fifth "Practice Hour" of the season was held last Friday at the Los Angeles studio of Mme. Teala Bellini, concert pianist and teacher of piano. In spite of the very heavy rain and flooded highways, the studio was filled to capacity.

A most interesting program was heard with the Chopin E Minor Concerto being played by Dorothy Woodruff, 15-year-old pupil of Mme. Bellini. The guest artist was Marilyn Woodruff, violinist, 11-year-old pupil of Peter Meremblum. Marilyn, who is a member of the Meremblum junior string quartet and the Meremblum California junior symphony orchestra, played a Mozart Concerto with her sister Dorothy at the piano. Others taking part were Jean Morgan, Thelma Ness, Marilyn Stannard and Kiyoko Hasegawa. Mme. Bellini played several request numbers. The next program will be March 28 at Mme. Bellini's Los Angeles studio, 903 So. Burlington, and will feature students both adults and juniors, who have never before played to an audience.

The "Practice Hour" programs present a different group of students each month and present solo and two piano numbers with interesting guest artists. The next guest artist will be Lewis Meehan, Irish tenor and teacher of voice.

Mrs. Sarah Moon Honored on 77th Birthday Here

Mrs. Fred Harder was hostess when she entertained with a buffet supper at her home on Greenwood avenue, Sunday, honoring her aunt, Mrs. Sarah J. Moon, on the occasion of her 77th birthday anniversary.

Marigolds and white tapers were used for the lace covered buffet table accenting the yellow and white color arrangement used throughout, while a beautifully decorated birthday cake was cut by the honoree. Mrs. Moon received many lovely personal gifts and games furnished the evening diversion.

Those present, in addition to the honoree, were Messrs. and Mrs. Donald Pridham of Costa Mesa, Fred McHarg of Long Beach, Neils Llewellyn and John W. Barker of Redondo Beach, Elmer S. Moon and Fred Harder of Torrance, Miss Vivienne Barker of Culver City, Messrs. James McCandless and Frank Humistan of Whittier.

The following original poem, entitled "At 77", was written by Mrs. Moon on the occasion of her birthday:

I have come down thru many years
With lots of happiness and some bitter tears
I have learned a lot as I have come along life's rugged way
One thing, it is what one does, not just what they say;
And it is true, as we have all so often heard—
Tho' it helps a lot, it is not the file feathers
That make the bird.
I also find as on this journey I onward go
We always reap just about what we sow.
It pays to plant bright flowers all along the way—
So we can stop and pluck them from day to day.

At 77 I find there is lots to learn.
I'm no sage, but earnestly say life ripens,
Grows sweet with age.
There is no sorrow that with grace we cannot bear—
No load so heavy that our Saviour with us will not share.
And today with my children and loved ones
To help me celebrate at 77,
I want to say I am nearer, yes, much nearer heaven.

Don't Hit Your Feet With a Sledgehammer

Every day, the soles and heels of your feet hit the pavement thousands of times with the force of your weight behind them. They need real protection to withstand such abuse.

Cheap half-soles, attached by "speed" methods, don't give necessary protection. Let us put "extra-grade" half-soles on your shoes... for your health and for economy.
