BROWNIES ON TOUR Accompanied by their leader, Mrs. R. H. Arnholt, 16 members of the Harbor City Brownies troop No. 244, and six other adults toured The Torrance Herald plant to see how that paper and The Lomita News is published. Afterwards they had their picture taken by a staff photographer in front of The Herald building.

SEEK MARAUDERS Local police are still seeking the two or more boys who broke into the Boy Scout hall on El Prado last Thursday night and virtually wrecked the interior. The marauders were reported by Edford Page of 1723 Arlington ave. Mrs. C. E. Woodcock represented Torrance Woman's Out at an educational conference held last Thursday at L. A. City College.

Henning Olsen, who hides his face ("Aw, gee whiz, I don't b'long with a lotta girls!"), Rachel McDonald, Kathleen Smith, Dorothy Whippo, Marilyn Biegel, Donna Crecelius and Joan Gaudino.

of the newspaper plant by Grover C. Whyte, publisher, and Micheal Strasser, city editor. A high-point of the trip was seeing the Goss press on which the papers are printed, rolling off their 3,000 issues an hour.

Other ladies in the party were Mrs. M. F. Henry and Mrs. Amanda Olson, leaders; Mrs. J. J. Stevens, Mrs. Jenny Steeleman, Mrs. R. Biegel and Mrs. C. C. Whippo.

He's Watching Whole 'City'

This picture of a gigantic Paul Bunyan-of-a-British-soldier, striding over the earth, looks like it might be a Nazi nightmare, but it isn't. Instead, it's peace-loving Robert Callingham of Beaconsfield, England, standing over his hobby—a miniature town—and ready to defend it against bombs with a sump pump and other equipment.

Only Eight Days Left to File 1940 Federal Income Tax Returns

Warning was issued today by Nat Rogan, Collector of Internal Revenue for Southern California, that only eight business days are left in which to file 1940 Federal Income and Defense Tax Returns. "March 15 is the absolute deadline," declared Rogan, "and all Southern California tax returns must be in our hands by midnight of that date. A post-mark of March 15 is not considered a timely filing."

'Come on In, the Ice Is Fine'

"Come on in, the ice is fine," say these members of Chicago's Edge-water Polar Bear Club as they lumber up for their annual plunge into the not exactly tropical waters of Lake Michigan. "Waikiki Beach in Honolulu was never like this," yelled one man, who could not swim because of sharp ice. (UP-Universal News)

PURE LOVELINESS

The loveliest girls and loveliest flowers will vie with the loveliest of Jusoula citrus fruit for honors at the National Orange Show in San Bernardino, March 13 to 23—the oranges and flowers for cash awards and coveted trophies—Linda Deane for the title of "Sun Princess." Preparations now in the completion stage augur for the most magnificent orange spectacle of all time.
